FROM

THE HON'BLE SIR ELLIOT GRAHAM COLVIN, K.C.S.I.,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Dated Abu, the 11th January 1917.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report of Ajmer-Merwara for the year 1915-1916 compiled by the Commissioner, Mr. C. C. Watson, C.I.E., I.C.S., with my remarks thereon.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

E. G. COLVIN,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

Remarks by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

1. The year 1915-1916 was marked by a very feeble monsoon in Ajmer-Merwara, the rainfall being about one-third only of the normal. Owing, however, to the good rabi harvest of the preceding year revenue collections amounted to Rs. 3,01,403 against Rs. 3,10,083 in 1914-1915. The provisional remissions finally confirmed after the close of the year under report amounted to Rs. 1,06,608.

2. The total Imperial receipts were Rs. 9,92,634 and total Imperial expenditure Rs. 10,15,572.

3. There was a further decrease, though a small one, in the area of agricultural land transferred by sale. The Land Alienation Regulation continued to have a marked effect in this direction.

4. The new water-works at Bhaonta proved their value by saving the city of Ajmer from a water famine.

5. The rainfall in October saved the district from actual famine, but there was a severe shortage of grass everywhere and in Merwara it was found necessary to maintain relief works from September to 31st March, although the case was declared to be one of "scarcity" not "famine" and the works were maintained as test works.

Every facility was given for the import of grass, including concession rates in the freight of fodder, which were introduced in September 1915, and remained in force till the end of the year. A considerable amount of grass was also imported at the expense of Government to five depôts specially opened for that purpose. These measures together with emigration of cattle, resulted in saving large numbers of cattle, and practically all the plough cattle.

6. The Co-operative Credit system weathered the bad season with remarkable success. No effort was made to extend its operations, but it lost no ground, and with the prospects of a good season ahead, should make large strides next year and a considerable portion of the large balances outstanding should be recovered. The Societies spent no less than Rs. 1,11,223 on purchase of seed and manure and Rs. 74,468 on purchase of fodder. Sums of Rs. 8,310 and Rs. 10,201 were expended on "payment of old debts" and "redemption of land" respectively.

7. Education figures show slight but steady progress throughout the year, and the opening of 10 new Vernacular Schools is a satisfactory item.

8. The war was responsible for a considerable drop, over Rs. 35,000, in the receipts from country spirits.

9. The Pushkar Fair and the Tejaji Fairs at Beawar and Kekri had to be abandoned owing to the scarcity of fodder and water.

E. G. COLVIN,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

7th December 1916.

REPORT

FOR

SECTION I.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION.

Personnel.

1. The office of Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, was held by Mr. A. T. Holme, I.C.S., from 1st April 1915 to 28th October 1915 and thereafter by Mr. C. G. Watson, C.I.E., I.C.S. The office of Additional District and Sessions Judge was held throughout the year by Diwan Bahadur Munshi Damodar Lal.

2. The appointment of Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, was held by Mr. L. G. L. Evans, I.C.S., from 1st April to 10th May 1915 and thereafter by Mr. H. C. Greenfield, I.C.S.

3. Munshi Phul Chand, Extra Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer, remained on leave throughout the year. Rai Sahib Munshi Gopi Nath officiated as Extra Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer, from 1st April to 2nd July 1915 and Munshi Shanker Lal from 3rd July 1915 to the end of the year.

4. Rai Sahib Pandit Brij Jiwan Lal continued to hold the appointment of Extra Assistant Commissioner, Merwara.

5. The post of Sub-Divisional Officer, Kekri, was held by Munshi Bhagwati Lal from 1st April 1915 to 1st July 1915, by Munshi Ram Charan Das from 2nd July 1915 to 31st January 1916, and by Munshi Maharaj Swarup from 1st February 1916 to the end of the year.

6. Lieutenant-Colonel R. C. Macwatt, F.R.C.S., I.M.S., C.I.E., continued in the office of Civil Surgeon and Mr. S. T. Hollins in that of Superintendent of Police, Ajmer-Merwara, throughout the year.

Revenue and expenditure. (Vide statement No. 42.)

7. The total revenue (Imperial and local) of Ajmer-Merwara for the year amounted to Rs. 15,08,790 as compared with Rs. 16,33,824 last year and the total expenditure was Rs. 15,82,656 as against Rs. 20,00,810.

8. Imperial revenue rose from Rs. 9,83,432 in the year 1914-15 to Rs. 9,92,634 in the year under report, while the expenditure fell from Rs. 13,66,939 in the preceding year to Rs. 10,15,572 in 1915-16.

9. There was still a deficit of Rs. 22,938 in the Imperial revenue in 1915-16, as compared with a deficit of Rs. 3,83,507 in the preceding year.

10. The deficit was principally due to variations in the revenue and expenditure under the following heads :—

Receipts.	Rs.
1. Excise	−35,918
2. Assessed taxes	+16,348
2. Interest	+20,971
4. Law and Justice (Courts of Law)	+11,484

Expenditure.	Rs.
1. Interest	+13,982
2. Miscellaneous	+37,603
3. Famine Relief	−2,31,166

11. The decrease in receipts under the head of "Excise" is due partly to the high prices of food grains and partly to a local reduction in Ajmer, Nasirabad and Deoli owing to the removal of troops.

12. Under the head "Assessed Taxes," the increase is due to the fact that the arrears of the previous year and the demand of the year under report were recovered in full.

13. The increase under the head "Interest" is due to larger recoveries of interest on Demi and Taccavi loans. The rise under head "Law and Justice (Courts of Law)" is due to heavier fines being recovered than in the previous year.

14. No irrecoverable taccavi loans were written off as in the year 1914-15, which accounts for the decrease under the head "Miscellaneous." The fall under the head "Famine Relief" was due to the fact that Government were not required, as in the previous year, to pay to the Railways the cost of special concession rates on fodder.

SECTION II.

ADMINISTRATION OF THE LAND.

COURT OF WARDS.

(Year ending the 31st July 1916.)

Tenure of Office.

15. The charge of the office of General Manager, Court of Wards, Ajmer, was held during the whole of the year under report by Mr. J. A. de Souza.

Agricultural aspect.

16. The monsoon rainfall from 1st June 1915 to 30th October 1915 averaged only from 4 inches to 11 inches as against the normal rainfall of 21 inches. The deficiency in the rainfall resulted in an almost total failure of the kharif crop on barani lands except in the Kekri circle where a fall of 2 to 5 inches in the first week of October saved a fair proportion of the crop ; the crop on irrigated and abi lands was very restricted in area and did not produce more than 6 annas in the rupee.

17. The rabi crop was assisted to some extent by the rainfall in the first week of October, but owing to the limited supply of water in wells and tanks and the absence of winter rains, the area sown was below ¼th of the average. Unfortunately the greater proportion of the early crop was also affected by frost and the average outturn did not exceed 6 to 8 annas in the rupee.

18. The most serious factor in the unfavourable agricultural situation was the scarcity of fodder, which was very acute and necessitated the removal of all, except plough cattle, to pastures in Central India.

19. The action of Government in allowing concession rates on carriage of fodder by rail has been successful in preserving a large proportion of the plough cattle and saving the cultivators from the loss of their most indispensable form of capital. The concession enabled the cultivators to obtain grass and fodder at rates from Re. 1 to Re. 1-4 per maund, whereas before the concession was granted, the rates of fodder averaged 16 to 20 seers per rupee.

20. It was not found necessary to provide relief works in any of the estates except Masuda, Rajgarh, and Jharwasa where work on roads and tanks was provided for those who required relief besides grant of Taccavi advances. In the remaining estates the situation was met by the advance of Taccavi loans. The rents are mostly recovered in kind, and hence it was not necessary to grant remissions and suspensions of revenue to any large extent.

Estates under management.

21. The year commenced with 15 estates under management, namely :— (1) Masuda, (2) Kalahera Bogla, (3) Goela, (4) Basundni, (5) Kanai Kalan, (6) Sadara, (7) Gangwana, (8) Rajgarh, (9) Pranhera, (10) Jharwasa, (11) Rajosi, (12) Karan Mal's estate, (13) Dewan's estate, (14) Makhupura and (15) Hoosein Bano's estate.

22. During the year two estates were placed under the Court's management, namely (1) Bandanwara on 7th February 1916 on the death of the late Rao Bahadur Thakur Gaj Singh who has left a minor son named Thakur Rameshwar Singh aged about 12 years, and (2) the estate of one Nanni Begum, a shareholder in the Dewan's jagir village of Dilwara, on 5th July 1916, under sections 6 and 7 (1) (c) (iv) of the Ajmer Government Wards Regulation, 1888.

23. Thus at the end of the year the number of estates under management was 17, besides the estate of Bhagirath lunatic, a jat of Dorai, which is managed under the provisions of the Lunacy Act, and the estate of the Dargah Miran Sahib which is supervised by the General Manager, Court of Wards, Ajmer, as Receiver.

36. The creditors of the estate of Jharwasa are obtaining Civil Court decrees and the surplus balance available is sent to the Court for distribution amongst the creditors.

37. The creditors of the Rajosi estate like those of the Jharwasa estate, will be paid through the Civil Court when they obtain Civil Court decrees.

38. The debts of the Dewan have been compromised for Rs. 13,713-12-0. Of these Rs. 415 were paid off during the year. The balance it is proposed to pay off by means of a dami loan of Rs. 8,000 and the surplus balance of the estate of Rs. 5,298-12 which is expected to be available during the next year (1916-17).

39. The Makhupura debts.—During the year Rs. 287-4-3 were paid to one Goru Lal who held a Civil Court decree. The remaining debts have been compromised for Rs. 4,500 to be paid from the surplus balance of the estate.

40. The Bandanwara estate debts comprised Rs. 23,437-1-1 due to the Alliance Bank of Simla, Rs. 10,750 to the Ajmer Central Bank and Rs. 2,000 to Indermal Mahajan of Bandanwara. These debts have been paid in full. The debt due to the Alliance Bank was repaid from the amount, viz., Rs. 39,520-13-4 received on account of the late Thakur's Life Policy with the Standard Insurance Company which was pledged as security for the debt.

41. The mica mines at Kalahera and Basundni were worked throughout the year by the Rajputana Mining Syndicate. Rs. 4,587-13-0 were received during the year on account of the profit of the Basundni mines. The Kalahera mines are also working at a profit, but no profits were received during the year as the mica consignments remained unsold. Mines.

42. The wards named in the margin continued their studies throughout the year at the Mayo College. Thakur Narain Singh of Kanai Kalan is receiving his education at the Kekri Municipal School. Thakur Bijai Singh of Masuda passed the Diploma examination during the year and is now in the 1st year post Diploma class. Raja Jawan Singh, a shareholder in the Jagir of Gangwana, studies at the Government College and another shareholder, Raja Jodh Singh, son of the late Raja Fateh Singh, is receiving education at the Government High School, Ajmer. 43. Thakur Udai Singh of Basundni was laid up with a severe attack of pneumonia in March 1916. The health of all other wards was good throughout the year. Health of the Wards.

SECTION III.

PROTECTION.

(I) AJMER-MERWARA POLICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1915).

Compiled by L. M. Kaye, Esq., Inspector-General of Police, Ajmer-Merwara.

Vide Statements, Nos. 4 to 10.

44. Mr. L. B. Goad held the office of Superintendent of Police in Ajmer-Merwara from January 1st to March 23rd, when his services were placed at the disposal of the Hyderabad State. Mr. S. T. Hollins assumed charge of that office, on his arrival from the United Provinces, on March 26th and continued in that post up to the close of the year. Mr. J. G. Hogan, Assistant Superintendent, Ajmer-Merwara Police, officiated as Superintendent for the two days which intervened between Mr. Goad's departure and Mr. Hollins' arrival.

INCREASE AND DECREASE IN REPORTED COGNIZABLE CRIME.

45. The total volume of cognizable crime reported in 1915, including true cases reported to magistrates and all cases reported to the police, was 4,110 as against 5,345 in 1914 and 4,903 in 1913. The principal variations in the figures of the last two years are shown in the table given below :—

Particulars.	1914.					1915.
	Cognizable.			Non-cognizable cases.	Total crime.	Cognizable.			Non-cognizable cases.	Total crime.

GRAND TOTAL	3,417	1,928	5,345	4,315	9,660	3,679	431	4,110	3,914	8,024

46. A scrutiny of these figures shows that, while cognizable crime, as a whole, has decreased by approximately one-fourth, reports to the police increased by nearly 8 per cent. A further comparison shows that considerably over four-fifths of the total decrease fell among cases in class VI.

47. The increase in reports to the police may safely be ascribed to the economic conditions of Ajmer-Merwara in 1915. Not only did prices rule very high throughout the year, but the failure of the 1915 monsoon, which resulted in the entire absence of fodder almost throughout the district and in a very restricted area being brought under cultivation, had a marked effect on those forms of crime which are influenced by the prosperity or poverty of the lower classes.

48. The decrease in magisterial cases calls for more than passing notice. A reference to the crime statements for the year 1913 shows that the sum total of magisterial cases for that year was 545. The number of such cases increased to 1,928 for the year 1914, and the main cause of that increase was unwonted activity on the part of magistrates during that year in instituting prosecutions for offences against the sanitary laws. The exhaustion following such unwonted activity is, no doubt, mainly responsible for the drop in the magisterial figures but two other contributory causes appear to be (1) inaccuracy in the magisterial returns for 1914 and the special action taken in 1915 to ensure that cases reported to the police in the first instance were returned as police cases and (2) the hard times and financial stringency which have made would-be litigants less prone to appeal to the Courts for redress in trivial cases than in times of plenty. As regards (1) it may be stated that, subsequent to the submission of the review for 1914, it was discovered that, through carelessness in the preparation of the returns, a considerable number of cases had been shown twice over, i.e., both under the head of cases reported to magistrates and that of cases reported to the police. As a result, very strict orders were issued to prevent a recurrence of such carelessness and to ensure that all cases, reported to the police, in the first instance, should be returned as police cases.

49. As regards (2) it may be pointed out that it is common experience that, in times of pestilence or scarcity, litigation is less frequently resorted to by the public than in years of peace and plenty, and the figures in the statement given in paragraph 45 show that the fall in cases reported to magistrates extends equally to non-cognizable and cognizable offences.

50. The variations in the different classes of crime, taking cases reported to police officers and magisterial cases together, are numerically greatest in class II (serious offences against the person), class III (serious offences against person and property or property only), class V (minor offences against property) and class VI (miscellaneous offences). The decrease in class VI has been explained above, and it is only necessary to add regarding it that, for years past, the extraordinarily large number of prosecutions, instituted for offences against sanitary laws, has been specially commented on in the review of the Administration Report, and the decrease in such prosecutions is not altogether undesirable.

51. In only classes III and V has there been any increase and, in the case of class V, that increase is confined to cases reported to the police. The reason for it has also been noted above.

52. The total incidence of reported crime works out at 81·9 per 10,000 of population for 1915 as against 106·6 for 1914. These high figures are chiefly due to the very large number of prosecutions for offences against the sanitary laws which are included in the returns. If such offences be eliminated the total incidence falls to 47·28 for the year under review and to 53·69 for the preceding year.

53. In the United Provinces the total incidence of reported crime was 33·5 for 1913 and 36·5 for 1914 (the two last years for which statistics are available) and, if prosecutions for offences against sanitary laws are eliminated, those figures fall to 29·0 and 31·3 respectively.

54. These statistics prove, yet once again, how relatively heavy the incidence of crime is in Ajmer-Merwara when compared with the United Provinces. This is attributable, as mentioned in previous reviews, to the proportionately large urban population of the district and the immediate proximity of several states with very primitive police arrangements.

55. Cases of non-cognizable crime totalled 3,914 in 1915 as compared with 4,315 in the preceding year. This decrease is chiefly due to a falling off in prosecutions for offences against Municipal Regulations and under the Hackney Carriage Act.

Police Cases—All Classes.

56. Reports of cognizable offences laid to the police during 1915 aggregated 3,679, compared with 3,417 in the preceding year. The increase falls entirely among cases of class III and class V and is, as already stated, due to the economic conditions of Ajmer-Merwara during 1915.

57. Investigation was refused in 525 cases as against 432 in 1914. Though a considerably larger percentage of reports are investigated by the police in this district than is the case in the United Provinces, the Superintendent expresses it as his opinion that his subordinates are still inclined to abuse the discretion granted to them by section 157(b) of the Criminal Procedure Code and mentions that no less than 88 of the cases investigated during the year were enquired into by his special order after his subordinates had declined to undertake any enquiry.

58. Careful supervision of the work of investigating officers will always result in a few such cases coming to light but, as a whole, the discretion referred to above appears to be exercised judiciously in this district and inspections of police stations have revealed little to which exception had to be taken, in this respect.

59. The total number of cases decided during the year under review was 2,395 compared with 2,350 in the preceding year. The percentage—convicted to tried out (96)—was the same for both years. Of true cases investigated (including those brought forward from previous years but excluding cases still pending at the close of the year) 74 per cent. ended in conviction as against 77 in the year 1914. Of persons arrested in those cases (including those pending from previous years but excluding those under arrest at the close of the year) 2,649, or 92 per cent., were convicted in 1915 compared with 2,573, or 91 per cent., in the preceding year. These extraordinarily high figures are, as pointed out in previous reviews, the result of the large proportion of sanitary offences to the whole crime return, conviction being assured in practically all cases of that class. If those cases are omitted, the percentage of cases convicted to investigated falls to 46 for each of the two years under notice, and the percentage of persons convicted to persons whose cases were tried out to 83 for the year 1915 and 70 for the preceding year.

60. These figures show that with a considerable increase in investigating work, there has been no falling off in the percentage of cases convicted, while the percentage of persons convicted to persons whose cases were tried out has, especially in the more serious cases, improved in a marked manner. In the United Provinces, the percentage of cases convicted to cases investigated by the police stood at only 38·8 for 1914 and that of persons convicted in police cases to persons arrested by the police at 77·1. Taking into consideration, therefore, the high incidence of crime in Ajmer-Merwara and the very large proportion of investigations to reports the Superintendent seems fully justified in expressing satisfaction at the result of police action as a whole in dealing with the reported crime of Ajmer-Merwara.

61. The number of cases reported to the police, which were ultimately struck off the registers as false, rose from 29 to 63, and the number removed as due to mistakes of law or fact or because they were declared non-cognizable fell from 24 to 11. No special reason is adduced for this increase and it is probably chiefly due to better investigating work as it is noticeable that in no less than 17 of these cases were prosecutions under section 182, Indian Penal Code, instituted all but two of which proved successful.

Class I.—Offences against the State, Public Tranquillity, Safety and Justice.

62. The number of true cases in this class, for disposal during 1915, was 13. All of them came before the Courts, 12 ending in conviction and 1 in acquittal. The case which ended in acquittal was one in which certain persons were alleged to have attempted to seduce a number of Army recruits from their allegiance to their King. The Court gave them the benefit of the doubt, as it was proved that the recruits were, to a certain extent, under the influence of liquor when this occurred and differed among themselves as to what actually had been said.

63. Only two true offences against coin were reported in the year. One of these was of a petty character, but the other deserves more than passing notice. In that case, owing to complaints of the number of base coins in circulation in Ajmer, a special watch was kept on persons suspected of counterfeiting coins with the result that the Superintendent received reliable information that implements for the manufacture of coin were in the house of one

Ghulam Mahommed. He at once obtained a search-warrant and, accompained by Inspector Bhagwan Singh and other officers, raided this man's house and recovered an exceptionally well executed die, a coining press and a quantity of coining implements. Ghulam Mahommed was sentenced to rigorous imprisonment for seven years and this successful prosecution is said to have driven several suspected coiners away from Ajmer.

64. Five cases of escape from custody were reported during the year, all of which ended in conviction. The most important was the escape of two desperate characters from jail. These men managed to arm themselves with spears and retired to the hills which surround Ajmer. An alarm was raised and a pursuit organised by the police who, assisted by a detachment of the 44th Merwara Infantry, eventually rounded up these convicts but not before they had injured a sepoy of the 44th and a police constable. They were sentenced to one year and nine months additional imprisonment, respectively, for this offence. In only one instance did the escape occur from police custody, the man responsible for it being a Railway police constable. The absconder was re-arrested at Ladpura railway station the following evening and convicted. The constable in fault was dismissed and should, I considered, have been prosecuted in a Court of law though, as he had already left the district before the record of the case reached me, I did not think it advisable to institute judicial proceedings against him at that time.

Class II.—Serious offences against the person.

65. One hundred and thirteen true cases of this class were dealt with in 1915, as against 125 in the preceding year. Sixty-one of those cases came before the Courts (exclusive of 19 which were ultimately compounded) and 43 ended in conviction, while 11 were acquitted and 7 were still pending trial at the close of the year.

66. The number of murders reported in the year under notice was nine compared with twelve in the preceding year. Only five of those cases were worked out, two of which were still pending disposal at the close of 1915. Two cases were convicted in the Court of Session, but one of those convictions was upset on appeal. The remaining case was acquitted. The police have not been successful in dealing with this very serious form of crime during 1915, but most of the cases were intricate ones in which little direct evidence was forthcoming.

67. In two cases, in which women were believed to have been murdered, the corpse was never recovered, and in four other cases no information was given to the police till after the bodies of the victims had been retrieved from wells in a state of putrefaction some days after the murder had been committed. None of the cases exhibited any special features or call for detailed comment.

68. The only other form of crime in this class which calls for special notice is returned under serial No. 21 (kidnapping, etc.). Including 4 brought forward from 1914, the number of cases for disposal totalled 18 in 1915, as against 17 in the year 1914. Once again the police have been unsuccessful in coping with cases of kidnapping, only 9 of them reaching the Courts, of which number 5 were convicted, 2 acquitted and 2 still pending at the close of the year.

69. In consequence of the kidnapping scare which occurred in Ajmer in 1913, and the large number of cases which have been reported ever since then, special instructions were issued in 1915 for the Superintendent to keep a careful watch on occurrences of this nature. As a result he has reported that five of these crimes occurred in Ajmer early in the year and were cases falling under section 369, Indian Penal Code, in which children were enticed away from the vicinity of their homes and were let loose after ornaments which they were wearing had been taken from them. Several other cases were, too, merely technical offences and he is satisfied that no professional trafficing in minors exists in Ajmer-Merwara, and that the increase in cases of kidnapping need cause no apprehension.

Class III.—Serious offences against person and property or against property only.

70. The total number of true cases of this class, dealt with in 1915, was 727 compared with 555 in the preceding year. Of these cases, 415 were investigated and, of 97 which were sent up for trial, 79 ended in conviction and 13 in acquittal, while 5 were still pending at the close of the year.

71. Seven cases of dakaiti were reported in 1915, as against 3 in 1914 and 4 in 1913. The increase is to be regretted, but is partly due to three petty dakaitis which occurred on the Deolia road on July 7th, being shown as separate cases whereas, though this is technically correct, it is customary in Rajputana to show them as all part of one occurrence.

72. It is satisfactory to note that once again not a single house dakaiti occurred in this district during the year and the relative unimportance of these cases is shown by the fact that the value of the property obtained by the dakaits aggregated only Rs. 84 for the 7 cases.

73. The only case in which any clue was obtained was a dakaiti which occurred in the Pisangan circle on May 9th, 1915. The victim of that crime was a Darogha of Pushkar who was assaulted by some 10 men, who robbed him of a camel and some ornaments just inside the borders of Ajmer-Merwara and bolted into Marwar territory as soon as they had looted him. For almost three months the enquiry into this case dragged on without any clue being found. One Rawat Singh, a well-known dakait leader, was then arrested in Marwar, confessed to having taken part in this dakaiti and gave the names of his confederates. Later on, three of those dakaits were arrested in Sikar and still later, another of the gang was arrested in Marwar. They were all identified by the complainant or other witnesses and extradition was applied for but had not been granted up to the close of 1915.

74. The other cases remained entirely undetected. In no case do the dakaits appear to have carried, much less used, firearms.

75. True cases of robbery, dealt with in 1915, numbered 30 compared with 24 for 1914. It is satisfactory to note that a considerable measure of success was met with in dealing with this form of crime in the year under notice, as no less than 11 of those cases came before the Courts, 9 ending in conviction and 1 being still under trial at the close of 1915. In the preceding year only six such cases reached the Courts and 4 were convicted. The greater portion of these were petty robberies committed on solitary travellers on unfrequented village tracks, either at nightfall or in the early hours of the morning, the robbers seldom numbering more than two and the value of the property stolen usually amounting to only a few rupees.

76. The most serious cases were the following :—

(1) Some women returning to their homes in Beawar from the Railway-station, about 8 P. M. on the 10th May, were suddenly stopped by six men, one of whom tried to snatch some ornament from the person of Musammat Mariam. The women raised an outcry and themselves succeeded in capturing two of the would-be robbers, but the remainder escaped before assistance arrived. The case was originally treated as an attempt at dakaiti, and four persons were sent up for trial. The Additional Judge held, however, that the offence was proved against one man only, and convicting him under section 393, Indian Penal Code, sentenced him to 3 years' rigorous imprisonment.

(2) The Head-constable in charge of the Harmara out-post received private information, on February 10th, that a cart had been held up on or about January 19th between Harmara and the Kishengarh border, and ornaments valued at Rs. 458 had been taken from a woman travelling in that cart. Enquiry showed that the robbers were mounted on camels and talked Sheikhawati. Certain suspected persons were shown to the complainant, but she was unable to identify any of them and the case ultimately remained undetected.

(3) On October 20th a serious offence occurred at Bandanwara where some persons were robbed of property valued at Rs. 762. The perpetrators of this crime were three persons in the guise of Sadhus who had been staying in the vicinity for some days and were looked on by the villagers as holy men. The police enquiry showed that they were really Bauriahs in disguise; but neither they nor the missing property could be traced, and the case remained undetected.

(4) Another rather serious case was one which occurred in the Bhinai circle in February. The victim was a Mahajan who was held up and robbed of property valued at Rs. 354 as he was travelling by cart from Nasirabad to Khumaria. He declared that he had recognised one of his assailants as a Sansi of Kitab village, named Choga. The police enquiry showed that this robbery was undoubtedly the work of two well-known Sansis, Choga and Motira, the latter of whom was suspected to have absconded into the Jodhpur State. Motira was ultimately arrested by the Marwar police, was identified by the complainant and sent up for trial in this case. He was acquitted, however, as the Court found the identification proceedings held in Marwar to be unsatisfactory, and that the first report contained no mention of his name. Choga Sansi has not yet been arrested, but his name figures on the register of absconded offenders, and the case against him seems to be a strong one.

(5) Another somewhat serious case was one which occurred in the Nasirabad circle on April 6th. The victim of this robbery was a Mahajan proceeding to Jaipur by cart to purchase cotton, who was robbed of Rs. 400 in cash. This robbery too was suspected to be the work of the criminals named in (4), but the complainant was unable to identify his assailants: and the case remained undetected.

(6) A second rather serious case, which occurred close to Harmara on the Kishengarh border, was one in which two men held up a bullock-cart and carried off property valued at Rs. 120. This occurred in broad daylight, and the complainants gave chase calling loudly for assistance. Ultimately the robbers were brought to bay by some villagers working in the fields and were secured after a struggle, all but Rs. 26 of the stolen property being found on heir persons. They proved to be Khaimkhanis of Marwar and were sentenced to 18 months' rigorous imprisonment each.

(7) Another somewhat important case which ended in conviction was one in which two women were robbed of ornaments valued at Rs. 48 on July 3rd when travelling from Rajpura to Bandanwara. The crime was ultimately brought home to a Rawat and a Balai who had been working in the vicinity, one of whom was sentenced to two years' rigorous imprisonment and Rs. 30 fine and the other to 16 months' rigorous imprisonment and Rs. 50 fine.

77. The only other form of crime included in this class deserving of special notice is that called "burglary or housebreaking."

78. The total number of true cases of that kind dealt with in 1915 was 684, compared with 518 in the previous year. The number investigated rose from 278 to 374, and this increase was due to the careful watch maintained over the investigating work by the Superintendent, as experience has shown that it is cases of this class, the hardest to trace out as a rule, that indolent police officers shirk enquiring into.

79. Though the number of cases sent up for trial in 1915 was 82 compared with 66 in the preceding year, and the number prosecuted to conviction up to the close of the year rose from 57 to 69, the percentage of convictions to reports once again shows a slight falling off, and the proportion of cases convicted both to cases investigated and cases tried out is considerably lower than in 1914.

80. These results are not gratifying, and it must be mentioned that there has also been a considerable falling off in cases of burglary worked out under section 411, Indian Penal Code. The Superintendent would shift much of the responsibility for this from the shoulders of the investigating officer to those of the beat constable, but this hardly seems a sound principle: and the main cause of the small success met with in such cases is, no doubt, the ease with which criminals in the surrounding States escape surveillance and the inexperience of many members of the investigating staff.

81. Once again few, if any, of these cases were of much importance; but the following are of some local interest:—

(1) On September 10th the house of a Mahajan of Ajmer was broken into, and property valued at Rs. 1,340 was carried off. The police enquiry showed that there was reason to suspect that one Banna, an ex-convict recently released from jail, had participated in this crime, and he was arrested two days later with practically the whole of the stolen property in his possession. On being sent up for trial, he was convicted and sentenced to 5 years' rigorous imprisonment.

(2) Towards the end of September an alarming outbreak of burglaries occurred in Beawar. For sometime no clue could be obtained to the perpetrators of these crimes; but, towards the end of October, a notorious railway-thief of the United Provinces was arrested and, in the course of the enquiry which followed, it was ascertained that he and certain confederates had rented a house in Beawar early in September and were responsible for this outbreak. Part of the property they had obtained was recovered, but most of it had already been disposed of. This man and one of his confederates were duly convicted.

(3) On the night of November 17th a dangerous gang of burglars who hailed from the Rampur State was found trying to break into a house. A sharp encounter ensued in the course of which a constable was seriously injured with a knife, but ultimately 3 of the gang were arrested. They were convicted and sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment each under section 457, Indian Penal Code, the burglar who wounded the constable receiving an additional punishment of 2 years' rigorous imprisonment under section 326, Indian Penal Code.

(4) On December 4th two desperate characters were arrested by the Assistant Commissioner with the help of the city Inspector, as they were breaking into a house in Ajmer city. They had numerous previous convictions on record against them and, on conviction, were sentenced to 7 years' rigorous imprisonment each under sections 457/75, Indian Penal Code.

Class IV.—Minor offences against the person.

82. Eight true cases of this class were dealt with in 1915 compared with 11 in the preceding year. Three ended in conviction, one in acquittal and all the remaining four cases were compounded. None of them were of any importance or special interest.

Class V.—Minor offences against property.

83. Excluding cases subsequently struck off the register, there were 997 cases of this class for disposal in 1915, as against 561 in the year 1914. All but 211 of these cases were investigated, with the result that 451 came before the Court for trial, 400 being convicted and 37 acquitted, while 14 were still pending at the close of the year.

84. Cases of cattle-theft numbered 108 compared with 107 in the preceding year. The Superintendent attributes the high figure of such offences, which has been reached for the second year in succession, to the fact that in times of scarcity of fodder, the poor classes turn their cattle loose to graze on the countryside, and cattle-thieves steal them for the value of their skins. This is, no doubt, true ; but many of the thefts in Merwara are also, in such circumstances, committed for the sake of the flesh.

85. There was slightly more success in dealing with this form of crime in 1915 than in the preceding year. The number of cases in which cattle-lifters were convicted rose from 27 to 33, and 12 receivers of stolen cattle were convicted in 1915 compared with 13 in the preceding year.

86. The number of unrecovered strays rose from 161 to 211, and the percentage of recoveries to losses fell from 61 to 51. As remarked by the Superintendent, however, most of the cattle that strayed towards the close of the year must have perished of hunger.

87. All things considered the work under this head has been fairly satisfactory during the year, and it would no doubt improve if, when cattle are lost, the owners could be induced to invoke the aid of the police without delay.

88. True cases of ordinary theft, dealt with in 1915, numbered 705 as against 567 in the year 1914. The number of cases into which no enquiry was made rose from 181 to 206 and the number of cases sent up for trial from 198 to 268. Of cases tried out, 250 ended in conviction and 17 in acquittal during 1915 as compared with 185 and 11, respectively, in the preceding year. These figures show that the police have successfully coped with the increase in offences of this kind during 1915. None of these cases call for special mention.

89. Under serial 37 (cheating) a case of considerable interest figures, the details of which are as under :—

On January 23rd, a man who represented himself to be Subedar Ram Singh, Assistant Recruiting Officer, Rajputana, appeared at the Delhi branch of the Alliance Bank of Simla and presented a draft for Rs. 10,000 purporting to be signed by the Agent of the Ajmer branch of the Bank. At about the same time a telegram was received by the Agent of the Delhi branch requesting that the draft presented by Subedar Ram Singh might be honoured at once. This wire had issued in the name of Captain Seaton, Recruiting Officer, Ajmer.

Owing to the large sum of money involved, the Bank officials requested the "Subedar" to produce his credentials before they would consent to make payment. The "Subedar" went off and returned shortly after with a letter bearing Captain Seaton's signature. The Agent suspected that this letter was a forgery and, being aware that Captain Seaton was fortunately in Delhi on that date, told "Ram Singh" he must bring Captain Seaton in person to the bank to vouch for him. The presenter of the draft went off ostensibly to bring Captain Seaton, but did not return, and the matter was reported to the police. It was at once ascertained that the draft which had been presented at the Bank was a forgery, and that Subedar Ram Singh had been impersonated by some daring swindler. An enquiry, very intelligently conducted by Inspector Bhagwan Singh, resulted in the offence being brought home to certain persons of Ajmer, one of whom was made approver while two others were convicted, one of them being a daftri in the Rajputana-Malwa Railway Carriage workshops and the other, a peon employed in the Telegraph Office at Ajmer. They were convicted under sections 420/511/109, 411-109 and 467 of the Indian Penal Code and section 29 of Act XIII of 1885, and sentenced to terms aggregating 14 years' rigorous imprisonment each.

The Directors of the Bank, in grateful appreciation of the services rendered to them by the police in this matter, sanctioned a reward of Rs. 420 which was distributed among the officers chiefly responsible for the detection and successful termination of this case.

90. No other cases falling in this class call for special mention.

Class VI.—Other offences not specified above.

91. The number of true cases of this class dealt with in 1915 was 1,810 as against 1,847 in the preceding year. The number prosecuted to conviction was 1,762 compared with 1,795. The falling off is chiefly, in cases of public nuisance, the least important form of offence with which the police have to deal.

92. Sixty-four prosecutions for vagrancy and bad-livelihood were dealt with in the year under notice, as against 51 in the preceding year. Sixty-three of these cases came before the Courts for trial, with the result that 53 ended in conviction and 8 in acquittal, while 2 were still pending at the close of the year.

93. Fourteen of those prosecutions fell under section 110 of the Criminal Procedure Code, but two of those cases were still pending at the close of 1915 and only 10 ended in conviction. Six of the persons successfully prosecuted under that section are said to have been well known railway-thieves against whom there were many complaints, and all but four of the men proceeded against were previously-convicted offenders, and either figured on the surveillance register or were persons whose history-sheets had been prepared. The average security demanded from those persons amounted to Rs. 180 and the alternate punishment was one year's imprisonment. Five of them furnished security and the remainder went to jail in default. The remaining 49 prosecutions were for vagrancy and fell under section 109 of the Criminal Procedure Code. Forty-three of them proved successful, and only 13 of those persons were able to furnish security; the remaining 30 going to jail in default. In those cases the average security demanded amounted to practically Rs. 88 and the alternative period of imprisonment to approximately 7½ months.

94. The police have shown considerable activity in instituting such prosecutions during the year and the results, as a whole, are good.

95. The Superintendent's report shows that this is the result of the great attention he has given to this matter personally, and he is to be congratulated on the successful prosecution of more bad-characters under section 110 of the Criminal Procedure Code than any of his predecessors have, of recent years, managed to effect.

96. Prosecutions under the Excise and Opium Acts rose from 48 to 55. Fifty-one of these cases ended in conviction, three were acquitted and one was still pending at the close of the year.

97. It is satisfactory to find that the police have, yet once again, rendered valuable assistance to the excise department, and the fact that, during each of the last two years, they have been granted rewards, aggregating over Rs. 500, for their services in such cases, shows that the assistance so rendered has been fully acknowledged. At the same time, no very important captures were made by them in 1915.

98. Offences against the Gambling Act have also received considerably more attention in 1915 than in the two preceding years. Prosecutions rose from 20 to 32, and all but one of them proved successful. In commenting on these cases the Superintendent has drawn special attention to the number of lotteries which have hitherto been held in Ajmer city, stating that, though these lotteries were controlled from Jodhpur, no less than 300 agencies existed in Ajmer and sums exceeding Rs. 20,000 in value frequently changed hands in a single day. Since the close of 1915 the persons controlling those lotteries are said to have been turned out of Jodhpur, but it is believed that they have merely changed their headquarters to Sikar, and that their operations have not so far been affected. The Superintendent is taking steps in the matter, and it is hoped that this form of gambling will shortly be put a stop to.

99. The only other case in this class which calls for special mention is that under the Defence of India Act. The case in question refers to the internment of Thakur Gopal Sing of Kharwa and his disregard of the order by which he was interned which resulted in his being sentenced to two years' imprisonment. His dramatic flight and ultimate capture in the Kishengarh State are too well known to need recapitulation here.

Property stolen and recovered.

100. The total value of the property stolen in the year 1915 was computed at Rs. 56,521 as against Rs. 86,202 in the preceding year. Recoveries were valued at Rs. 19,184, giving a percentage of 34 on total losses. This percentage is the same as that for 1914 and may be looked on as fairly satisfactory. As mentioned in previous reports, however, so many factors have to be taken into consideration before any accurate decision can be arrived at as to the comparative value of the work done each year under this head that it is undesirable to lay much stress on variations in the figures.

Identification by means of finger impression slips.

101. The finger impression slips of 204 persons were sent to the Bureau for search in 1915 as compared with 136 in 1914. Sixty-three of those slips resulted in the identity of previously convicted offenders being established, a far higher figure than in any previous year. As the question of this method of identification will be discussed fully elsewhere, it is unnecessary to add more regarding it at this point.

Absconded offenders.

102. The names of 53 absconders figured on the register of proclaimed offenders at the commencement of 1915. Twenty-nine fresh names were added during the year, bringing the total for disposal up to 82. Of this number, twelve were apprehended and the names of five others were expunged under the rules, leaving 65 names on the register at the close of 1915. The number of absconders arrested is the same as for 1914, but it includes several persons who had been absconding for some years notably two absconders of 1910 and one each of 1911, 1912 and 1913. At the same time the number of absconded offenders is increasing very rapidly and, as many of them are required for comparatively petty offences, circle-inspectors and station officers should be able to encompass the arrest of a larger proportion than they have accounted for, hitherto, if they really gave this important subject the attention it deserves. Special orders have recently been issued on this subject which will, it is hoped, prove effective.

Surveillance over persons whose history-sheets have been prepared.

103. The number of persons whose history-sheets were under preparation at the close of 1915 was 403, and the number of history-sheets opened during the year was 72, making a total of 475. One hundred and twenty-eight of these sheets were closed during the year, either because the persons concerned were found to have returned to honest livelihood, had emigrated or had died. The closing balance for 1915 was, therefore, 347. Thirty-three of these sheets refer to persons who were re-convicted during the year, while ninety-six are the history-sheets of persons whose names figure on the surveillance register.

104. The Superintendent refers to a lack of discrimination which, he says, has been shown of recent years in starting some of these history-sheets and it is, of course, very desirable that that officer should himself invariably scrutinize the past career of all suspects before ordering their history-sheets to be opened. At the same time, considering the size of the district, the number maintained is not excessive and cases where a lack of discrimination has been shown such as those quoted by the Superintendent are not the rule but the exception.

Co-operation with the police of Native States.

105. It is satisfactory to find that the Superintendent of Police records that relations with the police of surrounding States were very cordial throughout the year. He particularly mentions the Jodhpur State as one which has given valuable assistance, and this is the more satisfactory in that his predecessor recorded that he found relations with the police of that State the reverse of satisfactory. As he mentions in his report, an interesting experiment was made in 1915 in that, at the request of the authorities concerned, three police officers of the Shahpura chiefship and two of the Kishengarh State were atached to the Ajmer-Merwara police for training. This experiment is said to have been a complete success, and undoubtedly tended to more harmonious working : as it cleared away various mutual misunderstandings. He suggests that the system might be extended to other adjoining States, but it is to be feared that the Jaipur, Udaipur and Bundi Darbars are unlikely to agree to the introduction of any such system, so far as their police forces are concerned, and it is unnecessary in the case of Marwar.

Strength and cost of the police.

106. The only change in the sanctioned strength of this force during 1915 was the abolition of the plague guard consisting of four constables.

107. The actual cost to Government was Rs. 2,11,191 as against Rs. 2,11,835 in the preceding year. This decrease is too small to need any special explanation.

Rewards and punishments.

108. Three hundred and seventy members of the Ajmer-Merwara police were rewarded in 1915 compared with 263 in the preceding year. The total amount paid to them, in reward, from all sources was Rs. 3,776, compared with Rs. 2,831 in the year 1914. Rewards paid for meritorious service in ordinary police cases increased by Rs. 172, but, even so, totalled considerably less than half the full amount paid in rewards. There was little or no variation in the amounts paid as rewards for the detection of breaches of the Opium and Excise laws and of offences against the Gambling Act, but rewards received from private persons (which formed more than one-third of the whole sum paid) rose from Rs. 610 to Rs. 1,290.

109. Rewards paid to the police by private persons have increased enormously in the last two years, and a recent scrutiny of these figures revealed the fact that some three-fifths of the total amount paid in rewards in 1915 had been granted to Inspectors and Sub-Inspectors, and that all but Rs. 330 of that amount had been obtained from private individuals. These figures were, of course, swelled by the substantial reward presented by the Alliance Bank of Simla to which reference has been made in paragraph 89 of this report, but there has been more than one case in which the rewards paid to the police were considerably heavier than the circumstances justified, and the matter is receiving attention.

110. Steps have now been taken to ensure that the rules regulating the grant of rewards from budget heads are observed in the case of rewards paid by private individuals also, and this should prevent any unfortunate consequences arising from the too-free bestowal of rewards obtained from private individuals.

111. The total number of punishments inflicted on members of the force in 1915 was 19, as compared with 37 in the previous year. This figure includes 5 judicial punishments, 6 dismissals and 8 other departmental punishments. The judicial punishments include one conviction under the Police Act, two under section 409, one under sections 342/379 and one under section 323 of the Indian Penal Code. Dismissal followed the judicial punishment in all but the last case.

112. The departmental punishments include the reversion of officiating Inspector Mahammad Ismail to the rank of Sub-Inspector for proved incompetence, and the reduction of Sub-Inspector Ram Chander for misconduct while Station officer at Pisangan. In view of the fact that the punishment-roll for 1914 was the lightest for five years, the great decrease in punishments inflicted in 1915 is remarkable.

113. The result has, whether or not these are the true causes, been very beneficial as not only has better work been done in 1915 than in the previous year, but discipline also has undoubtedly improved.

Health of the force and casualties.

114. The health of the force was better in 1915 than in the preceding year. Deaths decreased from 12 to 6 and admissions to hospital from 52·21 to 22·26 per cent.

115. The following casualties occurred in 1915 :—

(1) Pension or gratuity	3
(2) Resignation without pension or gratuity	87
(3) Dismissal	7
(4) Discharge other than above	25
(5) Desertion	10
(6) Deaths	6

116. Casualties totalled 122 in the year 1914 and 166 in 1913. A scrutiny of the figures for 1915 and of those of the preceding year shows that casualties owing to pension and gratuity declined from 25 to 3 and dismissals and deaths decreased from 14 and 12 to 7 and 6, respectively.

117. On the other hand, resignations rose from 60 to 87 and the number of men discharged as unlikely to prove useful policemen increased from 3 to 25. Desertions, too, numbered 10 compared with 8 in the preceding year.

118. The reason for this increase in resignations, etc., is to be found in the fact that no less than 208 recruits were enlisted in 1915, as against 98 in the preceding year. Recruiting was greatly stimulated by the failure of the monsoon, and the high grain rates, but Mr. Hollins undoubtedly gave the question of obtaining recruits more attention than it had received for some years and can certainly claim a part of the credit for the marked improvement which has taken place in respect to recruiting.

General Remarks.

119. There has undoubtedly been an improvement in the work of the Ajmer-Merwara police during the year in spite of the fact that 1915 was a most unfavourable year from a police point of view.

120. Mr. Hollins set himself immediately on his arrival to acquire a thorough knowledge of his subordinates and of the general conditions of Ajmer-Merwara from a police point of view and speedily succeeded in obtaining the confidence of his subordinates and the respect of all the officials with whom he had to work. It is to be regretted that, since the close of 1915, he has had to be transferred to take up a special appointment in the Tonk State, but the post he has gone to occupy is a very important one.

121. No cases of torture by the police occurred during 1915 and no women were found guilty of murdering their children.

122. All police-stations were inspected by either the Superintendent or his Assistant during the tour-season of 1915-16 except Pushkar, which has since been inspected. There was no repetition of the neglect of Circle-Inspectors to make proper inspections of the stations in their jurisdictions, to which reference was made in the annual report for 1914, and after an example had been made of one of those officers, their work improved considerably and has been quite satisfactory.

123. The building programme for this district had to be revised owing to the necessity for strict economy at the present time, but the new police-station at Beawar was taken in hand and is nearing completion, extensive additions were made to the Deoli outpost and numerous other projects of a less ambitious nature were carried through. Proposals for the construction of new police lines at Ajmer and for the conversion of the existing lines into a Kotwali were once again taken up during the year, and it is hoped that this project will receive administrative sanction shortly though it will probably be some years before funds will be forthcoming with which to give practical effect to that scheme. As the Superintendent has recorded in his report, however, the Ajmer-Merwara police have of recent years, as a whole, received very liberal treatment, so far as accommodation at police-stations and outposts is concerned : and after this project has been given effect to, the new police-station for Nasirabad has been completed and the office of the Superintendent improved, few important projects will remain to be taken in hand.

124. It is satisfactory to find that there was continuity of charge in all police-stations excepting Bhinai and Todgarh, and that transfers have been far less numerous in every way than in 1914 and 1913.

125. The education and training of men at headquarters received special attention during 1915, and the drill improved very considerably. Recruits are now examined personally by the Superintendent, as regards their knowledge of both drill and procedure, before they are passed out of the Reserve, and the Assistant Superintendent is himself responsible for a large part of their training. No less than 4 officers and 34 constables qualified in "First aid to the injured" during the year.

126. The question of raising the pay of constables, providing a few bicycle orderlies and improving the prospects of the Superintendent's office establishment is still under the consideration of the Government of India. These reforms are urgently required.

Vide Statements Nos. 11 to 16 and 25.

(2) CRIMINAL JUSTICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1915).

127. During the year 1915, the office of District Magistrate, Ajmer-Merwara, was held by Mr. A. T. Holme, I.C.S., from the 1st January to 28th October, 1915, and from that date till the close of the year by Mr. C. C. Watson, I.C.S.

128. The total number of offences reported was 7,439, of which 6,532 were returned as true; of these 1,421 were reported under the Police Act, against 1,918 in the preceding year.

129. The number of cases under the Opium Act was 61 as against 21 in the year 1914 and 5 in 1913.

130. The number of persons under trial in the year was 9,781, of these 5,576 were convicted.

131. The corresponding figures for 1914 were 10,376 and 5,856 respectively.

132. The number of persons placed on trial before the Honorary Magistrates of Ajmer-Merwara was 5,152 as against 5,842 in 1914.

133. The average duration of each case was 25·5 days as compared with 23·1 in 1914.

134. The number of witnesses examined was 5,126 in the year under report as against 4,002 in 1914.

135. The number of persons placed on trial before the District Magistrate was 35.

136. The Court of Sessions dealt with cases of 39 persons as against 43 in 1914, of these 17 were convicted, 21 acquitted and one remained under trial.

137. The number of appeals and revisions dealt with by the Sessions Judge and the Additional Sessions Judge was 150, of which 111 were rejected. The sentence in four cases was reduced, in 16 reversed and 9 were referred to the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner and a new trial was ordered in one case.

138. Diwan Bahadur Pandit Damodar Lal held the office of Additional Sessions Judge throughout the year and passed judgments in 21 out of the 22 Sessions Cases.

138-A. The number of appeals and Miscellaneous Criminal Applications disposed of by the Chief Commissioner as High Court was 88, of which 15 were withdrawn and 57 were rejected. The sentence in 2 cases was reduced and in one case was enhanced. In 12 cases proceedings of the Subordinate Courts were quashed and in one further enquiry was ordered.

Vide Statements Nos. 17 to 25.

(3) CIVIL JUSTICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1915).

139. The number of Courts during the year was 33.

140. The total number of suits (including miscellaneous) was 8,537 against 8,452 in the year 1914, showing an increase of 85.

141. The total value of suits instituted this year was Rs. 7,79,706 as against Rs. 8,98,348.

142. Suits of all kinds, the value of which did not exceed Rs. 50, numbered 4,064.

143. The total number of suits of all kinds for disposal including arrears was 11,115. The contested suits disposed of numbered 1,406; 36 were decided by arbitration and 6,899 without any contest. The number disposed of without trial was 2,127 and 110 suits were transferred to other Courts. The pending file at the close of the year was 1,033 as compared with 1,141 in the preceding year, and of the former 366 had been pending for more than three months.

144. The average duration of the contested suits was 138·2 days and that of the uncontested suits 65·7.

145. On the appellate side, there were 556 appeals from the decrees and orders and the pending file at the close of the year was 188 against 201 in the preceding year. The average duration of appeals was 134·6 days as against 139·4.

146. The number of applications for execution of decrees was 13,816 against 12,527. The number pending at the close of the year was 1,883 as compared with 1,893.

146-A. The total number of appeals and Miscellaneous Civil Applications dealt with by the Chief Commissioner was 358, of which 8 were dismissed for default and 276 were rejected as based on insufficient grounds. In 13 cases the judgments of the Lower Courts were confirmed, in 11 they were modified, in 34 they were reversed and in 16 further inquiry was directed to be made.

(4) REGISTRATION (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER, 1915). Vide Statement No. 25.

147. There was no change in the number of officers and strength of staff throughout the year, except that 3 temporary hands were entertained for about 3 months to dispose of arrears in the Ajmer Sub-Registrar's office.

148. The total number of documents of all classes presented for registration during the year under report was 2,772 as against 3,099 in the preceding year or less by about one-tenth. The decrease chiefly appertains to the Sub-Registrar's Office, Todgarh, which circle was greatly affected by the Land Alienation Regulation introduced in the year 1914.

149. Of the total number of documents presented for registration 1,891 documents or 68·21 per cent. were registered in the Ajmer Sub-Registry as against 61·21 and 45·56 in the two preceding years.

150. The area of agricultural land transferred by sale during the year was 2,269 bighas as compared with 2,585 bighas in 1914, the decrease being due to the introduction of the Land Alienation Regulation.

151. The area of agricultural land mortgaged was 4,277 bighas as compared with 3,141 bighas in the preceding year. This increase of 1,136 bighas is partly due to the year being a bad one for agriculturists and partly to the substitution of mortgages for sales since the ntroduction of the Land Alienation Regulation.

152. The total value of agricultural land sold and mortgaged amounted to Rs. 1,11,515 as against Rs. 2,86,849 in 1914, showing a decrease of 61 per cent.

153. The total receipts and expenditure of the year amounted to Rs. 6,218-10-11 and Rs. 2,168-11-10 respectively as compared with Rs. 6,770-12 and Rs. 1,850 respectively in 1914, showing a surplus of about Rs. 4,050. The decrease in fees is due to the decrease in the number of documents registered, whilst the increase in expenditure is attributable to—

(1) the entertainment of the additional temporary establishment to which reference has already been made in paragraph 147 of the report;

(2) the payment during the year under report of arrears of pay of moharrirs from 15th August 1914.

All the offices of the Sub-Registrars, except Nasirabad, were inspected once each by the Registrar during the year under report. Owing to the irregularity of previous inspections—Deoli in particular appeared not to have been inspected for some thirty years—the work of preparing indices was found badly in arrears in several offices, notably Beawar and Kekri. They are being gradually brought up to date. The work of the Nasirabad office has been consistently good and returns from it are submitted with commendable punctuality. The Ajmer Sub-Registrar's office under Mr. Madan Gopal has shown great improvement.

Vide statements Nos. 27 to 30. Ajmer Municipality.

(5) MUNICIPALITIES (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST MARCH, 1916).

154. During the year under report, the constitution of the Ajmer Municipal Committee remained unchanged. It consisted of 23 members, of whom 6 were nominated and 17 elected; two were officials and 21 non-officials, 8 Europeans and 15 Indians.

155. The Committee held during the year 32 meetings, of which 16 were special and 16 ordinary. The average attendance at each meeting was 13·24 and 13·80 respectively.

156. The total income of the year was Rs. 2,87,557 as against Rs. 5,37,348 in 1914-15. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 3,21,253 as against Rs. 5,49,274 in the previous year, and the closing balance was Rs. 8,513.

157. If refunds are excluded, which amounted to Rs. 34,897 in 1914-15 and Rs. 38,105 in 1915-16, the figures for the two years compare as below :—

	1914-15	1915-16	Difference.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Income . . .	5,02,451	2,49,452	—2,52,999
Expenditure . .	5,14,377	2,83,148	—2,31,229

158. The decrease in receipts is chiefly due to the fact that the receipts of the previous year were inflated by drawing the balance of Rs. 1,50,000 of the loan of 4 lakhs for the Bhaonta water supply scheme, by a contribution of Rs. 37,500 received from the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway as composition in lieu of municipal taxation, and by a grant of a lakh of rupees from the Imperial Government towards the water scheme.

159. The decrease in expenditure occurs chiefly under the heads "water supply" and "conservancy" and is due to the absence of large payments during the year in connection with the Bhaonta water supply scheme and the steam tramway, respectively.

160. The gross and net receipts from octroi in the two years are shown below :—

	Gross.	Net.
	Rs.	Rs.
1914-15	1,82,985	1,48,088
1915-16	1,90,359	1,52,254
	+7,374	+4,166

161. The increase of Rs. 7,374 in gross receipts has occurred chiefly under the items "grains," "ghee" and "other articles of food." There is a decrease of Rs. 1,035 under the item "cloth," which is ascribed to the war in Europe.

162. As stated above, the total disbursements during the year under report amounted to Rs. 3,21,253 against Rs. 5,49,274 in the previous year.

163. The variations occurred chiefly under the following heads :—

Heads.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.
Refunds	3,208	...
Lighting	2,311	...

164. The increase under the head "lighting" is due to the changed system by which the cost of lighting of all departments has been charged to this head instead of to respective departments.

165. The increase of Rs. 1,608 under the head "hospitals and dispensaries" is due to heavier charges under the item of "maintenance of lunatics at Lahore."

166. Petty repairs only were executed during the year which accounts for the decrease under the head "buildings."

167. The increase under the head "roads" was caused by the widening of the Srinagar and part of the circular roads.

168. The decrease under the head "public instruction" was apparent only and it is explained that the bills for the last quarter of the year were not received from the Educational Department and paid during the year.

169. The non-payment of grain compensation allowance to the municipal Staff owing to shortage of funds has caused the reduction under the head "Other items."

170. A sum of Rs. 25,019 was paid during the year towards the liquidation of Government loans.

171. The balance of the loan due from the Municipality at the end of the year amounted to Rs. 5,33,892.

172. The incidence of taxation was Re. 1-12-2 per head of the population against Re. 1-11-6 in the preceding year.

173. The management of the Ajmer water works remained in the hands of the Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Ajmer Division.

174. The total rainfall registered during the year at the following places is as given below :—

(1) Foysagar	9·20
(2) Municipal water works godown	10·60
(3) Catchment of the Foy Sagar	5·52
(4) Bhaonta water works	6·08

175. The year was one of abnormally scanty rainfall.

176. There are 3 sources of water supply, viz.:—

(1) the Foy Sagar lake by gravity and pumping,
(2) the Budha Pushkar lake by pumping, and
(3) the Bhaonta water works by pumping.

At the first two places, the water levels were respectively 6·96 and 7·2⅛ at the commencement and 7·67 and 11·9 ⅝ at the close of the year. The water level of the Bhaonta well No. 5 on the 1st April, 1915, was 93·80, while on the 31st March, 1916, it was 85·70.

177. The water was pumped from the Foy Sagar from the 1st April, 1915, to the 1st May, 1915, from the 16th October, 1915, to the 23rd October, 1915, and from the 8th March, 1916, to the 31st March, 1916, while during the rest of the year it was supplied by gravity.

178. From the Budha Pushkar, the water was pumped from the 1st May, 1915, to the 10th August, 1915, and again from the 1st March, 1916, to the 31st March, 1916.

179. The Bhaonta water works were brought into regular use on the 1st April, 1915, and worked continuously until the 16th October, 1915, when a week's rest was given and then again continuously until the 7th March, 1916, when it was decided to give the wells a rest to allow the water in the Foy Sagar to be used instead of being wasted by evaporation. The Bhaonta supply has been very successful and has given the minimum of trouble and anxiety.

180. Some alterations were made in the agreement with the Railway at Ajmer for the supply of water, according to which the Municipality will charge the Railway for Foy Sagar water at rates in force for private consumers and will not charge higher rates to the Railway than to private consumers for water from the Bhaonta scheme.

181. It is regretted that owing to financial stringency, no provision for a drainage scheme could be made in the Budget estimates.

182. The Committee's proposals for the revision of the Ajmer Municipalities Regulation V of 1886 have been recommended to the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara. The case regarding the revision of the rules and bye-laws sent in by the Committee must wait until sanction to the proposed new Regulation has been received.

183. A few of the rate-payers are now availing themselves of rule 35 of the octroi rules, which admits of compounding for the octroi tax.

184. The Committee have put forward a proposal to take over the Municipal water works under the supervision of a Municipal Engineer on a salary of Rs. 700 per mensem and to invite the Local Government to lend the services of a suitable Engineer for a period of one year. Thereafter the question of a definite appointment and selection would be further considered. The proposed Municipal Engineer in addition to supervising the water works would also be expected to supervise the working of the municipal tramway and generally to assist the Chairman in the executive work of the Municipality. This scheme is now under consideration.

185. The Committee's proposal to substitute terminal taxation for the present Octroi tax is also being examined.

186. The Committee also contemplate a proposal for lighting a portion of the city and suburbs with electricity, and the Chairman is in correspondence with the Callenders Cable and Construction Company Limited, Bombay, on the subject.

187. The number of recorded births was 2,648 against 1,922 in the previous year.

188. The number of recorded deaths rose from 2,873 to 3,085.

189. The birth and death rates per mille of population were 30·71 and 35·78 against 22·29 and 33·31 respectively in the preceding year.

190. The mortality among children under five years of age was 1,624 (52·64 per cent of the total mortality) against 1,500 in the previous year.

191. One death from cholera and none from small-pox were reported.

192. The total number of vaccinations performed in the Ajmer town and suburbs was 4,658 against 3,370 in the previous year. The number of primary vaccinations was 4,411 and of re-vaccinations 247 against 3,270 and 100 respectively last year.

193. Most of the unserviceable conservancy rolling stock has been replaced and it is intended to renew such of the conservancy carts as are worn-out. But the present number of carts is insufficient to cope fully with the heavy work.

194. The scheme for the substitution of moveable galvanised iron latrines and urinals for the existing masonry ones is under consideration. The number requires augmentation to prevent the fouling of streets and lanes, which goes on at present. Most of the privies and urinals in the city and suburbs have been provided with moveable iron receptacles. But improvements to the roads and a more effective supervision over the municipal sweepers are among the most urgent sanitary requirements of the moment. The appointment of a Municipal Engineer may help in this direction. The three incinerators are working satisfactorily and it is proposed to construct more.

195. The municipal accounts were test-audited by the Examiner, Local Fund Accounts, United Provinces, during the year and many of his suggestions are being adopted.

Beawar Municipality.

196. There was no change in the municipal boundaries during the year.

197. The Committee held 21 meetings, of which 12 were special and 9 ordinary as compared with 12 special and 7 ordinary in 1914-15.

198. The total income of the year amounted to Rs. 77,765 as against Rs. 65,463 in 1914-15, and the expenditure to Rs. 91,466 as against Rs. 71,256. The closing balance was Rs. 6,764 exclusive of Rs. 10,000 invested in Government paper.

199. The apparent increase of Rs. 12,302 in the income is illusory and is due to the fact that the figures for octroi receipts include the refunds, which are also shown on the expenditure side. The figures for the preceding year showed the net receipts then excluding refunds. The net octroi receipts for the year, when compared with those for the previous year, show an actual decrease of Rs. 18,435, which is attributable to the low sale price of cotton to the Mewar Darbar's prohibitive rate on its export to Beawar and to the failure of the monsoon.

200. The incidence of octroi taxation on a population of 22,800 was Re. 1-12-6 per head as against Rs. 2-9-3 in the year 1914-15.

201. Compared with the previous year, the increase of Rs. 20,210 in expenditure is apparent only and is due to the inclusion of octroi refunds as explained above.

202. There was a great scarcity of water during the year under report. Many of the wells in the town and suburbs dried up and the people had to go from 2 to 2½ miles from the town for water. The three wells at Jalia proved insufficient to meet the requirements of the town for the whole year. As suggested by the Superintending Engineer, Rajputana, borings are being made on both sides of the Jalia tank. That in the bed of the tank appears likely to be successful as 9 feet of water were found at a depth of 25 feet. It is proposed to sink a well on the spot and to pump water from it into well No. 3 for supply to the town. The management of the water works was in the hands of the Municipal Board.

203. A plan and estimate amounting to Rs. 30,413 for the extension of the pipe line in the town and cantonment are ready, but owing to want of funds the project has had to be postponed.

204. The number of births and deaths registered during the year was 1,121 and 1,018 as against 1,130 and 933 in 1914-15.

205. The accounts were audited by the Local Fund Audit Department of the United Provinces.

206. The changes in the constitution of the Committee during the year under report were :— Kekri Municipality.

(1) Appointment of Sub-Assistant Surgeon Geta Ram in place of Sub-Assistant Surgeon Chel Behari Lal.

(2) Appointment of Sah Chitar Mal in place of Pandit Hari Lal.

207. The Committee held 4 ordinary and 9 special meetings during the year.

208. The total income and expenditure amounted to Rs. 15,785-9-3 and Rs. 11,805-6-1 as against Rs. 12,451-15-0 and Rs. 12,325-5-10 respectively in the preceding year.

209. The increase in receipts was mostly under the head octroi and partly under the heads (1) cattle pounds, (2) interest and (3) miscellaneous.

210. The decrease in expenditure mainly occurred under the heads (1) Conservancy, (2) garden and arboriculture and (3) public works (buildings), owing to the fact that certain special works, viz., (1) deepening the nallah leading water from the Chota tank to the Bara tank, (2) construction of a stable for garden bullocks and (3) repairs to city wall were undertaken last year.

211. The incidence of octroi taxation was Rs. 2-1-9¼ per head of population against Re. 1-10-4½ in the year 1914-15.

212. The number of births and deaths recorded during the year was 180 and 179 against 199 and 270 respectively in the preceding year.

213. The accounts of the Municipality were checked from 28th February, 1916, to 3rd March, 1916, by the Auditor of Local Fund Accounts, United Provinces.

214. The balance at the credit of the Municipal Committee at the close of the year rose from Rs. 18,975-6-1 to Rs. 22,956-2-2 including investments of Rs. 7,000.

(6) Medical (year ending the 31st December 1915).

215. There were six Government dispensaries in the Ajmer-Merwara district—the same number as last year. The total number of indoor and outdoor patients treated at these dispensaries during the year under report was 74,084 against 76,942 in the preceding year. There were 4,351 surgical operations of all kinds, of which 1,672 were performed at the Victoria Hospital, Ajmer. The total income of the Ajmer-Merwara dispensaries was Rs. 20,596 and the total expenditure Rs. 19,438 against Rs. 21,519 and Rs. 19,831 respectively in the year 1914.

The large increase in the figures for 1915-16 was due to local scarcity.

239. Imports of cotton at Beawar were 1,611 tons during the year under report as compared with 709 tons in 1914-15, and exports of raw cotton were 2,876 tons as against 6,453 tons in 1914-15.

The number of trees planted to fill up blanks was 699 and the total cost of planting and maintaining the trees on both Imperial and District Fund roads amounted to Rs. 6,630 against Rs. 5,049 in the previous year. All the rain-gauges were inspected by district officers and found to be in good condition.

247. All except one are Symon's gauges.

Co-operative Credit Societies, Ajmer-Merwara. (Year ending the 30th June, 1916.)

248. Owing to scarcity, the year (1915-16) was not suited for registration of new societies. In accordance with the policy that no official pressure should be used to accelerate the formation of new societies, the members of the permanent staff have confined themselves chiefly to looking after the old societies carefully and to steering them through the scarcity which ruled in the district during the year. The number of central banks remained five as in the last year. Only one new agricultural society was registered, while seven were dissolved, causing a net decrease of six societies when compared with last year, i. e, 349 against 355. 	Rs.
* Share of individual members	75,000

The total loans thus amounted to Rs. 10,10,419, of these Rs. 1,01,152 were recovered in Ajmer and Rs. 3,436 from Merwara, total Rs. 1,04,588, leaving a recoverable balance of Rs. 9,05,831, against Ajmer Rs. 6,00,225 and against Merwara Rs. 3,05,606. The recoveries were small owing to scarcity. Towards the principal hardly 2½ annas in the rupee were recovered in Ajmer, while in Merwara only Rs. 18,044 or say 6 annas in the rupee on account of interest were recovered while towards the principal only Rs. 3,436 were credited or 2 pies in the rupee. This shows the severity of the local scarcity in Merwara. The overdue loans are large but they have been spread by instalments over a number of years.

257. The net profit of all the 5 central societies was Rs. 25,201 against Rs. 21,885. The amount of the reserve fund was Rs. 20,658 against Rs. 14,330. The rates of dividend distributed (in 1914-15) by the 5 central banks was as under :—

SECTION V.

REVENUE AND FINANCE.

A.—IMPERIAL.

(1) Land and Water Revenue.

259. The year under report which includes the accounts for the rabi harvest of 1322 and the kharif of 1323 Fasli was unfavourable. The average rainfall of the year was 8·24 inches, the normal being 21 inches. The outturn of rabi and kharif harvests was very poor. Character of the Season (vide Statement No. 31).

260. The system of fluctuating assessment in the 46 selected villages has cofitinued to work well. Variable assessment.

261. The following table compares the assessment made in 1915-16 with the standard revenue fixed for these villages excluding crop rate, revenue, etc.:—

Tahsil.	Standard.			Assessment for 1915-16.
	Land revenue.	Water revenue.	Total.	Land revenue.	Water revenue.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Ajmer	15,411	1,517	16,928	9,294	800	10,094
Beawar	2,800	1,054	3,854	912	242	1,154
Total .	18,211	2,571	20,782	10,206	1,042	11,248

262. As compared with the standard there has been an appreciable decrease in the amount assessed, which is due to the fact that the cultivation of the rabi of 1322 Fasli (1915) was restricted and nearly the whole of the dry area failed in kharif 1323 Fasli. Out of the demand of Rs. 11,248 a sum of Rs. 10,214 was recovered during the year, leaving a balance of Rs. 1,034 outstanding at the close of the year.

263. The current demand on account of land and water revenue for the year amounted to Rs. 3,46,246 against Rs. 3,54,253 for the year 1914-15, as detailed below :— Demand and collection, etc., of land and water revenue (vide statement No. 32).

	1915-16.	1914-15.
	Rs.	Rs.
Khalsa villages	2,20,264	2,23,519
Variable villages	11,248	16,000
Istimrari area	1,14,734	1,14,734
	3,46,246	3,54,253

The reason for the decrease is that both the harvests were bad.

264. Including the arrears of previous years the total demand aggregated Rs. 4,07,820 against Rs. 4,30,258 for the year 1914-15.

265. Out of this demand a sum of Rs. 1,643 on account of rabi 1322 Fasli was remitted in Todgarh Tahsil, but a sum of Rs. 973 only has been accounted for in this year and the remaining amount of Rs. 670 will be accounted for in the next year.

266. Including the arrears of previous years the total collections (excluding miscellaneous revenue) amounted to Rs. 2,77,565 against Rs. 3,01,612 in the year 1914-15 as detailed below :—

	1915-16.	1914-15.
	Rs.	Rs.
Khalsa villages	2,56,345	1,82,817
Variable villages	10,214	16,000
Istimrari area	11,006	1,02,795
	2,77,565	3,01,612

267. This includes a sum of Rs. 151 on account of collections for this year recovered in the previous years, and excludes a sum of Rs. 925 recovered during the year on account of collections for the next year.

268. The decrease in collection is due to the fact that a large amount was provisionally remitted on account of failure of last kharif.

269. The balance of land and water revenue which remained outstanding on 31st March, 1916, was Rs. 1,29,282, of which Rs. 62,420 relate to the Istimrari jama and the remaining Rs. 66,862 to khalsa villages. Out of the outstandings of Istimrari jama the recovery of Rs. 41,058 is under suspension and from khalsa villages a sum of Rs. 52,055 is under provisional remission.

Land revenue miscellaneous receipts (vide statement No. 32.)

270. The miscellaneous income during the year amounted to Rs. 23,838 against Rs. 8,471 in 1914-15. The increase is due to a sum of Rs. 15,759, which was recovered from the Raja of Bhinai on account of the 1st instalment of Nazrana levied on his succession to the Bhinai Estate.

Prices.

271. The retail prices of the principal food grains, barley and maize, were as follows :—

	Barley.				Maize.

272. Prices generally ruled high throughout the year.

Agricultural stock.

273. The table below compares the results of the enumeration of agricultural stock during the year under report with the 2 previous years :—

	1913-14.	1914-15.	1915-16.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.

Sheep and goats . . .	2,44,768	2,66,020	2,75,386

274. There was some rinderpest, hæmorrhagic septicæmia, black water and foot and mouth disease among cattle in certain villages of the Ajmer-Merwara district.

Boundary marks and disputes.

275. Boundary pillars and survey and plot marks were inspected by the Revenue officials from time to time. Four hundred and ten pillars and survey and plot marks were found damaged and 118 in dispute. Steps were, as usual, taken to put them in order.

276. The number of boundary cases pending during the year under report was 13. These cases, except one, have already been proposed to be made over to a special boundary settlement officer as soon as one is appointed.

Records and staff.

277. In accordance with the rules, regarding the correct maintenance of the khasra and maps, 1,794 corrections were made during the year under report.

278. The Tahsildars and Naib-Tahsildars constantly made inspecting tours in the district and spent on an average 80 days on tour in the Ajmer Tahsil and 97 and 125 days in the Beawar and Todgarh Tahsils respectively.

279. The Beawar Tahsil was inspected by the Commissioner and Ajmer and Todgarh Tahsils by the Extra Assistant Commissioners.

Revenue processes.

280. In khalsa villages, 263 writs, 24 warrants of attachment were issued for the recovery of land and water revenue and taccavi. In the Ajmer Tahsil

3 persons were kept under restraint in default of payment. Thirty-three warrants of attachment were issued against certain Istimrardars for recovery of land revenue and other dues.

281. In the Ajmer Tahsil 1,870 mutation cases were instituted and disposed of during the year under report. In Merwara the number of institutions and disposals of such cases was 1,312. Mutation cases.

282. The statement below gives the area of land acquired for public purposes and the amount of compensation paid for it :— Acquisition of land for public purposes and reduction of Government land revenue.

285. Out of the demand of Rs. 27,642-15-11* (principal and interest) on account of instalments, which fell due during the year under report, a sum of Rs. 16,264-4-8 was collected, leaving a balance of Rs. 11,378-11-3 outstanding at the close of the year. Out of the outstandings the recovery of a sum of Rs. 6,069-8-6 was suspended.

286. Owing to failure of the monsoon and consequent scarcity of fodder in the district, a large number of cattle emigrated to Malwa and the United Provinces. Concession rates in the Railway freight of fodder to stations in Ajmer-Merwara were sanctioned by the Government of India in September, 1915. Grass was imported at the cost of Imperial funds from the United Provinces, Malwa and Gujrat, etc., through private contractors and advanced as taccavi, at 35 seers per rupee, at five depôts opened for the purpose. Large quantities of grass and karbi were also imported by private agency and by the cultivators themselves. Scarcity of fodder and relief measures.

287. Cash taccavi was distributed to cultivators, and Istimrardars and Jagirdars for maintenance, purchase of fodder and construction and repairs of wells and tanks.

288. Test-works were opened on the 25th September, 1915, at the Nagelao tank in the Ajmer Tahsil and Thuni Thak tank in the Beawar Tahsil. But as the people in the Ajmer sub-division were comparatively well off, the former work did not attract labourers and had to be closed on the 20th October. Another test-work was opened in the Beawar Tahsil in October which was followed by a road work opened in November and by a tank work in December. On the 31st March, there were four works in Merwara for the relief of the people.

289. Gratuitous relief was also given in villages and on works to children dependants and others who were held to be entitled to it.

Land Alienation Regulation.

290. In accordance with the provisions of the Ajmer Alienation of Land Regulation No. III of 1914, 192 applications for sale of land were received during the year under report. Of these 90 were granted and 102 rejected. The number of applications for lease of land for a term exceeding 20 years, including 3 left pending at the close of the previous year, was 13, of which 9 were granted and 4 rejected. Under section 16 of the Regulation one decree was transferred to the Collector by a Civil Court but the decree-holder having refused to take possession of the land for 20 years, the case was dropped. Most of the applications for permission to sell land which were granted related to land within Municipal limits.

291. The number of cases in which decrees or orders involving the permanent alienation of land were passed by the Civil Courts in the district was 6 in 1914-15 and 9 in 1915-16.

292. There was no occasion for action by the Collector on any decree or order passed by any Civil Court contrary to any of the provisions of the Regulation.

(2) Opium, excise and drugs.

Excise (Vide Statements Nos. 36-40-C).

293. The gross receipts from excise, opium, and drugs amounted to Rs. 2,98,673 against Rs. 3,33,807 in the preceding year, showing a decrease of Rs. 35,134 which occurred chiefly under the head "country spirit." The expenditure on the excise establishment was Rs. 19,955 as compared with Rs. 19,198 in the preceding year. The net profit on the year's working thus amounted to Rs. 2,78,718 against Rs. 3,14,609 in the year 1914-15. The net excise revenue per head of the population was 9 annas 6 pies against 10 annas 7 pies in the preceding year.

Country spirits.

294. The year under review is the 8th year of the contract supply system. The rates at which country spirits are supplied by the contractor are the same as last year viz.:—

	Mohwa.		Gur.
	25° U. P.	50° U. P.	25° U. P.	50° U. P.
	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.	Rs. a. p.
Rate per gallon . . .	0 13 6	0 9 0	0 15 0	0 10 0

295. The receipts under the head country spirits amounted to Rs. 2,44,356 as compared with Rs. 2,79,929 in the previous year.

296. The total issues of country liquor from the Ajmer distillery were 39,991·5 proof gallons as against 45,682·8 proof gallons in 1914-15. The decrease in consumption was due partly to the high prices of food grains and partly to the removal of troops from Ajmer, Nasirabad and Deoli.

297. The still head duty on spirits issued for consumption in urban and rural areas was as follows :—

	Rs. a. p.
Urban area	4 6 0	per proof gallon.
Rural area	3 12 0	„ „ „

298. The number of country liquor shops in the district was 117 as against 128 in the preceding year. Ten shops were closed from the 1st April, 1915, under the orders of the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, besides the one at Kanpura closed from the 1st January, 1915. Three shops were closed temporarily during the year owing to the emigration of the inhabitants of the surrounding villages on account of scarcity.

299. The question of restricting the issue of temporary licenses for the sale of spirits at fairs and festivals was kept in view ; but no change in the present practice appeared necessary.

Tari.

300. The privilege of tapping and vending tari is held by a contractor for Rs. 500 for a period of two years which will terminate on the 31st March, 1917. Three hundred trees were tapped, the yield being 8,619 gallons of tari.

301. The number of licenses issued for the sale of foreign liquor was 18 as against 19 in the preceding year. The license fees for the wholesale and retail vend of foreign spirits and foreign fermented liquor amounted to Rs. 2,241 against Rs. 2,886 in the previous year. The decrease of Rs. 645 is due to the fact that the fees for most of the licenses for the year 1915-16 were collected and credited into the treasury in the year 1914-15. Statistics showing the wholesale and retail vend and consumption of foreign liquors are given in appendices 40-B and 40-C. Foreign liquor.

302. The receipts under opium amounted to Rs. 29,070 against Rs. 29,998 in 1914-15. Opium weighing maunds 52 seers 33 chattacks 4 and mashas 5 was imported for consumption in Ajmer-Merwara, the import duty realized being Rs. 8,453-0-4 against maunds 47 seers 16 chattacks 12 tolas 3 and mashas 4 and Rs. 7,660 respectively in the preceding year. Opium.

303. The total number of licenses issued during the year for the wholesale vend of opium was 8 against 10 in the preceding year. The number of shops for the retail vend of opium was 40, viz., 8 in the urban and 32 in the rural areas.

304. The contraband opium sent to Ghazipur factory amounted to chattaks 15 and tola one.

305. The receipts from hemp drugs come to Rs. 23,365 against Rs. 20,358 in the preceding year. Hemp drugs.

306. The number of shops for the retail vend of intoxicating drugs was the same as last year, viz., 16.

307. During the year 77 persons were prosecuted under Excise Regulation, of whom 56 were convicted. Under the Opium Act 78 persons were prosecuted, of whom 69 were convicted. One chandu den-keeper was prosecuted. The number of chandu dens was 10 against 9 in the preceding year. Prosecutions.

308. Seven persons only were convicted under the Police Act for drunkenness during the year under report.

309. Cocaine is imported principally into Ajmer, and to a much lesser extent into Beawar. Owing to the war the import which was formerly from Germany viâ Calcutta and Bombay at first decreased considerably. But there are indications that Japan has taken over the lucrative trade and the price of illicit cocaine which had been as high as Rs. 150 per ounce has now fallen to about Rs. 50 to Rs. 60. In spite of this the sale of this drug has very largely diminished owing to the detection and conviction of several of the important smugglers and the infliction by the City Magistrate of deterrent sentences under the Excise Regulation. Cocaine traffic.

310. Under the permits granted by the Collector 2 oz. 13 drs. and 23 grs. of cocaine were imported and 2 lbs. 3 oz. 11 drs. $\frac{21}{32}$ grs. of cocaine were confiscated during the year.

311. Twenty-three persons were prosecuted for possession or sale of cocaine, of these twenty-two were convicted and one acquitted.

312. The Excise Intelligence Bureau which was established in 1913 has done useful work in systematizing the detection of breaches of the Excise Regulation and cases of interest to other provinces have been reported. They are not sufficient in number to justify the issue of a separate Gazette for the district. A criminal register is maintained in accordance with Mr. Comber's suggestion. General remarks.

(3) Stamps.

313. The gross income from stamps amounted to Rs. 1,75,110 against Rs. 1,71,798 in the year 1914-15 as detailed below :— Vide Statement No. 41.

	1914-15.	1915-16.	Difference.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1. Judicial stamps . . .	1,33,513	1,36,747	+3,234
2. Non-judicial stamps . .	38,285	38,051	—234
3. Recoveries in pauper suits .	...	312	+312
Total .	1,71,798	1,75,110	+3,312

314. The increase of Rs. 3,234 in the sale of judicial stamps is due to the institution of a larger number of suits. The decrease in the sale of non-judicial stamps is nominal and calls for no remarks. Rupees 313 were recovered during the year on account of pauper suits.

315. No prosecution took place for any breach of the Stamp law.

316. The number of stamp vendors was the same as in the last year, namely, 32. The discount paid to them amounted to Rs. 2,719 against Rs. 2,667 in 1914-15.

317. The total charges in connection with the working of the stamp department amounted to Rs. 17,925 as compared with Rs. 16,704 in the previous year.

(4) Income Tax.

318. The number of persons assessed to income tax during the year under report was 896 against 835 last year.

319. The final demand and collections as compared with those for 1914-15 are as follows:—

	1915-16	1914-15
	Rs.	Rs.
Final demand	73,259	65,787
Collections	68,087	58,064

320. The gross collections including arrears amounted to Rs. 76,093 as against Rs. 60,115 in the previous year as shown below:—

	1915-16	1914-15
	Rs.	Rs.
Tax	68,087	58,064
Arrears	7,754	2,051
Penalties	252	Nil
	76,093	60,115

321. There were no prosecutions during the year under report, the cost of collections was Rs. 3,790 (including refunds Rs. 2,442) against Rs. 1,207 last year and the net profit accruing to Government Rs. 72,303 compared with Rs, 58,908 in the preceding year.

322. The number of objections under section 26 of the Act was 88, of these 7 were allowed, 12 were partly accepted, 68 were rejected and one was left pending at the close of the year.

323. Thirteen applications for revision were presented under section 27 of the Act to the Commissioner from the orders of the Extra Assistant Commissioners of Ajmer and Merwara. Of these one was partly accepted and the remaining were left pending. The Extra Assistant Commissioners of Ajmer and Merwara and the Sub-Divisional Officer, Kekri, exercise the powers of Collector of Income Tax for the Ajmer, Merwara and Kekri Sub-Divisions, respectively.

324. The collections under Parts I, II, III, and IV of the Income Tax Act were respectively 30·93, 6·96, 1·46 and 53·69 per cent of the entire assessment in Ajmer-Merwara.

325. The incidence of Income Tax per head of population in the city of Ajmer calculated on the amount collected during the year was 3 annas and 8 pies as against annas 3½ in the previous year.

B.—Revenue and Finance other than Imperial.

District fund excluding Dispensary fund (vide statements Nos. 43 to 45).

326. The year opened with a cash balance of Rs. 60,186. Receipts amounted to Rs. 46,884 as against Rs. 52,531 in 1914-15. The corresponding figures of expenditure are Rs. 64,308 and Rs. 47,796 respectively. The receipts decreased by Rs. 5,646 while the expenditure increased by Rs. 16,512.

327. The decrease in receipts is mainly due to the fact that on account of scarcity the Cesses were not recovered in full and the Capitation Tax on the sale of animals at the Pushkar Fair was not levied, the fair having been abandoned on account of scarcity of fodder and water.

328. The increase in expenditure is due to larger outlay during 1915-16 on roads and schools and the construction of new Cattle Pounds.

329. The Veterinary Dispensary and Shoeing Forge at Ajmer continued to work satisfactorily.

330. The bull at Ramsar covered seven cows during the year as against 112 in 1914-15. The decrease is attributed to the fodder scarcity during which a large number of cows had emigrated to Malwa and other places for grazing.

331. The closing balance of the District Fund on the 31st March, 1916, stood at Rs. 42,762 as compared with Rs. 60,186 on the same date in 1914-15.

332. The Board held two Meetings during the year.

Local Funds.

Dispensary fund.

333. The cash balance at the credit of the Dispensary fund at the beginning of the year was Rs. 2,030. The receipts amounted to Rs. 8,382 against Rs. 5,763 in 1914-15, showing an increase of Rs. 2,619, which is due to the fact that the share of Government contribution paid to the Dispensary fund was raised from Rs. 300 to Rs. 1,000 for three years and certain arrears of contributions were recovered.

334. The expenditure was Rs. 9,297 against Rs. 8,519, an increase of Rs. 778 due to increase in demands for medicines and diet.

334-A. The year closed with a cash balance of Rs. 1,115 as detailed below:—

	Rs.
Ajmer	47
Kekri	654
Pisangan	82
Ramsar	343
Beawar	1,022
Todgarh (deficit)	1,033

335. The Todgarh dispensary again shows a debit balance of Rs. 1,033 against Rs. 836 last year as the annual voluntary contribution of Rs. 265-8 from certain villages for this dispensary could not be recovered during the year owing to famine.

336. The receipts amounted to Rs. 11,952 as compared with Rs. 11,739 in the year 1914-15. The increase of Rs. 213 is due to the short recovery of contribution from the Istimrardars towards the uniform of chowkidars, during the year 1914-15.

337. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 12,107 as against Rs. 15,740. The decrease is explained by the fact that in the year 1914-15 a sum of Rs. 4,704 was spent on the purchase of Government promissory notes for the fund while none were bought during the year 1915-16.

Police Chanda fund.

338. The receipts were Rs. 2,365 as against Rs. 2,588 in 1914-15, showing a decrease of Rs. 223. The expenditure came to Rs. 2,353 as against Rs. 2,718 in 1914-15. The decrease of Rs. 365 is due to the fact that in 1914-1915 two horses were purchased as against one only in 1915-1916.

Nasirabad Cantonment fund.

339. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 57,786 as compared with Rs. 74,874 in 1914-15, the decrease of Rs. 17,088 being due to the inclusion of Rs. 8,990 in the last year's figures on account of the Government grant for education purposes and to the income under certain heads having diminished during the year under report owing to famine and reduction of garrison. The expenditure totalled Rs. 66,055 as against Rs. 66,740 in the preceding year. The decrease of Rs. 685 is due to rigid economy necessitated by the reduced receipts. The closing balance at the end of the year was Rs. 18,938.

SECTION VI.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

General (vide tables at appendices Nos. 46 to 52).

340. The number of Institutions at the end of the year under report was 277 against 245 in the previous year. Out of the additional recurring grant of Rs. 10,000 sanctioned by Government for the extension and improvement of Vernacular Education, ten new Vernacular Schools were opened, one in the City of Ajmer and nine in the District. The rest of the increase is accounted for as follows :—

Lower Primary Departments attached to 9 Government Secondary Schools, shown as separate Schools	9
Increase in the number of Private Schools	13

341. The number of pupils in public and private Institutions rose from 13,612 of both sexes to 13,953 in the previous year. Of these the pupils at public Institutions numbered 8,734 and those in private Institutions 5,219 against 8,586 and 5,026 last year. In calculating average duration, the time that the suit has been actually pending in the particular Court should alone be calculated. The interval should be omitted during which an application for review which has been granted, or an appeal in which an order of remand has been passed, been pending in the superior Court. I.—Fractions of a rupee are to be omitted.

II.—If the income of any school maintained by the Department (or by a Local or Municipal Board) exceeds the expenditure, the return of Government (or Local or Municipal) expenditure should be reduced accordingly, the income and expenditure of the school being thus equalised. If in such school the income from fees or other private sources alone exceeds the expenditure, the excess income and the sources from which it is derived should be shown in the column of Remarks.

III.—If the income of any aided school exceeds the expenditure, the excess should be proportionately deducted from the sub-heads of endowments, subscriptions, and other sources; or, if the receipts from those sources are insufficient, from the sub-head of Fees also. The actual receipts from Imperial Revenues and from Local and Municipal Funds should be shown in full.

IV.—In calculating the expenditure from Imperial Revenues or any other Funds, all payments or contributions from Fees or other sources credited to that Fund should be deducted. Such payments should be shown as expenditure under the sub-heads to which they belong.

V.—The expenditure under "University," "Direction" and "Inspection" should be shown only in column 6 and its sub-divisions, and not in the preceding columns.

VI.—The expenditure on stipends held in Training Schools should be shown as part of the expenditure in those schools, not under the head of scholarships.

N.B.—The headings prescribed by the Government, and not required for this district, have been omitted.

FROM

THE HON'BLE LIEUTENANT-COLONEL J. MANNERS SMITH, V.C., C.V.O., C.I.E.,
Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Dated Mount Abu, the 29th December 1917.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report of Ajmer-Merwara for the year 1916-17 compiled by the Commissioner, Mr. L. W. Reynolds, I.C.S., together with my predecessor's remarks thereon.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

J. MANNERS SMITH,
Chief Commissioner of Ajmer-Merwara.

Remarks by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

The year 1916-17 opened under most unfavourable agricultural conditions. The monsoon had failed in the preceding year, and it had been found necessary to declare Scarcity in the Merwara Sub-District in March, 1916. Prospects were generally depressing throughout the District, nearly all the tanks were empty and the Rabi harvest was in consequence extremely poor. By the month of June the number of relief works in Merwara had risen to ten and a failure of the approaching monsoon would have made the declaration of Famine inevitable. Fortunately abundant rain was received in July, and in the following months the monsoon was all that could be desired. The Scarcity works were all closed by the end of August: Ajmer-Merwara enjoyed an excellent Kharif and distress gave place to prosperity.

2. As a result of the favourable monsoon the total revenue (Imperial and Local) of Ajmer-Merwara rose to Rs. 17,80,057, an increase of nearly rupees three lakhs as compared with that of the preceding year. The expenditure incurred also shows a substantial increase amounting to Rs. 20,54,671 as against Rs. 15,22,656 in the year 1915-16: this is due to an outlay of some five lakhs of rupees in connexion with the relief of Scarcity.

3. Receipts from Excise rose by nearly Rs. 40,000, and provide a striking indication of the prevailing prosperity.

4. The Co-operative Credit movement has also been materially assisted by the monsoon. There is a considerable amount of debt still outstanding against the Societies, but recoveries to the extent of more than rupees five lakhs were effected during the year. In addition to this it is to be noted with satisfaction that the Co-operative Credit movement enabled cultivators to spend some three lakhs of rupees in discharging their outside liabilities and in the redemption of mortgages; and thereby to extinguish debts to the amount of Rs. 4,30,000.

5. With regard to the Ajmer Municipality, it is to be observed that the main difficulty with which the Committee have had to contend hitherto has been occasioned by the shortage of the water-supply. This difficulty has now been overcome, and the Committee are now faced with an entirely different problem, viz., the question of surface-drainage. This will necessitate a large capital outlay which in the present period of financial stringency it is impossible to provide. But the Committee are giving the matter their consideration: it is hoped they will decide to devote what sums they can make available for the purpose of procuring expert advice on the subject, so that, when the financial situation clears, they may be ready to proceed to the best possible advantage.

6. Education has continued to make a steady advance. The number of pupils attending educational institutions in the District has increased considerably. Accommodation is to a certain extent deficient, but this is a disadvantage which cannot be expected to vanish until the War has come to an end.

E. G. COLVIN,

4th November 1917.

3. M. Phul Chand, Extra Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer, remained on leave and M. Shanker Lal officiated as Extra Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer, throughout the year except from 2nd November 1916 to 17th December 1916 when he went on privilege leave and M. Bhagwati Lal acted as Extra Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer.

4. Rai Sahib Pandit Brijjiwan Lal, B.A., continued to hold the appointment of Extra Assistant Commissioner, Merwara, and M. Maharaj Swarup that of Sub-Divisional Officer, Kekri, throughout the year.

5. Lieutenant-Colonel R. C. Macwatt, C.I.E., F.R.C.S., I.M.S., continued in the office of the Civil Surgeon throughout the year.

6. Mr. Hollins held charge of the office of District Superintendent of Police from 1st to 6th April 1916. He was then transferred to foreign service in the Tonk State and the office was temporarily held by Mr. Hogan, the Assistant Superintendent of Police, from the 7th to 12th April 1916. Mr. Mayers held the office of District Superintendent of Police from the 13th April to the end of the year.

Revenue and expenditure (vide statement No. 42).

7. The total revenue (Imperial and Local) of Ajmer-Merwara for the year amounted to Rs. 17,80,057 as compared with Rs. 15,08,790 last year and the total expenditure was Rs. 20,59,127 as against Rs. 15,22,656.

8. Imperial revenues rose from Rs. 9,92,634 in the year 1915-16 to Rs. 11,60,971 in the year under report and expenditure from Rs. 10,15,572 to Rs. 14,95,973.

9. There was a deficit of Rs. 3,35,002 in the Imperial revenue in 1916-17 as compared with a deficit of Rs. 22,938 in the preceding year.

10. The deficit was principally due to variations in the revenue and expenditure under the following heads:—

Receipts.

	Rs.
1. Land Revenue	+ 30,166
2. Stamps	+ 20,446
3. Excise	+ 38,348
4. Assessed Taxes	+ 56,278

Expenditure.

1. Police	+14,853
2. Superannuation, etc.	—13,403
3. Famine relief	+4,87,535

11. The increase in receipts under the head "Land revenue" was due to the recovery of a large amount of arrears in the year 1916-17 owing to the kharif harvest of 1324 Fasli being good.

12. The increase in the receipts under head "Stamps" was due to increased civil litigation during the year consequent on the favourable kharif harvest.

13. To the latter cause is also to be attributed an increased consumption of liquor resulting in enhanced revenue under the head "Excise."

14. The increase in receipts under the head "Assessed Taxes" was due to the increase in the rates under the Income Tax Act 1886 as amended by Act V of 1916.

15. The inrcrease in expenditure under the head "Police" was due to a rise in the pay of constables and to the payment of enlistment gratuity allowances with effect from the 1st October 1916.

16. The decrease in the expenditure under head "Superannuation" was due partly to the death of pensioners and partly to the transfer of the pension payments from this Treasury and other Treasuries.

17. The increase in expenditure under head "Famine Relief" was due to (1) the payment to the railways of the cost of special concession rates on fodder, (2) the distribution of gratuitous relief and (3) the opening of relief works during the year under report.

Cattle theft. 51. One hundred and five true cases were disposed of, 2 less than in 1915. Thirty-one were successfully prosecuted and in 19 cases persons were convicted of receiving stolen cattle. In four cases the accused were acquitted.

Property stolen and recovered. 52. Property valued at Rs. 42,293 was reported to have been stolen as compared with 56,520 in 1915. The percentage of the total recovered was 25·02 as compared with 34 in 1915.

Criminal Tribes. 53. There is no Salvation Army Settlement in the district. A hundred Baoris have already been registered and proposals are under consideration for proclaming and registering gypsies.

Surveillance. 54. The number of persons dealt with under the bad livlihood sections of the Criminal Procedure Code was 42 against 64 in 1915. The average security demanded was 216 under section 110 and the average term of imprisonment was one year. Under section 55-109 the average term of imprisonment failing security was 6 months and 27 days. Six of the seven cases under sections 110 and 29 of the 35 cases under section 109 were successful and in only one case was security furnished.

55. The number of persons on history sheets was 347 at the end of 1915 and had fallen to 329 by the end of 1916, but the number of persons whose names were entered in the surveillance register rose from 96 to 106. Thirty-five of the persons whose history sheets were maintained were reconvicted and imprisoned during the year.

Absconded Offenders.

56. There were 65 names on the register of absconded offenders at the beginning of the year and 39 were added during the year ; 14 were arrested and three were struck off under the rules, leaving 87 names on the register at the close of the year.

Strength and cost of the Police.

57. The total allocation is now 40 officers and 915 men ; the number of constables was increased by three during the year to provide order writers. The actual strength at the close of the year was 39 officers and 842 men. The number of vacancies at the close of the year was 74 as compared with 31 at the beginning. Recruitment, owing to the pressing needs of the army, is daily becoming more difficult. The enhanced rates of pay sanctioned towards the end of the year have had no effect on recruiting but the number of resignations has decreased.

Punishment and rewards.

58. Nine men were punished judicially as compared with five in 1915. Departmental punishments numbered 16 as compared with 14 in 1915. Three hundred and seventy men earned Rs. 3,717 in rewards during the year ; the amount received from the Police budget in gambling cases was rupees 1,136. One hundred and twenty-two men received Rs. 757 from the budget for meritorious services.

Armed and mounted Branches.

59. Six men were transferred to the armed branch from the mounted branch during the year to act as bicycle orderlies. The strength of the latter force is now 2 head-constables and 29 constables. Proposals are under consideration to replace a certain number of horses by camels. A new system for the training of the men in armed police duties is also being introduced.

60. The training and education of the force has been much interfered with by the force being so much below strength.

Rural police.

61. The force is much below the strength laid down and is under paid and inefficient. Proposals for increasing both the pay and the strength have been long under consideration and have now passed the initial stages.

(2) Criminal justice (year ending the 31st December 1916).

Vide Statements Nos. 11 to 16 and 25.

62. During the year 1916 the office of the District Magistrate, Ajmer-Merwara, was held by Mr. C. C. Watson, I.C.S., from 1st January to the 20th December 1916 and from that date till the close of the year by Mr. H. C. Greenfield, I.C.S., Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

65. The number of persons under trial in the year was 10,027 ; of these 6,078 were convicted.

66. The corresponding figures for 1915 were 9,781 and 5,576 respectively.

67. The number of persons placed on trial before the Honorary Magistrates of Ajmer-Merwara was 5,656 as against 5,152 in 1915.

73. The number of appeals and miscellaneous criminal applications disposed of by the Chief Commissioner as High Court was 73, of which 68 were rejected. The sentence in one was reduced and in four cases proceedings of the subordinate courts were quashed.

Vide statements Nos. 17 to 25.

(3) CIVIL JUSTICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1916).

74. The total number of courts during the year was 33.

75. The total number of suits (including miscellaneous) was 9,854 against 9,002 in the year 1915, showing an increase of 852. The increase is attributable to favourable harvests.

76. The total value of Suits instituted this year was Rs. 10,97,916 as against Rs. 7,79,706.

77. Suits of all kinds the value of which did not exceed Rs. 50 numbered 4,504.

78. The total number of Suits of all kinds for disposal including arrears was 11,971. The contested Suits disposed of numbered 1,280; (56 were decided by arbitration and 6,005 without any contest. The number disposed of without trial was 2,783 and 22 Suits were transferred to other courts. The pending file at the close of the year was 1,825 as compared with 1,033 in the preceding year; of the former 413 had been pending for more than three months.

79. The average duration of the contested Suits was 129·62 days and that of uncontested Suits 83·75.

Appeals.

80. On the appellate side there were 566 appeals from decrees and orders, and the pending file at the close of the year was 233 against 188 in the preceding year. The average duration of appeals was 85·9 days as against 134·6.

81. The number of applications for execution of decrees was 14,266 against 13,816. The number of pending applications at the close of the year was 3,080 as compared with 1,883.

81A. The total number of appeals and miscellaneous civil applications dealth with by the Chief Commissioner was 384. Details are given in statement No. 10A (civil).

(4) REGISTRATION (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1916).

Vide Statement No. 26.

82. There was no change in the number of offices throughout the year. An extra Moharrir was entertained in the Ajmer Sub-Registry office during the year, and the additional expenditure met by a reduction of the allowance to the Moharrirs of Kekri and Todgarh.

83. The total number of documents of all classes presented for registration during the year under report was 2,523 against 2,772 in the preceding year. The decrease appears to be due to the fact that the rains were good following a series of bad years. There was thus less recourse to the money-lender in agricultural tracts.

84. Of the total number of documents presented for registration, 1,756 documents or 69·60 per cent. were registered in the Ajmer Sub-Registry office as against 68·21 and 61·21 in the two preceding years.

85. The area of agricultural land transferred by sale and mortgage during the year was 512 and 2,128 bighas respectively as compared with 2,269 and 4,277 bighas in 1915, the decrease being due, as has already been noted, to the good kharif harvest and consequent ability of agriculturists to finance themselves. Some of the decrease may be due to the place of the village money-lender being taken by the Co-operative Credit Societies, but to what extent cannot be ascertained accurately.

86. The total value of agricultural land sold and mortgaged amounted to Rs. 1,26,971 as against Rs. 1,11,515 in 1915. The increase is mainly due to the value of land sold in Ajmer for building purposes.

87. The total receipts and expenditure of the year amounted to Rs. 5,780-13-0 and Rs. 1,243-9-9 respectively as compared with Rs. 6,218-10-11 and Rs. 2,168-11-10 respectively in 1915. The decrease in fees is due to the decrease in the number of documents registered, whilst that in expenditure is due to the fact that the extraordinary expenditure noted in last year's report was not repeated during the year under report.

88. All the offices of the Sub-Registrars except Ajmer and Todgarh were inspected once each by the Registrar during the year under report.

89. The work in all offices has shown steady improvement, but Ajmer and Nasirabad are considerably in advance of others. This is to be attributed partly to the personal influence of the Sub-Registrars concerned and partly to the fact that in the offices of Kekri, Beawar and Todgarh the offices are in charge of touring officers who are not always able to exercise the necessary supervision over the registration work.

(5) MUNICIPALITIES (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST MARCH 1917).

Vide Statements Nos. 27 to 30. Ajmer Municipality—population 86,273.

90. During the year under report, the constitution of the Ajmer Municipal Committee remained unchanged. The Committee was composed of 23 members—6 nominated and 17 elected—and contained 8 Europeans and 15 Indians.

91. During the year 5 special and 21 ordinary meetings were held, the average attendance at each meeting being 15·25 and 12·90 respectively.

92. The total income of the year was Rs. 3,50,456 as against Rs. 2,87,557 in 1915-16. The expenditure amounted to Rs 3,36,035 as against Rs. 3,21,253 in the previous year. The closing balance was Rs. 22,904.

93. If refunds are excluded, which amounted to Rs. 38,105 in 1915-16 and Rs. 43,233 in 1916-17, the figures for the two years compare as below :—

	1915-16.	1916-17.	Difference.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Income . .	2,49,452	3,07,223	+57,771
Expenditure . .	2,83,148	2,92,802	9,654

94. The increase of receipts is not due to any expansion of revenue but mainly to the receipt of a loan of Rs. 40,000 taken from Government for the purpose of defraying extra expenditure incurred on the Bhaonta Water supply scheme and to the fact that a total contribution of Rs. 15,000 was received from the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company as against Rs. 7,500 in the preceding year. The financial condition of the Municipality may be gauged from the fact that without these items of receipt the Municipality would have been faced with a deficit.

95. The gross and net receipts from octroi in the two years are shown below :—

	Gross.	Net.
	Rs.	Rs.
1915-16	1,90,359	1,52,254
1916-17	1,94,679	1,51,446
Difference . .	+4,320	—808

96. The increase of Rs. 4,320 in gross receipts has occurred chiefly under the items "piece goods—viz., cloth, etc.," "Metals" and "sugar."

97. The increase in expenditure occurs chiefly under the heads "water supply" and "Conservancy" and is due under the former head to the payment of the extra expenditure incurred in connection with the Bhaonta Water supply scheme and under the latter head to the acquisition of a well and land at the Municipal trenching ground and to the purchase of conservancy plant.

98. The main variations occurred under the following heads:—

Heads.	Increase.	Decrease.
	Rs.	Rs.
Refunds	5,128	...
Water supply	6,740	...
Conservancy	10,957	...
Hospitals and dispensaries	...	1,999
Roads	...	9,200
Public instruction	2,984	...
Interest on loans	...	6,833
Other items	4,299	...

99. The increase under the head "refunds" was due to larger export of cloth.

100. The decrease under the head "Hospitals and dispensaries" is due to no payment having been made during the year on account of maintenance of lunatics at Lahore in consequence of the adjustment of the sum due against an excess payment made in the previous year.

101. The decrease under the head "roads" is accounted for by the fact that no extraordinary repairs or renewals were taken in hand during the year.

102. The increase under the head "Public Instruction" is attributable to the payment of liabilities incurred in the preceding year which were left unliquidated.

103. The balance of the loan of Rs. 60,000 taken from Government in 1910 for renewing the conservancy rolling stock was paid up during the year. Consequently there was a decrease under the head "interest on loans."

104. Expenditure in connection with His Excellency the Viceroy's visit to Ajmer in November 1916 and the general Municipal elections resulted in an increase under the head "other items."

105. A sum of Rs. 25,711 was paid during the year towards the liquidation of Government loans, the balance of which due by the Municipality at the end of the year amounted to Rs. 5,48,181.

106. The incidence of taxation was Rs. 1-12-1 per head of the population against Rs. 1-12-2 in the preceding year.

107. The management of the Ajmer Water Works remained in the hands of the Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Ajmer Division.

108. The total rainfall registered during the year at the following places is as given below:—

1. Foy Sagar	30·20
2. Municipal water works godown	28·32
3. Catchment area of the Foy Sagar	22·00
4. Bhaonta water works	26·45

109. At the Foy Sagar and Budha Pushkar lakes the water levels were respectively 7·62 and 7·65 at the commencement and 17·86 and 7·6½ at the close of the year. The water level of the Bhaonta well No. 5 on the 1st April 1916 was 87·34 while on the 31st March 1917 it was 91·92.

110. Water was pumped from the Foy Sagar on different dates throughout the whole year except during the month of August 1916.

111. From Bhaonta, water was pumped from the 1st May 1916 to the 10th September 1916 and again from the 13th September 1916 to the 26th September 1916, and from Budha Pushkar only during the month of April 1916.

112. The Committee's proposals for the revision of the Ajmer Municipalities Regulation V of 1886 and for the substitution of terminal taxation for the present octroi tax are receiving consideration.

113. The scheme for lighting a portion of the city and suburbs with electricity has been approved by the Committee and an agreement will shortly be executed, but the installation will not be commenced till after the termination of the war.

114. The number of births recorded was 2,670 and of deaths 4,673 as against 2,648 and 3,085 in the previous year.

115. The birth and death rates per mille of population were 30·96 and 51·88 against 30·71 and 35·78 respectively in the preceding year.

116. The mortality among children under five years of age was 2,515 (53·69 per cent. of the total mortality) against 1,624 in the previous year.

117. Thirty-three deaths from cholera, 129 from small-pox and 295 from plague were reported.

118. The number of inoculations performed during the year was 2,621.

119. The total number of vaccinations performed in the Ajmer town and suburbs was 6,675 against 4,658 in the previous year.

120. Although additions have been made to the conservancy plant, the state of sanitation in the city leaves much to be desired. The number of public latrines and urinals is still insufficient for the requirements of the city. No considerable improvement can be effected until the Committee are in a position to carry out a scientific scheme of surface drainage. In their attempts to improve the conservancy the Committee do not receive the assistance from the citizens of Ajmer which they have a right to expect. It is hoped that the wider powers which will be given to the Committee under the amended Regulation will enable the Municipality to deal more effectively with the resistance to sanitary reform which is now encountered. The main difficulty, however, is want of funds, and it is imperative that taxation to meet the cost of special services such as conservancy and water supply should be introduced without further delay.

121. It is regrettable that in connection with the outbreak of plague during the year certain members of the Committee failed in their public duties and were content to leave to others work which the public have a right to expect them, as their representatives, to perform. There is no prospect of any real progress in Municipal administration in Ajmer until the Municipal Commissioners as a whole realize that membership of the Committee is a privilege which carries with it obligations and must be used not to further individual and party interests but for the public good.

122. The Municipal accounts were test-audited by the Examiner, Local Fund Accounts, United Provinces, during the year.

123. The Committee held 12 special and 9 ordinary meetings.

Beawar Municipality Population 22,800.

124. The total income of the year amounted to Rs. 1,05,411, exceeding that of the previous year by Rs. 27,646 and the expenditure to Rs. 95,783 as against Rs. 91,466. The closing balance was Rs. 16,391 exclusive of Rs. 21,000 invested in Government Securities.

125. The increase in receipts accrued mainly under the head "Octroi" and was due largely to the activity of the cotton trade consequent on a favourable monsoon and a rising market.

126. The amount paid on refunds was roughly less by Rs. 4,700 than in the preceding year.

127. The incidence of octroi taxation per head of population was Rs. 3-4-1 as against Rs. 1-12-6 in the year 1915-16.

128. If a sum of Rs. 11,000 invested in the War Loan be excluded the net expenditure shows a decrease of Rs. 6,683 due to the exercise of rigid economy. Owing to the scarcity of water at the beginning of the year a new well No. 4 was sunk in the bed of the Jalia tank. The water difficulty was, however, subsequently removed by an abundant rainfall. In the course of the year water was supplied to the town to the extent of 1·35 gallons per head of population at a cost of Rs. 9,800.

129. Owing to lack of funds no further extension of the pipe line could be made.

130. The state of the roads in the Municipality is not satisfactory and provision for their improvement is being made in the budget for the ensuing year.

131. The numbers of births and deaths registered during the year were respectively 1,035 and 1,062 as against 1,121 and 1,018 in 1915-16.

132. The accounts for the year 1915-16 were audited by the Local Fund Audit Department of the United Provinces during the year.

Kekri Municipality. Population 5,926.

133. There has been no change in the constitution of the Committee except the appointment of Dr. Bijai Narain, in place of Dr. Geta Ram.

134. The Committee held 4 ordinary and 8 special meetings during the year.

135. The total income and expenditure amounted to Rs. 21,408-0-6 and Rs. 18,957-0-4 as against Rs. 15,785-9-3 and Rs. 11,805-6-1 respectively in the preceding year.

136. The increase in receipts was mainly under the head "Octroi."

137. The increase in expenditure was due to enhanced expenditure under the heads (1) Collection of taxes, (2) Conservancy, (3) Hospital, (4) Garden and agriculture, (5) Public works (buildings and roads) and (6) Public instruction.

138. The incidence of Octroi taxation per head of population was Rs. 3-0-1$\frac{3}{4}$ as against Rs. 2-1-9$\frac{1}{4}$ in the year 1915-16.

139. The number of births and deaths recorded during the year was 176 and 374 against 180 and 179 respectively in the preceding year.

140. The accounts of the Municipality were checked by the Auditor of the Local Funds Accounts, United Provinces, Allahabad, from the 31st January to 3rd February 1917.

141. The balance at the credit of the Municipality at the close of the year was Rs. 23,407-2-4 (excluding promissory notes to the value of Rs. 2,000 which is in deposit with the Controller of Currency, Calcutta) against Rs. 22,956-2-2 in the preceding year.

(6) MEDICAL (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1916).

142. The number of dispensaries, viz., six remained unchanged. The total number of in-door and out-door patients treated at these dispensaries during the year under report was 74,947 against 74,084 in the preceding year. There were 4,681 Surgical Operations of all kinds of which 1,878 were performed at the Victoria Hospital, Ajmer. The total income of the Ajmer-Merwara dispensaries was Rs. 23,068 and the total expenditure Rs. 22,723 against Rs. 20,596 and Rs. 19,438 respectively in the year 1915.

Abundant rain fell in July and August so that it was found possible to close all the works by the 31st August. The distribution of gratuitous relief was discontinued from the 26th August.

197. Owing to the congestion of grass traffic on railways, the supply of grass was at first not equal to the demand at the Tacavi Grass Depôts. 198. Depôts for the relief of cattle that had emigrated to Malwa and elsewhere in 1915 were established in the beginning of June at convenient intervals along the Ajmer-Neemuch and Nasirabad-Deoli roads which were the principal lines of route for the returning cattle. At these depôts grass-doles were given to cattle whether belonging to British territory or to the adjacent Native States. These depôts were closed in the first week of August when good rain had fallen and sufficient grazing was everywhere available.

Tahsil.	Standard.			Assessment for 1916-17.			Revenue of crop-rate and Agor credited to Public Works Department.	Grand total.

* Includes Rs. 1,034 on account of balance of previous years.

204. As compared with the standard there was a decrease of Rs. 3,621 in the amount assessed, which was due to the fact that the area under cultivation in the rabi 1323 Fasli (1916) was restricted. The total collections for 1916-17 includes a sum of Rs. 955 on account of collection for this year recovered in the previous year and excludes a sum of Rs. 78 recovered during the year on account of collection for the following year. The increase in collection is accounted for by the better kharif harvest.

209. The balance of land and water revenue which remained outstanding on 31st March 1917 was Rs. 60,322 of which Rs. 45,443 relate to the Istimrari Jama and the remaining Rs. 14,879 to khalsa villages. Of the former item the recovery of a sum of Rs. 30,000 was under suspension.

215. The gross receipts from Excise, opium and drugs amounted to Rs. 3,37,021 as compared with Rs. 2,98,673 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs. 38,348 is mainly due to an improved income under the head "Country spirit." The expenditure on establishment was Rs. 20,234 as compared with Rs. 19,955 in the preceding year. The net revenue thus amounted to Rs. 3,16,787 against Rs. 2,78,718 in the year 1915-16. 217. The total issues of country liquor from the Ajmer distillery were 51,743·8 proof gallons as against 39,991·5 proof gallons in 1915-16 and there was an increase of Rs. 49,236 in the receipts from still head duty due to increased consumption resulting from favourable harvests.

218. The still head duty on spirits issued for consumption in urban and rural areas was as follows :—

221. The demand for tari is small and shows at present no sign of increasing. The beverage has not proved popular except in a small area in the hot weather.

Foreign liquor.

222. The number of licenses issued for the sale of foreign liquor was 19 as against 18 in the preceding year. The license fees for the wholesale and retail vend of foreign spirits and foreign fermented liquor amounted to Rs. 2,112 as against Rs. 2,241 in the preceding year. Statistics showing the wholesale and retail vend and consumption of foreign liquors are given in appendices 40-B and 40 e.

Opium.

223. The receipts under opium amounted to Rs. 25,250 against Rs. 29,070 in the previous year. The decrease of Rs. 3,368 is due to the rise in the price of Kotah opium which resulted in lower bidding at the auction of opium shops.

224. The quantity of opium imported into Ajmer-Merwara for consumption was 49 maunds 32 seers and $13\frac{5}{6}$ chataks, the duty realized being Rs. 7,971 against 52 maunds 33 seers, 4 chataks and 5 mashas and Rs. 8,453-0-4 respectively in the previous year.

In addition to local smugglers, two members of a large gang of Peshawaris which had made Ajmer its headquarters were caught and a case was successfully brought against one of the Delhi smugglers.

231. Despite the vigilance of the Excise authorities, however, the profits of smuggling are so great that the complete eradication of this illicit trade is out of the question. The place of Germany as a supplier has been taken by Japan, but the cocaine is of inferior quality and the imitation of German trade marks easily detected.

234. The increase of R23,582 in the sale of judicial stamps is due to the institution of a larger number of suits this year. The decrease in non-judicial stamps chiefly occurs under the head "Impressed stamps" which is due to a depression in monetary transactions.

235. No prosecution took place for any breach of the stamp law.

236. The number of stamp-vendors during the year was 27 as against 32 in the preceding year. The discount paid to them amounted to R2,732 as against R2,719 in 1915-16.

243. The number of objections under section 25 of the Act was 79 ; of these 8 were allowed, 24 were partly accepted, 45 rejected including the 3 cases in which the tax was enhanced, and 2 were pending at the close of the year.

249. The receipts increased by Rs. 7,794 while the expenditure decreased by Rs. 12,913.

250. The increase in receipts is mainly due to (i) recovery of arrears of cesses, and (ii) realisation of capitation tax on the sale of animals at the Pushkar Fair which was not recovered during 1915-16 owing to the abandonment of the fair on account of scarcity of fodder and water.

251. The decrease in expenditure is mainly accounted for by the fact that in 1915-16 a larger amount was spent on special repairs to roads.

252. The Veterinary Dispensary and Shoeing forge at Ajmer continued to work satisfactorily.

253. The closing balance of the District Fund on the 31st March 1917 stood at Rs. 46,045 as compared with Rs. 42,762 on the same date in 1915-16.

Columns 15 and 16.—As regards the average duration of suits, the date of their presentation of the plaint shall be considered as the date of institution, unless some defect or omission requires to be amended before the plaint can be admitted, in which case the date of admission after amendment shall be regarded as the date of institution. With regard to applications to execute decrees, the date of their presentation should alone be considered. In calculating average duration, the time that the suit has been actually pending in the particular Court should alone be calculated. The interval should be omitted during which an application for review which has been granted, or an appeal in which an order of remand has been passed, been pending in the superior Court. Revived suits are to be treated as if newly instituted on revival.

I.—Fractions of a rupee are to be omitted.

II.—If the income of any school maintained by the Department (or by a Local or Municipal Board) exceeds the expenditure, the return of Government (or Local or Municipal) expenditure should be reduced accordingly, the income and expenditure of the school being thus equalised. If in such school the income from fees or other private sources alone exceeds the expenditure, the excess income and the sources from which it is derived should be shown in the column of Remarks.

III.—If the income of any aided school exceeds the expenditure, the excess should be proportionately deducted from the sub-heads of endowments, subscriptions, and other sources; or, if the receipts from those sources are insufficient, from the sub-head of Fees also. The actual receipts from Imperial Revenues and from Local and Municipal Funds should be shown in full.

IV.—In calculating the expenditure from Imperial Revenues or any other Funds, all payments or contributions from Fees or other sources credited to that Fund should be deducted. Such payments should be shown as expenditure under the sub-heads to which they belong.

V.—The expenditure under "University," "Direction" and "Inspection" should be shown only in column 6 and its sub-divisions, and not in the preceding columns.

VI.—The expenditure on stipends held in Training Schools should be shown as part of the expenditure in those schools, not under the head of scholarships.

* Includes Rs. 60 of a R. M. S. S. Scholarship awarded to a student in the Islamia School and Rs. 180 of a Scholarship in the Agricultural College, Nagpur.

N.B.—The headings prescribed by the Government, and not required for this district, have been omitted.

FROM

THE HON'BLE LIEUTENANT-COLONEL J. MANNERS SMITH, V.C., C.V.O., C.I.E.,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Dated Camp Ajmer, the 11th December 1918.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report of Ajmer-Merwara for the year 1917-18 compiled by the then Commissioner, Mr. L. W. Reynolds, C.I.E., I.C.S., with my remarks.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

J. MANNERS SMITH, Lieut.-Colonel,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

Remarks by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, dated the 3rd December 1918, on the Ajmer-Merwara Administration Report for 1917-1918.

The year 1917-1918 from the fact of its having had the highest rainfall on record for Ajmer-Merwara, should perhaps have proved an exceptionally favourable one. But the excessive rain drowned much of the autumn crop and was possibly responsible for serious epidemics of plague and malaria, which caused the closing for a time of Courts and Schools and adversely affected the general material progress.

Financially the year was satisfactory, especially compared with the previous year. A deficit of over 3 lakhs was converted into a surplus approximating 2 lakhs. Land Revenue, Excise and Assessed taxes (which include the newly imposed Super-tax) are the main heads of increase. The increase of receipts under Excise, generally regarded as the best test of prosperity in the lower grades of society, is accounted for on this and other grounds connected with war conditions in paragraphs 95 et seq of the Report. The increase in actual consumption of liquor by about 14,000 gallons suggests an enhancement of the still-head duty and this point is being investigated. The unhealthiness of the season and the special conditions described by the Commissioner are such as might well suffice to account for the increased consumption without suspecting intemperance.

The report (paragraph 32) discloses some defects in the administration of Civil Justice which will need to be remedied. It is said that the Courts are prone to grant adjournments on insufficient grounds or because of difficulties in the way of securing service of summons through an ill-paid and inefficient agency of process-servers. It is difficult to see how this defect can be put right. The question of underpaid messengers and menials, conducive as it is to corruption and inefficiency is one of those problems which demand the serious attention of the Government of this country and could hardly be tackled in the first instance in so small a tract as Ajmer-Merwara.

There was a notable decrease in the volume of reported crime amounting to 18 per cent and other statistics exhibited in Section III of the report are evidence of satisfactory progress in the domain of "Protection." There is little to note about Municipalities. The Civil Surgeon has drawn attention to the unsatisfactory sanitary condition of Ajmer. The necessity for a new drainage scheme is being pressed on the Municipality. This question was referred to in paragraph 5 of the remarks by Sir E. Colvin attached to last year's Administration Report and still remains in status quo.

Co-operative Credit continued to give fair results and in the year under report something has been done to correct mistakes made in the earlier days of the movement and to put these societies on a sounder economic basis.

REPORT

1917-18.

GENERAL ADMINISTRATION.

1. The appointment of Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, was held throughout the year by Mr. L. W. Reynolds, C.I.E., M.C., I.C.S., and that of Assistant Commissioner by Mr. H. C. Greenfield, I.C.S. During the absence on privilege leave of the permanent incumbent of the Office of Additional District and Sessions Judge, Diwan Bahadur Damodar Lal, i.e., from the 15th September to the 14th December 1917, Sahibzada Abdul Wahid Khan officiated. Personnel.

There was no change in the appointments of Extra Assistant Commissioners, Merwara, and Ajmer, which were held respectively by Rai Bahadur Pandit Brij Jiwan Lal and Munshi Shankar Lal.

The post of Sub-Divisional Officer, Kekri, was held by Munshi Bhagwati Lal, from 21st September to 22nd December 1917 and for the whole of the remainder of the year by Munshi Maharaj Swarup.

There was no change in the office of Civil Surgeon, and Superintendent of Police, which were held throughout the year by Lieutenant-Colonel R. C. Macwatt, C.I.E., I.M.S., and Mr. S. R. Mayers respectiyely.

2. The total revenue (Imperial and local) of Ajmer-Merwara for the year amounted to Rs. 19,15,246 as compared with Rs. 17,80,057 last year. The total expenditure was Rs. 16,92,983 as against Rs. 20,59,127. Revenue and Expenditure (vide statement No. 42).

Imperial revenues rose from Rs. 11,60,971 in the year 1916-17 to Rs. 13,27,919 in the year under report while there was a decrease in expenditure from Rs. 14,95,973 to Rs. 11,40,871.

There was a surplus of Rs. 1,87,048 in the Imperial revenue in 1917-18 as compared with a deficit of Rs. 3,35,002 in the preceding year.

The excess was principally due to variations in revenue and expenditure under the following heads :—

Receipts.

	Rs.
1. Land Revenue	+73,150
2. Stamps	−23,603
3. Excise	+94,123
4. Assessed Taxes	+28,613

Expenditure.

	Rs.
1. Interest	+1,28,529
2. Education	+10,689
3. Famine relief	−4,95,105

The increase in receipts under the head "Land Revenue" was due to large recoveries in consequence of the good Rabi harvest of 1324 Fasli.

The decrease in receipts under head "Stamps" is to be attributed to the closing of the Courts for some months and the cessation of litigation owing to the severe epidemic of plague and fever which prevailed during the greater part of the year.

The increase in receipts under the head "Excise" was mainly due to larger consumption of country spirits for the reasons explained in Sub-Section 2 of Section V of this report.

The introduction of the Super-tax Act (VIII of 1917) during the year under review accounted for the increase under the head "Assessed Taxes."

The payment of interest for the last 7 half-years on the Government Promissory Notes to the Jaipur Darbar explains the increase under head "Interest."

The increase in expenditure under the head "Education" was due to special Government grants.

SECTION II.

The outstandings at the beginning of the year were Rs. 51,248-15-8 while the demand for the current year from all sources was Rs. 8,46,361-1-1 making the total demand Rs. 8,97,610-0-9 as under :—

The collections amounted to Rs. 8,16,920-12-7 as noted above and Rs. 690-4-0 having been remitted, the outstanding balance at the close of the year stood at Rs. 79,998-15-4, including a sum of Rs. 15,844-15-3 on account of price of grain in stock. The actual outstandings are, therefore only Rs. 64,154-0-1.

6. Liabilities.—The liabilities of the estates under management at the end of the year aggregated Rs. 5,65,198-5-7 as shown below :—

Total .	5,65,198	5	7

During the year Rs. 2,95,518-2-9 were paid towards the liquidation of debts. All the current Dami and Takavi instalments were paid during the year except the Dami instalment due by Kanai Kalan which could not be paid owing to want of funds. The Takavi loan due by Rajgarh and Goela was paid in full, and also one Dami arrear instalment due by the Salari and Kanai Kalan estates.

7. Cost of management.—The cost of management amounted to Rs. 48,903 or 5·98 per cent. of the year's ordinary receipts against 8·76 in the last year.

8. Education of the Wards.—The Wards named in the margin continued their studies throughout the year at the Mayo College. Thakur Bijai Singh of Masuda left the College in October 1917 to obtain some practical training in the management of his estate before it is made over to him on his attaining his majority in October 1918. By the courtesy of the Government of the United Provinces, Kanwar Ganpat Singh of Kharwa went to Sitapur for a period of practical training under the special Manager, Court of Wards, in that district in September 1917. He is reported to be making good progress.

1. Thakur Rameshwar Singh of Bandanwara.
2. Thakur Madho Singh of Sadara.
3. Raja Raj Singh of Rajgarh.

9. Health of the Wards.—Jamshed Khan of Rajosi died on 31st March 1918 after an illness of about seven months and has been succeeded by his son Abdul Rahman Khan.

Mutation cases.

10. In the Ajmer Tahsil 3,589 mutation cases were instituted and 2,270 disposed of leaving 1,319 pending at the close of the year. In Merwara 2,725 cases were instituted all of which were disposed of.

Land Alienation Regulation.

11. During the year, 114 applications for permission to sell land under the provisions of the Ajmer Alienation of Land Regulation (III of 1914) were received. Of these 68 were granted and 46 rejected. The majority of the former involved transfers of land from one Mahajan to another or from one cultivator to another while of the remaining cases fifteen were concerned with lands within Municipal limits which can only be regarded as technically coming within the scope of the Regulation. It is obviously undesirable by too strict a use of the powers conferred by the Regulation to restrict the healthy development of towns or Municipalities. Unfortunately there is good reason to believe that the provisions of the Regulation are being largely evaded especially in Merwara. Instances have come to notice of land transferred by oral mortgage or sold and possession delivered to the purchaser. In these cases the transaction is entered in the purchaser's Bahi only. As no mutation of names in the land records can be effected the tendency will be for the latter gradually to cease to be a true record of facts for the purchaser is in the possession de facto but not de jure.

SECTION III.

PROTECTION.

(1) AJMER-MERWARA POLICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1917.) Vide Statements Nos. 4 to 10.

Compiled by E. Kaye, Esquire, Inspector-General of Police, Ajmer-Merwara.

Crime Statistics. 12. The total volume of reported crime, including true cases reported to Magistrates, was 2,646, a decrease of 598 or 18 per cent on the figures for 1916. If, however public nuisances are excluded, the decrease is 1,713 per cent.

The incidence of crime excluding offences under local laws is 51 per 10,000 of population.

Investigations. 13. Investigation was made in 94 per cent of the cases reported as compared with 83 per cent in 1916. 71 police cases were struck off as false or as due to mistake, this number being less by 5 than that for 1916. Only one case was investigated by a gazetted officer.

The percentage of persons convicted to arrested in police cases was 91 against 90 in 1916 and that of convictions secured to investigations made was 70 compared with 71 in the previous year.

Murder. 14. The number of murders for disposal fell from 5 in 1916 to 2 in 1917. One remained undetected and the other was unsuccessfully prosecuted.

Poisoning. 15. There was no case of poisoning during 1917; in 1916 there were 3 cases.

Dakaiti. 16. Reports of dakaiti decreased from 7 cases in 1916 to 3 in 1917. One was a road dakaiti, another a jungle dakaiti and the third a technical house dakaiti. None of the 3 cases were worked out.

Robbery. 17. There were only 6 true cases for disposal during the year against 21 in 1916. Of the two cases sent up for trial, one ended in conviction.

Burglary. 18. The total number of true cases of burglary for disposal was 440; the same as for 1916. Of the 94 cases prosecuted, 89 ended in conviction. The percentage of cases convicted to reports made is 20 compared with 16 in 1916.

Theft. 19. The total number of true cases of ordinary theft for disposal was 403, a decrease of 116 on the figures for the previous year. 129 cases involving 216 persons were sent up for trial and in one hundred and twenty-two cases involving 154 persons convictions were secured.

Cattle theft. 20. 53 cases were disposed of, representing a decrease of 50 per cent on the figures for 1916. 14 were successfully prosecuted and in 2 cases persons were convicted of receiving stolen property. In one case the accused were acquitted.

Property stolen and recovered. 21. Property valued at Rs. 68,939 was reported to have been stolen, the corresponding figure for 1916 being 42,293. The percentage of the total recovered was 30 as compared with 25 in 1916.

Criminal Tribes. 22. The registration of criminal tribes has been completed but at present there is nothing to show the results. The benefit to be derived from the registration is still to come.

Surveillance. 23. The number of persons dealt with under the bad livelihood sections of the Criminal Procedure Code was 30 against 42 in 1916. The average security demanded in cases under section 110 was 200 and the average term of imprisonment was 1 year. Under section 55—109, the average term of imprisonment failing security was 8 months and 12 days. Three of the 6 cases under section 110 and 20 of the 24 cases under section 109 were successful and in only one case of section 110 was security furnished.

The number of persons whose history sheets were maintained was 329 at the end of 1916 and had fallen to 318 by the end of 1917; the number of persons whose names were entered in the surveillance register dropped from 106 to 96. Nineteen of the persons whose history sheets were maintained were reconvicted and imprisoned during the year. The whole system has been overhauled and new orders have come out, which are to be introduced this year and it is hoped that considerable improvement will result therefrom.

Absconded Offenders.

24. There were 87 names on the register of absconded offenders at the beginning of the year and 15 were added during the year; 16 were arrested and 7 were struck off under the rules, leaving 79 names on the register at the close of the year.

Strength and cost.

25. The total allocation is 40 officers and 915 men. The actual strength at the close of the year was 37 officers and 808 men. The number of vacancies at the close of the year was 110 as compared with 74 at the beginning. Recruitment, owing to the pressing needs of the army, is daily becoming more difficult. The enhanced rates of pay sanctioned last year have had no effect on recruiting but the number of resignations has decreased.

Punishment and rewards.

26. Four men were punished judicially as compared with 9 in 1916. Departmental punishments numbered 13 as compared with 16 in 1916. 367 men earned Rs. 2,561 in rewards during the year; the amount received from the Police budget in Gambling cases was Rs. 428. 233 men received Rs. 1,466 from the budget for meritorious services.

Armed and mounted Branches.

27. The strength of the mounted branch is 2 head constables and 29 constables. There were six vacancies among constables. A scheme for the replacement of 16 horses by the same number of camels has been introduced and is being given effect to as opportunity offers.

The training and education of the force has been much interfered with by the force being so much below strength.

Rural police.

28. The force is much below the strength laid down and is underpaid and inefficient. Proposals for increasing the pay of the force were considered but the question was ultimately postponed till after the war.

(2) Criminal Justice.

(Year ending the 31st December 1917.)

Vide statements Nos. 11 to 16 and 25.

29. The total number of offences reported was 5,855 of which 5,062 were returned as true, the corresponding figures in 1916 were 7,891 and 6,962, this considerable decrease is most marked in offences under Chapters XVI and XVII of the Penal Code. It has of course to be remembered that conditions in 1916 and the crime recorded in that year were abnormal. Even so the figures show a decline as compared with normal years. This result is partly no doubt to be attributed to favourable agricultural conditions and partly to good Police work and the breaking up of a number of gangs of burglars. The fact, however, that the decrease has been more marked in Merwara than in Ajmer is a fairly clear indication that the diminution of crime is also partly to be attributed to the number of young men absent on military duty.

30. The number of cases under the Opium Act was 26 as against 76 in the year 1916 and 61 in 1915.

31. 8,344 persons were placed on trial during the year, of the total 4,314 were convicted; 99 of whom were tried in the Court of the District Magistrate. The corresponding figures for 1916 were 10,027 and 6,078 respectively.

The average duration of each case was 38·21 days.

The Court of Sessions dealt with cases of 45 persons as against 33 in 1916, of these 16 were convicted, 8 acquitted and 21 remained under trial.

The number of appeals and revisions dealt with by the Sessions and the Additional Sessions Judge was 199, of which 110 were rejected. The sentence in 17 cases was reduced, in 10 reversed and 7 were referred to the Honourable the Chief Commissioner and a new trial was ordered in three cases.

31-A. The number of appeals and miscellaneous Criminal applications disposed of by the Chief Commissioner as High Court was 78 of which 70 were rejected. The sentence in one was reduced and in one was enchanced. In five cases proceedings of the subordinate courts were quashed.

(3)—Civil Justice (year ending the 31st December 1917.)

Vide statement 17 to 25.

32. Delay in the Administration of Civil Justice is still a matter of general complaint. Presiding Officers of Courts are generally too prone to grant adjournments on any and every pretext while the provision of the law as regards the production of documents, etc., at the first hearing of the case are not enforced with sufficient strictness. Another and more serious cause of delay is to be found in the Court establishments, which are insufficient and under paid. In many cases constant adjournments have been caused by failure to serve summonses in time. It is difficult to secure promptness in this respect when the pay offered to process-servers is sufficient to attract only the aged and infirm.

33. 9,096 suits (including miscellaneous) of a total value of Rs. 12,02,142-6-10 were instituted during the year as compared with 9,854 in the preceding year. Approximately 50 per cent of these were suits, the value of which did not exceed Rs. 50.

Including arrears there were 11,752 suits for disposal by the Courts, of which 9,984 were decided, leaving a balance of 1,768 pending at the close of the year; of these 393 had been pending for more than three months.

The slight decrease in the number of suits instituted is to be attributed to the severe epidemic of plague which raged in the district during the year.

The average duration of contested suits was 139 days and that of uncontested 49.

416 appeals from decrees and orders were preferred during the year and 237 were pending at its close. The average duration was 147 days as compared with 85 in the preceding year.

The number of applications for execution of decrees was 15,180 against 14,266. The number of pending applications at the close of the year was 2,474 as compared with 3,080 in the preceding year.

33-A. The total number of appeals and Miscellaneous Civil applications dealt with by the Chief Commissioner was 277. Details are given in statement No. 10-A (Civil).

(4)—Registration (year ending the 31st December 1917).

34. There was a decrease in the number of documents registered during the year and a consequent falling off in receipts under this head due largely to the severe epidemic of plague and malarial fever in the district. The operation of the Land Alienation Regulation also tends to reduce the number of documents registered. The increase in the area of agricultural land transferred by sale was inconsiderable while, though the area mortgaged shows a large increase, this is accounted for by one short term mortgage of a considerable area. The work of the Registration offices throughout the district was generally satisfactory.

(5)—Municipalities (year ending the 31st March 1918).

Vide statements Nos. 27 to 30.

35. During the year under report, the constitution of the Ajmer Municipal Committee remained unchanged. The Committee was composed of 23 Members—6 nominated and 17 elected—and contained 9 Europeans and 14 Indians.

Ajmer Municipality.—Population 86,273.

Eight special and 17 ordinary meetings were held, the average attendance at each meeting being 13·62 and 14·94 respectively.

36. The total income of the year was Rs. 2,86,693 as against Rs. 3,50,456 in 1916-17. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 2,66,798 as against Rs. 3,36,035 in the previous year. The closing balance was Rs. 42,829.

Exclusive of refunds the income shows a decrease of Rs. 57,877 while the expenditure is less by Rs. 63,351 than in the preceding year.

Of the decrease in receipts, Rs. 40,000 is accounted for by the fact that the previous year's figures were swollen by a Government loan of Rs. 40,000. The balance is mainly due to a falling off in Octroi Collections owing to plague.

37. The gross and net receipts from Octroi in the two years are shown below :—

	Gross. Rs.	Net. Rs.
1916-17	1,94,679	1,51,446
1917-18	1,79,153	1,41,806
Difference	15,526	9,640

The decrease of Rs. 15,526 in gross receipts has occurred chiefly under the items "Grains", "Sugar", "Ghee", "Other articles of food", "Piece goods, viz., cloth, etc.", and "metals".

38. The decrease in expenditure amounting to Rs. 69,237 occurs chiefly under the heads "Water Supply and Conservancy" and is due under the former head to no large payments being made as water was plentiful owing to an abnormally heavy rainfall and under the latter head to no extraordinary expenses being incurred during the year. No other items of expenditure call for any special remark.

39. A sum of Rs. 19,588 was paid during the year towards the liquidation of Government loans, the balance of which due by the Municipality at the end of the year amounted to Rs. 5,28, 594.

40. The incidence of taxation was Rs. 1-10-4 per head of the population against Rs. 1-12-1 in the preceding year.

41. The management of the Ajmer Water Works remained in the hands of the Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Ajmer Division.

42. The total rainfall recorded during the year at the different registering stations was as follows :—

(1) Foy Sagar	62·89
(2) Municipal Water Works Godown	47·96
(3) Catchment area of the Foy Sagar	54·62
(4) Bhaonta Water Works	65·57

At the Foy Sagar and Budha Pashkar lakes the water levels were respectively 17·82 and 7·6⅝ at the commencement and 22·16 and 2·7⅝ at the close of the year. The water level of the Bhaonta well No. 5 on the 1st April 1917 was 91·92 while on the 31st March 1918 it was 100·34.

Water was pumped from the Foy Sagar from 1st April 1917 to the 15th June 1917 only. For the rest of the year it was supplied by gravity.

43. The epidemic of plague which commenced in March 1917 continued throughout the year reaching its greatest severity in the months of April, May, November and December 1917.

The total mortality from this cause now amounts to 3,631.

44. Shops for the sale of salt to the poorer classes at the rate of 18 seers per rupee were opened during the year and afforded much needed relief.

45. Vital statistics are given in detail in the Civil Surgeon's annual report. They may be summarised as follows :—

The number of births recorded was 2,002 and of deaths 8,979 as against 2,670 and 4,673 in the previous year.

The birth and death rates per mille of population were 23·22 and 104·14 against 30·96 and 51·88 respectively in the preceding year.

The mortality among children under five years of age was 2,609 (29 per cent. of the total mortality against 2,515 in the previous year.

The infant death rate is still appalingly high and it is to be hoped that the Board will initiate measures to check preventible causes of death among children.

46. The number of inoculations for plague performed during the year was 3,458.

47. The total number of vaccinations performed in the Ajmer town and suburbs was 3,821 against 6,675 in the previous year.

48. It is obvious that the birth statistics are quite unreliable. In the past five years according to the figures recorded the deaths have exceeded the births by 100 per cent., the number of vaccinations has been approximately 21,000 while the recorded births numbered 11,000 only. The average birth rate for the past five years in Ajmer as shown in the Municipal Reports is about 25 per mille. In the United Provinces for the year ending 31st March 1917, the average birth rate in all Municipalities was 45 per mille. The Committee might well take some steps to obtain more accurate returns.

49. Sanitation.—In his annual report the Civil Surgeon again draws attention to the unsatisfactory sanitary condition of the City. The necessity for imposing a conservancy tax to form the nucleus of a fund for a new drainage scheme has been impressed upon the Committee but so far no action has been taken. Much improvement could be effected by regular and efficient supervision. It is impossible to expect to secure this when the conservancy arrangements in the City are in the charge of a Sub Committee composed of almost as many members as the Municipal Committee itself. No permanent improvement can be hoped for either in sanitation or in other matters of Municipal administration until the Committee appoint an experienced Executive Officer and delegate to him extensive powers in matters of detail. Such an official would be invaluable to the Board and enable them to dispose of their routine work in a more expeditious and business-like way and thus to avoid the constant delays in the Municipal Office of which the public now with good reason complain.

50. The Committee held 11 special and 9 ordinary meetings. The attendance of members can not be regarded as satisfactory, the majority of the members do not appear to have attended 50 per cent. of the meetings held.

Beawar Municipality. Population 22,800.

51. Considering the check to the trade of the town which has resulted from condition arising out of the War and the fact that there was a severe epidemic of plague during the year the financial condition of the Municipality is fairly satisfactory. The receipts as compared with the preceding year showed a decrease of Rs. 18,708 while the expenditure was some Rs. 10,000 less. The year closed with a balance in hand of Rs. 17,946 exclusive of investments of the face value of Rs. 21,000 in Government securities.

As was to be expected the decrease in receipts was mainly due to a falling off in the income from Octroi on which the Municipality mainly depends, the revenue from other sources of income being inconsiderable.

The decrease in expenditure was more apparent than real as the expenditure in the preceding year included a sum of Rs. 11,000 invested in the War Loan. The incidence of the Octroi tax was Rs. 2-10-1 as compared with 3-4-1 in 1916-17.

52. The largest items of expenditure are apart from the cost of general administration, conservancy water supply and education. This year owing to the abundant rainfall there was a decrease of approximately Rs. 3,000 under the head water supply. Normally, however, this charge amounts to Rs. 9,000 or upwards. It is for consideration whether the Municipal Committee should not endeavour to get some return for this outlay, and manage their water supply system more on business lines with the object of obtaining an income equal to their expenditure.

53. The expenditure on education which amounts to nearly $\frac{1}{6}$th of the Municipal net income for the year seems abnormally high. The Municipal Committee appear to be defraying from Municipal funds education charges which might more properly form a charge against Imperial revenues.

54. Owing to scarcity of labour due to plague and the War the condition of the wards within the Municipal area could not be repaired and leaves much to be desired.

55. The accounts were audited as usual by the Examiner, Local Fund Accounts.

Kekri municipality. Population 5,926.

56. There were two changes in the constitution of the Committee, Babu Nur Mohamed and Kamdar Kishen Singh being appointed in place respectively of Babu Abdul Ghafur (deceased) and of Sah Sriniwas.

57. The Committee held 2 ordinary and 5 special Meetings during the year.

58. The total income and expenditure amounted to Rs. 18,412-1-10 and Rs. 16,926-11-as against Rs. 21,408-6-and Rs. 18,957-4 respectively in the preceding year. The decrease in income was due to a falling off in the Octroi receipts owing to the failure of the Kharif harvest and the temporary suspension of trade in consequence of an outbreak of plague. On the expenditure side some saving was effected in the cost of collection of taxes.

59. The incidence of Octroi taxation per head of population was Rs. 2-4-1 as against Rs. 3-0-1¾ in the year 1916-1917.

60. The number of births and deaths recorded during the year was 79 and 876 against 176 and 374 respectively in the preceding year. The large increae in mortality was due to severe epidemics of plague and malarial fever.

61. The balance at the credit of the Municipality at the close of the year was Rs. 26, 892-9-2* against Rs. 25,407-2-4 in the preceding year.

* Including promissory notes to the value of Rs. 2,000, Rs. 5,000, in War Loan, Rs. 5,000, in deposit with the Kekri Central Bank.

(6) MEDICAL (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1917).

62. The number of dispensaries, viz. 6, remained unchanged. The buildings in which three, viz. those at Ramsar, Pisangan and Todgarh are accommodated are neither adequate nor suitable, a fact which doubtless accounts in part for the absence of enthusiasm displayed towards these particular institutions. Elsewhere in British India dispensaries are better housed and better found but for want of the necessary funds dispensaries in the district will presumably remain in their present unsatisfactory condition. There was an increase in the number of cases treated in the year under report the number being 80,363 as against 74,947 in 1916. The increase was entirely due to an unprecedented epidemic of malarial fever. In a district like Ajmer-Merwara it would be worth giving a trial to travelling dispensaries a policy which has met with considerable success in other provinces. The dispensaries generally require more supervision than under present conditions the Civil Surgeon is able to give them and deserve more help from private generosity than they receive.

Section IV.

PRODUCTION AND DISTRIBUTION.

Agricultural summary.

63. The year under report comprises Rabi 1324 and Kharif 1325 Fasli.

The Rabi crops which depended on the rainfall of 1916 were good, the outturn being 0-9-5 in the rupee in the Ajmer Tahsil and above the normal in Beawar and Todgarh Tahsils.

The Kharif crops depending on the rainfall of 1917 were poor, the outturn being 0-4-1 in the rupee in the Ajmer Tahsil and 0-8-10 in Beawar and 0-9-5 in the Todgarh Tahsil.

Ajmer Tahsil.

64. The area sown for Rabi, 1916-17 was 63,678 acres, of which 794 acres failed. The outturn was estimated at 518,287 maunds.

The area under cultivation for the Kharif of 1917-18 was 112,800 acres of which 58,491 acres or about 52 per cent. failed. The outturn was estimated at 119,950 maunds.

Beawar and Todgarh Tahsils.

65. The area sown for Rabi, 1916-17 was 46,872 acres, of which 1,174 acres failed. The outturn was estimated at 5,63,668 maunds.

The area under cultivation for the Kharif of 1917-18 was 67,279 acres, of which 21,957 acres or about 32 per cent failed. The outturn was estimated at 1,29,595 maunds.

Takavi loans (Land Improvement Loans Act and Agriculturists Loan Act). Vide statements Nos. 33, 34 and 35.)

66. No loan was granted during the year under report. The recoveries of both principal and interest under the two Acts amounted to Rs. 1,90,177-13-6 out of a demand of Rs. 2,25,867-5-9. The total amount of advances which remained outstanding under the two Acts at the close of the year was Rs. 2,79,183-12-6.

Mines.

67. The demand for mica which has been stimulated by the war has led to an increase in the number of applications for mining concessions. There is however, no scientific mining, most of the workings being merely superficial scratchings. It is doubtful whether high grade mica exists in sufficient quantities to justify large capital expenditure. The profits of concessionaries would, however, be increased by expert advice in trimming. In all some eighty tons of mica were extracted during the year, the bulk of which was "black-spotted". Trade in this class of mica is greatly handicapped by prevailing high cost of railway freights. Rs. 1,491 were paid in royalty.

68. Thirty-two prospecting licenses were issued of which 25 were for mica, four for graphite, two for haematite and one for soapstone. Three mining leases for mica in Khalsa villages and one in the Para Estate were issued to the Rajputana Mica and Mineral Company (now in voluntary liquidation). The Court of Wards granted a license in the Kharwa Estate for copper and iron pyrites to Mr. T. R. Kantharia and one for mica to Mr. A. L. Thomas of Beawar.

Trade.

69. The returns of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway, metre gauge, show a decrease in the number of passengers booked from stations in Ajmer-Merwara from 14,06,428 in the year 1916-1917 to 10,58,008 in the year 1917-1918.

70. The grain traffic of the two most important local trade centres for the year under report and the previous year is given below :—

Ajmer—
Imports	59,642	13,154
Exports	513	365
Balance in favour of imports	59,129	12,789
Beawar—
Imports	14,082	6,595
Exports	2,377	4,169
Balance in favour of imports	11,705	2,426

71. Imports of cotton at Beawar were 4,570 tons during the year under report as compared with 4,065 tons in 1916-1917 and exports of raw cotton were 5,529 tons as against 7,848 in 1916-1917.

Public Works.

72. During the year under review the total expenditure incurred on Public Works in Ajmer-Merwara District (exclusive of Irrigation Works Canals and Railways) amounted to Rs. 2,82,037, of which Rs. 2,65,853 were spent on works within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner as against Rs. 2,79,735 in 1916-17.

73. The principal projects on which expenditure was incurred during the year were :—

(1) The construction of a new Government High School at Ajmer.

(2) The addition of a class room to the Secondary Vernacular Schools at Pisangan and Masuda.

(3) The construction of a Boarding House for 20 students attached to the Normal School at Ajmer.

(4) The construction of two additional class rooms at the Normal School at Ajmer.

(5) The provision of family quarters for the police out posts near the Railway Station, Nasirabad, and on the Nasirabad Deoli Road.

(6) The construction of a Regimental and Political Office at Kotra.

74. The Revenue credited to Imperial Civil Works during 1917-18 on account of Ajmer-Merwara was Rs. 44,013 including Rs. 33,100 on account of sale-proceeds of the old Police Thana with subsidiary buildings at Beawar, and Rs. 1,711 on account of rent realised for certain Government buildings.

Arboriculture. Road-side tree plantation.

75. During the year under report the total length of avenues planted was 5 miles, of which 2 miles were planted on the district and the remainder on Imperial Roads. The total length of roads planted or under plantation on 1st April 1918 was 98 miles and 1¾ furlong.

*District Fund roads Rs. 2,310. Imperial roads, Rs. 2,461 Total „ 4,771

76. 1197 trees were planted during the year and 604 died. The comparatively high percentage of failures was due mainly to excessive rain. The total cost of maintenance both on Imperial and District Fund roads amounted to Rs. 4,771*, as against Rs. 5,376 in the previous year.

77. 1,007 cattle were impounded for illicit grazing in the Forest reserve against 672 in the previous year (1916-17). The increase is due to more energetic action on the part of the Forest Department.

78. The income derived from the sale of dry wood and Babul pods, etc., amounted to Rs. 845 as against Rs. 782-10 in the previous year.

Inspection of Rain-gauges.

79. The number of rain-gauges maintained in Ajmer-Merwara remained unchanged i.e. 83 as in the previous year and all were inspected by the Civil and Public Works Departments, or Police Officers and were found in good order.

Co-operative Credit Societies (year ending the 30th June 1918).

80. Rai Sahib Munshi Gopi Nath who as Registrar had guided the co-operative movement in Ajmer-Merwara through 5½ difficult years retired on the 24th May 1918, and was succeeded by Munshi Jai Gopal whose services have been kindly lent by the Punjab Government.

81. The cost of the Registrar's establishment was Rs. 11,922 which represents an expenditure of Rs. 33 a Society. If the salary and Travelling Allowance of the Registrar be excluded the average cost per Society is reduced about 50 per cent. and corresponds approximately to the proportion obtaining in the Punjab.

82. In the early days of the co-operative movement in Ajmer-Merwara as in other provinces there was a tendency to form Central Banks and Societies which should never have come into existence. Many of these Societies have continued to drag on an existence profitless to themselves and a menace to the prosperity of the movement as a whole owing to a somewhat natural disinclination of the Registrar to resort to liquidation. An attempt is now being made to weed out such Societies and also to purge Societies of their undesirable members. In pursuance of this policy the registration of 18 Societies was cancelled during the year and one Central Bank was closed. Eight new Agricultural Societies were registered leaving the total number 362 as compared with 372 in the preceding year. The net working capital of all Societies increased from Rs. 12,98,398 to Rs. 16,73,540.

Central Banks.

83. That the public continue to place confidence in the four Central Banks is evidenced by the fact that out of deposits of a total value of Rs. 6,44,680 falling due for repayment, a sum of Rs. 1,09,982 only was actually withdrawn, the balance being renewed. The working capital increased by Rs. 2,17,632 and now stands at Rs. 12,57,908. The combined share capital plus the reserve fund of the Banks represents 20 per cent. of their liabilities, a position which may be regarded as generally satisfactory. The management was on the whole good and the Registrar specially mentions Munshi Prabhu Dayal and Munshi Durga Pershad, Chairmen, respectively of the Ajmer and Beawar Central Banks. It is a matter for regret that the members of the Committees of Management evince little interest in the affairs of the Banks or in the Co-operative movement as a whole. With the exception of the Ajmer Central Bank the Banks maintain no fluid resources. Deposits have to be repaid by fresh deposits. There is consequently no provision to meet a sudden contraction of credit. The problem is under consideration. The net profits of all the Central Banks were Rs. 44,852 as compared with Rs. 32,335 in the preceding year. The reserve fund shows an increase of some Rs. 7,000 and now stands at Rs. 36,606. The rates of dividends paid last year were maintained. It is not possible to estimate accurately the amount of loans overdue as the Central Banks have neglected to fix instalments for repayment regularly. This is an important point which will now be insisted upon. Other points on which the Registrar comments adversely are the failure of the Banks to fix the maximum credit to be given to individual Societies and the practice of granting advances to share-holders on the security of their shares. In the Beawar Bank, for instance, a dividend of 12 per cent. is paid to share-holders while advances are made to them at 9 per cent.

Agricultural Societies.

84. It will be seen from paragraph 63 of this report that agriculturally the year was not favourable. Cultivators had to contend with excessive rain and epidemic disease and the high prices obtained for what cotton crops there were did not compensate for their losses.

The work of the Societies is much handicapped by the difficulty in procuring suitable local Secretaries and the excessive number of Societies under one Secretary is inconvenient and delays the preparation of accounts and the issue of loans. Steps are being taken to remedy this defect.

The paid up share capital now amounts to Rs. 2,85,240 though shares do not appear to have been regularly recovered as they should be.

Of the total amount on loan last year, viz., Rs. 11,68,046, Rs. 3,80,361 were recovered, Rs. 3,03,672 in Ajmer and Rs. 76,689 in Beawar.

The repayment of principal was thus 25 per cent. in Ajmer and 11 per cent. in Merwara. Considering the character of the season these results are not unsatisfactory. During the year Rs. 4,49,398 were advanced, Rs. 3,43,119 in Ajmer and Rs. 1,06,279 in Merwara. 41 per cent. of the amounts advanced were for seed, cattle, fodder and other miscellaneous charges relating to agriculture and about Rs. 80,000 for the redemption of land and the repayment of old debts.

The total amount due from members at the end of the year was Rs. 13,76,74[illegible], 30 per cent. of which is due from members of the Committees. It is clear that the 'panch' members have been allowed to appropriate too large a share.

No non-agricultural Societies have yet been started in Ajmer-Merwara but in the near future it is proposed to attempt the formation of some weaver Societies.

No regular audit of the primary Societies has been made. The attention of the Registrar has been called to this essential point and efforts will be made to audit the accounts of half the Societies during the next year.

It is unfortunate that in Ajmer-Merwara the non-official public show no interest in the movement.

Agricultural stock.

85. The table below compares the result of the enumeration of agricultural stock in the Khalsa villages during the year under report with the two preceding years :—

	1915-16.	1916-17.	1917-18.
Cows and bullocks	150,553	126,823	162,854
Buffaloes	39,092	28,786	38,699
Sheep and goats	275,386	259,416	255,565

Cases of Hæmorrage Septicæmia and foot and mouth disease occurred in a few villages of the district.

SECTION V.

REVENUE AND FINANCE.

A.—IMPERIAL.

(1) Land and water revenue.

86. The year under report includes the accounts for the Rabi harvest of 1324 and the Kharif of 1325 Fasli. The average rainfall was 46·76 inches, the normal being 21 inches. In consequence of the heavy rainfall the outturn of the Kharif harvest was poor. The Rabi generally was a bumper crop. Character of the season (vide statement No. 31).

87. The system of fluctuating assessment in the 46 selected villages worked satisfactorily. The following table compares the assessment made in 1917-18 with the standard revenue fixed for those villages :— Variable assessment.

Name of Tahsil.	Standard.			Assessment for 1917-18.
	Land Revenue.	Water Revenue.	Total.	Land Revenue.	Water Revenue.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Ajmer	14,473	1,523	15,996	12,332*	1,390	13,722
Beawar	2,800	1,547	4,347	2,020	757	2,777
Total	17,273	3,070	20,343	14,352	2,147	16,499

*(1) Includes Rs. 889 on account of balance of previous year.
(2) Rs. 380 remained outstanding at the close of the year.

As compared with the standard there was a decrease of Rs. 4,733 in the amount assessed, which was due to the fact that a portion of the cultivated area for the Kharif 1325 Fasli was damaged by heavy rains. Out of the demand of Rs. 16,499 a sum of Rs. 16,119 was recovered during the year leaving a recoverable balance of Rs. 380.

88. The current demand on account of land and water revenue for the year amounted to Rs. 3,63,825 as against Rs. 3,45,234 for the year 1916-17 as detailed below :— Demand and Collection, etc., of land and water revenue (vide statement No. 32).

	1917-18.	1916-17.
	Rs.	Rs.
Khalsa villages	2,33,481	2,14,489
Variable villages	15,610	16,011
Istimrari area	1,14,734	1,14,734
Total	3,63,825	3,45,234

The current demand includes a sum of Rs. 735 on account of fixed rent recovered under rule 14 of the Remission rules. Including the arrears of previous years the total demand aggregated Rs. 4,24,147 against Rs. 4,74,508 for the year 1916-17 while the total collections amounted to Rs. 3,78,991 against Rs. 3,14,383 in the year 1916-17 as detailed below :—

	1917-18.	1916-17.
	Rs.	Rs.
Khalsa villages	2,42,289	1,66,517
Variable villages	16,119	16,155
Istimrari area	1,20,583	1,31,711
Total	3,78,991	3,14,383

The cultivator is now profiting by the high prices obtainable for his produce and although the Kharif crop was poor, abnormally high prices were obtained for the cotton produce while a bumper Rabi crop enabled the revenue demand to be realised without difficulty.

89 The balance of land and water revenue which remained outstanding on 31st March 1918 was Rs. 45,055 of which Rs. 39,594 relate to Istimrari area and the balance to Khalsa and variable villages.

Land Revenue miscellaneous receipts (vide statement No. 32).

90. The miscellaneous income during the year amounted to Rs. 26,859 against Rs. 18,816 in 1916-17.

91. The figure for 1917-18 includes a sum of Rs. 19,815 which was recovered from the Raja of Bhinai on account of instalment of Nazrana levied on his succession to the Bhinai Estate.

Prices.

92. The retail prices of the principal food grains, barley and maize were as follows :—

	Barley.				Maize.
	June 1917.		January 1918.		June 1917.		January 1918.
	Srs.	ch.	Srs.	ch	Srs.	ch.	Srs.	ch.
Ajmer	12	5	9	9	16	0	9	14
Beawar	14	4	11	4	15	8	10	12
Todgarh	18	0	12	8	16	0	12	8

Revenue processes.

93. In the Khalsa villages 92 writs and 36 warrants of attachment were issued for the recovery of land and water revenue and Takavi instalments. 35 warrants were issued against certain Istimrardars for recovery of Government dues.

Loans to Talukdars under Ajmer Talukdars Loan Regulation, 1911 (Dami loan).

94. No new loan was granted during the year under report. Including the arrears of previous years the total demand of Dami loan aggregated Rs. 25,083 of which Rs. 18,851 were collected during the year leaving a balance of Rs. 6,202 outstanding at the close of the year.

(2) Excise, Opium and Drugs.

Excise vide statements 36 to 40-C.

95. The total receipts of the year from Excise, Opium and Drugs amounted to Rs. 4,23,100 as compared with Rs. 3,37,021 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs. 86,079 is mainly under the head country spirits. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 19,137 against Rs. 20,234 in the year 1916-17 leaving a net revenue of Rs. 4,03,963 as against Rs. 3,16,787 in the preceding year. The incidence of the excise revenue per head of population rose from Rs. 0-10-9 in 1916-17 to Rs. 0-13-6 in the year under report.

Country spirit.

96. There was no alteration either in the rates at which country spirit is supplied by the contractor or in the rate of still head duty, viz. :—

Urban area Rs. 4-6-0 per proof gallon.

Rural area Rs. 3-12-0 per proof gallon.

The total issues of liquor from the Ajmer Distillery were 65,710·5 against 51,743·8 proof gallons in 1916-17.

The increase in the receipts from country spirit is to be attributed to the comparatively favourable agriculturable conditions and the abnormally high rates of wages earned by the labouring classes. In Merwara large remittances from sepoys on service to their relatives and the savings of soldiers home on leave contributed to provide funds for increased purchases of liquor. Consumption was further stimulated by numerous marriage ceremonies.

The number of country liquor shops in the District was 114 as against 116 in the preceding year.

97. The revenue realised from tari was Rs. 550 under a two years' contract which expires in 1919. Tari.

98. The fees for the vend of foreign liquor for which fourteen licenses were issued during the year being five less than in 1916-17 produced Rs. 2,529 against Rs. 2,112 in the preceding year. Statistics showing wholesale and retail vend and consumption of foreign liquor are given in appendices 39-B and 39-C. Foreign liquor.

99. The total opium receipts amounted to Rs. 31,351 against Rs. 25,220 in 1916-17. The quantity of opium imported into Ajmer-Merwara for consumption was 83 maunds 36 seers 14 chattaks, 0 tola, 10 mashas against 49 maunds 32 seers 13 5/6 chattaks in the preceding year and the duty realised amounted to Rs. 13,427-9-4 against Rs. 7,971 in the preceding year. Opium.

The total number of licenses issued for the wholesale vend of opium was 5 against 4 in the preceding year. The number of shops for retail vend remained unaltered, viz. 8 in the Urban and 31 in the Rural area.

39 seers 13 chattaks of contraband opium were sent to the factory at Ghazipur.

100. The receipts from hemp drugs amounted to Rs. 22,290 against Rs. 22,028 in the previous year. 16 shops were licensed for the retail vend of intoxicating drugs as in 1916-17. Hemp drugs.

101. During the year 52 persons were prosecuted under the Excise Regulation of whom 38 were convicted. Under the Opium Act 31 persons were prosecuted of whom 29 were convicted. 75 persons were convicted under the Police Act for drunkenness and out of 12 persons charged with offences in connection with cocaine 5 were convicted. Prosecutions.

102. There is little illicit export of exciseable articles from Ajmer-Merwara though it is probable that opium smuggled from Mewar passes through Ajmer. The smuggling of liquor and opium into the district has decreased while the energetic measures taken by the district excise authorities has considerably reduced cocaine smuggling. General remarks.

The Excise Intelligence Bureau which was established in 1913 has continued to do useful work.

On the whole the Excise Administration of the district is distinctly efficient and much credit is due to the Superintendent, Lala Piare Lal who is largely responsible for the suppression of smuggling and the consequent rise in the Excise revenue.

(3) STAMPS.

103. The gross income from stamps amounted to Rs. 1,71,585 as against Rs. 1,95,416 in 1916-17 as detailed below :— Vide Statements No. 41.

	1916-17.	1917-18.	Difference.
1. Judicial stamps	1,60,329	1,39,322	— 21,007
2. Non-Judicial stamps	34,914	32,263	— 2,651
3. Recoveries in pauper suits . .	173	...	— 173
Total .	1,95,416	1,71,585	—23,831

The decrease in the revenue from the sale of judicial and non-judicial stamps is attributed chiefly to the prevalence of plague in the district during the whole of the year under report and the consequent closing of courts for some months.

104. No prosecution took place for any breach of the Stamp Law.

105. The discount paid to stamp vendors amounted to Rs. 2,374 as against 2,732 in 1916-17.

106. The total charges in connection with the working of the stamp department amounts to Rs. 18,389 as compared with Rs. 17,755 in 1916-17.

(4).—Income Tax.

107. The number of persons assessed to Income Tax during the year under report was 954 against 944 last year.

The demand and collections as compared with those for 1916-17 were as follows :—

	1917-18.	1916-17.
	Rs.	Rs.
Demand	1,35,239	1,38,607
Collections	1,33,484	1,35,001

The gross collections including arrears and penalties amounted to Rs. 1,36,355 as against Rs. 1,40,716 in the previous year as shown below :—

	1917-18.	1916-17.
	Rs.	Rs.
Tax	1,33,484	1,35,001
Arrears	2,673	4,920
Penalties	198	789
Excess	...	6
Total	1,36,355	1,40,716

The cost of collection was Rs. 1,618 against Rs. 1,140 in the preceding year and the net revenue accruing to Government was thus Rs. 1,34,737.

The number of objections under section 25 of the Act was 65. Of these 5 were allowed, 17 partly accepted and 37 rejected including 2 cases in which the tax was enhanced, 6 were pending at the close of the year.

Four applications for revision were presented under section 27 of the Act to the Commissioner from the orders of the Extra Assistant Commissioner, all of which were rejected.

The Extra Assistant Commissioners of Ajmer and Merwara and the the Sub-Divisional Officer, Kekri, exercised the powers of the Collector of Income Tax for the Ajmer, Merwara and Kekri Sub-Divisions, respectively.

The collections under Parts I, II, III and IV of the Income Tax Act were respectively 30·30, 16·70, 5·64 and 46·04 per cent of the entire assessment in Ajmer-Merwara.

The incidence of Income Tax per head of population in the city of Ajmer (86,273) calculated on the amount collected during the year was 8 annas 5 pies as against 8 annas 3 pies in the previous year.

The Super Tax Act VIII of 1917 was brought into effect during the year under report. The number of assessees assessed to Super Tax during the year was 6 and the total collection amounted to Rs. 33,549.

B.—Revenue and Finance other than Imperial.

District fund excluding dispensary fund (vide statements Nos. 43 to 45).

108. The year opened with a cash balance of Rs. 46,045. The receipts amounted to Rs. 64,070 as against Rs. 54,678 in 1916-17.

The corresponding figures of expenditure are Rs. 75,004 and Rs. 51,395 respectively.

The receipts increased by Rs. 9,392 and the expenditure by Rs. 23,609.

The increase in receipts was due—

(i) to the credit of Rs. 5,946 as Government Contribution to Primary and Secondary Education being the unspent balance of the Imperial grant of Rs. 8,000 for Education in Ajmer-Merwara, and (ii) to the recovery of amounts advanced for the purchase of salt for sale to the poorer classes in rural areas.

The increase in expenditure is due partly to heavy road repairs having to be undertaken in consequence of damage caused by heavy rain and partly to advances made for the purchase of salt. The condition of the roads under the control of the District Board leaves much to be desired and the Board has been compelled to abandon many useful roads on which large capital expenditure has been incurred owing to want of funds.

109. When the War is over, the extension of the Veterinary Department will require the serious attention of the Board. Little is now being done to educate the people in the proper treatment of horses and cattle. Although owing to frequent years of scarcity Ajmer-Merwara is not an ideal place for horse breeding much improvement might be effected in the class of animal now produced. With encouragement and advice some of the leading Istimrardars could do a great deal in this direction. The crux of the position is the difficulty of obtaining the services of qualified Veterinary Assistants. The solution seems to lie in affiliation with one of the Provinces.

110. The closing balance of the District Fund on the 31st March 1918 stood at Rs. 35,111 as compared with Rs. 46,045 on the same date in 1916-17.

111. The Board held three meetings during the year.

Dispensary Fund.

112. The cash balance at the credit of the Dispensary Fund at the beginning of the year was Rs. 1,481. The receipts during the year amounted to Rs. 11,119 against Rs. 10,745 in 1916-17 showing an increase of Rs. 374 chiefly due to the grant of Rs. 500 by the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company as the first instalment of the contribution in aid of the Victoria Hospital, Ajmer, sanctiond by them for 2 years.

The expenditure was Rs. 9,366 against Rs. 10,380 showing a decrease of Rs. 1,014 which was due to decrease in charges under heads (i) Buildings and Repairs, and (ii) Medicines.

The year closed with a cash balance of Rs. 3,234 plus invested funds amounting to Rs. 44,000.

Chowkidari fund.

113. The receipts amounted to Rs. 13,684 in 1917-18 as against Rs. 12,873 in the preceding year.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 17,262 in the year 1917-18 as against Rs. 12,317 in the year 1916-17. The increase of Rs. 4,945 is due to the investment of a sum of Rs. 5,000 in the purchase of War Bonds out of the cash balance at the credit of the Fund.

Police chanda fund.

114. The receipts were Rs. 2,272-13 as against Rs. 2,884-10 in 1916-17.

The expenditure was Rs. 2,426-4-4 as against Rs. 2,648-15-4 in 1916-17 leaving a balance in hand of Rs. 1,689-12-7.

Nasirabad Cantonment fund.

115. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 87,459 as compared with Rs. 60,760 in 1916-17, the increase of Rs. 26,699 being due to the recovery of the arrears of the preceding year and to larger income from cultivation and grazing, etc., owing to good rains. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 79,670 as against Rs. 58,339 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs. 21,331 in expenditure is accounted for by the investment of Rs. 13,000 in the Indian War loan as well as by extra expenditure incurred in connection with plague measures, repairs to roads and purchase of equipment for Hospital and Dispensaries. The closing balance at the end of the year was Rs. 29,147.

Section VI.

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

General (vide Tables at appendices Nos. 46 to 56).

116. The number of institutions maintained was seven less than in the preceding year owing to a decrease of that number in the privately managed elementary schools.

The number of pupils of both sexes decreased from 14,450 to 11,137. This decrease was entirely due to the closing of schools owing to plague and to the severe epidemic of malaria which prevailed for the greater part of the year.

The percentage of those receiving instruction to the total population was 3·55 among males and ·62 among females.

The average number on the rolls and the average daily attendance at institutions maintained by the Educational Department were 4,628·79 and 3,168·59 against 4,709·8 and 3,893·72 respectively in the year 1916-17.

The total expenditure on public instruction rose from Rs. 301,556 in 1916-17 to Rs. 344,432 during the year under report. The details of expenditure are given in Table IV (appendix 49).

Government College and Government High School, Ajmer.

117. Mr. E. F. Harris, B.A., continued to hold charge of the combined office of Principal, Government College, Ajmer, and Inspector of schools. Mr. A. Miller, M.A., continued as vice Principal of the College and Mr. H. M. C. Harris, B.A., as Head Master of the High School throughout the year. The strength of the teaching and other staff remained unaltered.

The number of pupils on the rolls of the College on the 31st March 1918 was 132 and that on the rolls of the High School 429 against 137 and 498 respectively on the same date in 1917.

The results of the various examinations are given below:—

Examination.	Presented.	Passed.
B. A. Examination	16	6
B. Sc. „	10	5
Intermediate Examination	56	35
Matriculation „	49	20
Rajputana Middle School Examination	49	29

Aided Schools.

118. The number of aided schools was 24 as in the year 1916-17.

The number of pupils enrolled at these schools on 31st March 1918 was 2,398 against 2,827 on the same date in 1917.

The Government grant paid during the year under report was R27,041 against R27,604 last year.

—	Training Schools.	High Schools.	Middle Schools.	Primary Schools.	Total.
European Schools	...	2	...	5	7
Anglo-Vernacular Boys' Schools	...	5	2	6	13
Girls' Schools	1	...	2	1	4
Total	1	7	4	12	24

119. The number on the rolls on the 31st March and the average daily attendance in the schools at Kekri and Beawar were 40 and 32·76 and 28 and 35·49 respectively against 47 and 43·5 and 98 and 94 in the year 1916-17. Municipal Schools.

The number enrolled in the two attached lower primary sections at these schools was 237 with an average attendance of 156·07.

It is a matter for regret that more interest is not shown in these institutions by the non-official Indian Members of the Municipal Committees.

120. The number of pupils on the rolls of the Normal school on the 31st March 1918 was 54 against 53 last year. Training Schools.

Of the 27 students who were sent up for the Vernacular Teachers' Certificate Examination of the United Provinces 16 passed. A training class was attached to the Christian Girls' Boarding School at Nasirabad for the purpose of training female teachers. 4 girls were sent up from this school for the United Provinces Teachers' Certificate Examination for women and all passed.

121. There was no change in the number of Government Girls' Schools which stood at 6. The number of pupils on the rolls of these schools on the 31st March 1918 was 124 as against 184 last year and the average daily attendance was 79·68 against 121·53. The large decrease in number and attendance was due to sickness prevailing in epidemic form during the year. With the exception of the Central Girls' School at Ajmer which had 39 pupils with 3 teachers all the other schools are elementary with one teacher in each. The difficulty of procuring trained mistresses for these schools still continues. It is hoped, however, that with the better terms which an increased Government grant-in-aid will render possible better qualified teachers will be procurable. Girls' Schools.

In addition to the six Government Schools there were three aided and one un-aided schools and 25 private schools under private management with 283·77 and 766 pupils on the rolls on 31st March 1918.

Two of these aided schools, viz. the Methodist Episcopal Mission Girls' Boarding School at Ajmer and the Christian Girls' Boarding School at Nasirabad teach up to the Anglo-vernacular Middle Standard and send up candidates for the United Provinces Examination. Seven girls from the Nasirabad Girls' Schools and 2 girls from the M.E. Mission Girls' School, Ajmer, were sent up for this examination and four of them passed. One girl from the Nasirabad Girls' School also appeared at the Rajputana Middle Anglo-vernacular Middle Examination and passed.

122. The number of Government and District Board Vernacular Schools for boys was 88, the same as last year. Of these 10 were secondary and 78 primary. Government and District Board Vernacular Schools for Boys.

The daily average number on rolls and the daily average attendance was 3,819 and 2,525 against 3,878 and 3,139 in the year 1916-17.

Fifty-two students from the Government and District Board Secondary Schools appeared at the Vernacular Final Examination of the United Provinces 45 of whom passed.

123. The annual Rajputana Middle School Examination was as usual conducted at Ajmer by the Inspector of Schools. The total number of examinees was 337 (320 from 29 Schools in Ajmer-Merwara and Rajputana and 17 private candidates against 357 (341 from 31 Schools and 16 private candidates) in the previous year. The number of students who passed was 116 against 155 last year. Rajputana Middle School Examination.

The four Government Scholarships of Rs. 5 each were earned and drawn during the year under report by pupils of the Government High School, Ajmer.

SECTION VII.

GENERAL MISCELLANEOUS.

Pushkar Fair.

124. The annual religious fair at Pushkar was held between the 24th and the 29th November 1917. Owing to the prevalence of plague in the city and the restriction on railway traffic the number of pilgrims attending the fair was very small, about 5,000 being present on the last day as compared with 70,000 in 1916. The arrangements for the fair and for the collection of the capitation fee on the sale of animals which were placed as usual in the hands of a committee were carried out efficiently. No serious crime occurred during the fair although the Horse Show and the Cattle Fair and the Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition were abandoned.

About 4,000 cattle were brought to Pushkar of which 2,542 to the value of Rs. 1,18,371 were sold and a sum of Rs. 1,633 was realised as capitation fees.

Urs Fair.

125. The annual Urs Fair in connection with the shrine of the Dargah Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti at Ajmer was held from the 24th to 29th April 1917. Owing to the prevalence of plague in the city and the restriction on railway traffic the number of pilgrims attending the fair was very small, about 2,000 only being present as compared with 60,000 in 1916. The usual police arrangements were made and no serious crime occurred nor did any disturbance take place.

Beawar and Kekri Tejaji Fairs.

126. The annual Tejaji Fair was not held either at Beawar or Kekri during the year 1917 owing to the prevalence of plague.

Printing Presses (vide statement No. 57).

127. There are now 15 Printing Presses, one new Printing Press named St. Anslem's Press having been opened during the year.

In addition to the three newspapers and five periodicals which were being published at the beginning of the year 1917 three more periodicals were started during the year.

Thirteen books in English, five in Sanskrit, 35 in Hindi, three in Urdu and four in English, Urdu and Hindi were printed during the year.

Bhumias Darbar.

128. The District Magistrate, Ajmer-Merwara, collected the usual Nazrana from Bhumias on the 4th June 1917, the day fixed for the observance of the birthday of His Majesty the King-Emperor. No official ceremony was observed.

Out of the total demand amounting to Rs. 3,961 on account of Nazrana, a sum of Rs. 3,741 was realized, leaving a balance of Rs. 220 outstanding.

Notes.—Column 2.—Total of the entries in columns 3 to 13. Cases transferred from one Court to another in the same Province will appear only against the Court by which decided, or in which pending at the close of the year, if not decided. The number of cases pending from the preceding year should be noted in the column of remarks, and when deducted from the total of column 2 should leave a balance corresponding with the total of column 38 of Statement VII. If after deducting the arrears shown at the end of the previous year, the balance does not agree with the figures in column 38 of Statement VII, the difference should be explained.

Column 6.—When under section 102, C. P. C., a decree is wholly or partially made in favour of an absent plaintiff on the admission of the defendant, the case should be entered in this column.

Column 8.—A case in which defendant appears, but a plaintiff does not, and defendant does not confess judgment and the case is thereupon dismissed, the case should be entered in this column.

Columns 15 and 16.—As regards the average duration of suits, the date of their presentation of the plaint shall be considered as the date of institution, unless some defect or omission requires to be amended before the plaint can be admitted, in which case the date of admission after amendment shall be regarded as the date of institution. With regard to applications to execute decrees, the date of their presentation should alone be considered. In calculating average duration, the time that the suit has been actually pending in the particular Court should alone be calculated. The interval should be omitted during which an application for review which has been granted, or an appeal in which an order of remand has been passed, been pending in the superior Court. Revived suits are to be treated as if newly instituted on revival.

FROM

THE HON'BLE MR. R. E. HOLLAND, C.I.E., I.C.S.,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Dated Mt. Abu, the 9th February 1920.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report of Ajmer-Merwara for the year 1918-19 compiled by the then Commissioner, Lieut.-Col. S. B. A. Patterson, I.A., with my remarks thereon, embodied in Part I of the Report.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

R. E. HOLLAND,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

PART I.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

1. The main factors in the economic history of the year under review were the failure of the monsoon, the outbreak of the Influenza epidemic and the continuance of high prices owing to the War conditions.

2. The rainfall was less than 18 per cent of the normal. Only 2 test works were, however, found necessary and but little gratuitous relief was distributed. It is satisfactory to note that although prices were far higher than during the famine of 1899-1900 the district showed a greater power of resistance to scarcity conditions than in that year. This is attributed partly to the monetary assistance given to their families by the large number of men who were either still in military service or had recently been demobilised. A more valid reason is probably to be found in the general rise in wages which has taken place during the last twenty years. The measures taken to relieve the scarcity of fodder were successful. The Forests were thrown open to grazing, and grass was imported by Government and sold at cheap rates. Freight concessions on railways were also given to private importers.

3. Figures are not available to show the mortality caused by the Influenza epidemic throughout the district, but some indication of the nature of the outbreak is given by the death rate of 79·33 per mille for Ajmer Municipality, where there was also a fall in the birth rate. Though the mortality in Ajmer City owing to its insanitary condition was probably heavier than in the villages, the toll taken of the total district population must have been enormous. A drainage scheme for Ajmer municipality is now under consideration and funds have been allotted for the purpose of preparing it.

4. The continuance of high prices due to war conditions and prevailing scarcity proved a stimulus both to trade and crime. The stimulus to trade was reflected in a general rise in the Octroi receipts of Municipalities and in the incidence of taxation. The increase in the number of reported crimes against property may be ascribed to the same causes.

5. In such conditions a fall in revenue and a rise in expenditure were only to be expected. From a financial point of view, however, the situation was saved by largely increased receipts under the heads of Excise and Stamps, and in consequence the Imperial Revenue surplus was actually larger than that for the previous year. Such a surplus so far as it reflects tendencies to increasing intemperance and litigation cannot be regarded with much satisfaction hy the administrator. A closer examination however affords reason to think that these tendencies are only temporary. The rise in the revenue from the sale of country liquor is accounted for partly by a small increase in still head duty and partly by the failure, for various reasons, of the shops in the neighbouring Indian States to compete with those in the district. The belief in the prophylactic properties of spirits also led to their more general consumption during the Influenza epidemic. The increase in litigation also is mainly due to a special class of cases instituted at Beawar. With the disappearance of these ephemeral causes an approach to normal figures may be anticipated.

6. In such a year the administration had serious difficulties to encounter and the influence of the economic factors already mentioned is traceable in every sphere of its activities. The police administration was handicapped in having to deal with an increased volume of reported crime at a time when the force was seriously depleted in number. The maintenance of the sanctioned strength is a problem which requires early consideration. The Court of Wards was faced with the same difficulties as the general revenue administration and there was a considerable deficit in consequence on the year's working; while the relative costs of managements rose to an unprecedented figure.

There was a welcome diminution in the average duration of criminal cases as compared with that of the previous year which reflects credit on the courts concerned. The same cannot be said in regard to civil suits in which the duration was much the same as before while the duration in appeals was more protracted than ever. This is no doubt an unsatisfactory feature which requires correction, but the consequent hardship to a people who largely regard litigation as a pastime can easily be exaggerated. Education and the co-operative movement maintained a slow but healthy progress. Particular mention must be made of the district's fine record for recruitment during the war. The enrolments of Mers and Merats as noticed in the last paragraph of the Report are believed to constitute a class record for all India.

1. The office of Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, was held by Mr. L. W. Reynolds, C.I.E., M.C., I.C.S., from 1st April to 31st October 1918 and by Lieutenant-Colonel S. B. A. Patterson, I.A., from 1st November to the end of the year.

The appointment of Additional District and Sessions Judge was held by Diwan Bahadur Munshi Damodar Lal, I.S.O., throughout the year.

The post of Assistant Commissioner was held by Mr. H. C. Greenfield, I.C.S., up to 21st April 1918 when he was succeeded by Mr. E. C. Gibson, I.C.S.

There was no change in the appointments of Extra Assistant Commissioners, Merwara and Ajmer, and Sub-Divisional Officer, Kekri, which were held respectively by Rai Bahadur Pandit Brij Jiwan Lal, Rai Sahib Munshi Shankar Lal and Munshi Maharaj Swarup.

The office of the Civil Surgeon, Ajmer, was held by Lieutenant-Colonel R. C. Macwatt, C.I.E., I.M.S., from 1st April to 11th June 1918 and thereafter by Lieutenant-Colonel P. B. Haig, C.B., I.M.S.

The post of Superintendent of Police was held by Mr. S. R. Mayers up to 22nd April 1918 and by Mr. G. R. Higginson from 23rd April 1918 to the end of the year.

Revenue and Expenditure (vide Statement No. 42.)

2. The total revenue (Imperial and Local) of Ajmer-Merwara for the year amounted to Rs. 22,16,961 as compared with Rs. 19,15,246 last year.

The total expenditure was Rs. 18,72,138 as against Rs. 16,92,983.

Imperial revenue rose from Rs. 13,27,919 in the year 1917-18 to Rs. 14,57,067 in the year under report and the expenditure from Rs. 11,40,871 to Rs. 12,14,064.

There was a surplus of Rs. 2,43,003 in the Imperial revenue in 1918-19 as compared with Rs. 1,87,048 in the preceding year.

The excess was principally due to variations in revenue and expenditure under the following heads:—

Receipts.

1. Land Revenue	—Rs. 76,998
2. Stamps	+Rs. 63,407
3. Excise	+Rs. 1,41,764
4. Assessed Taxes	—Rs. 24,959
5. Interest	—Rs. 17,116
6. Customs	+Rs. 46,320

Expenditure.

1. Land Revenue	+ Rs. 14,241
2. Interest	+ Rs. 17,262
3. Education	+ Rs. 20,454
4. Ecclesiastical	— Rs. 10,083
5. Jails	+ Rs. 12,346

Variations in receipts are explained as below :—

The decrease in receipts under the head "Land Revenue" was due to scarcity.

The increase in receipts under head "Stamps" is chiefly attributed to litigation in Sauda cases of Gur at Beawar.

The increase in receipts under the head "Excise" was due to larger consumption of country spirits for the reasons given in sub-section 2 of section V of this report.

The decrease in receipts under the head "Assessed Taxes" is due to the time spent in the assessment according to revised Act and rules which resulted in large sums remaining in arrears to be recovered in the next year.

The decrease in receipts under head "Interest" is mainly due to scarcity in the district.

The increase in receipts under head "Customs" is due to larger outturn of cloth from the mills at Beawar.

Variations in expenditure are explained as below :—

The increase in the expenditure under head "Land Revenue" is due to the payment of war allowances.

The increase in the expenditure under head "Interest" is due to larger payments of interest due on Government loans.

The increase in the expenditure under head "Education" is due to special additional grant of Rs. 12,000 in the year under report.

The decrease in the expenditure under head "Ecclesiastical" is due to the post of Chaplain remaining vacant for about 9 months.

The increase in the expenditure under head "Jails" is due to payment of war allowance and to the increase of prices of all articles of consumption.

SECTION II.

The large amount of outstanding was due to the exceptionally bad year. Most of these arrears will be recovered during the ensuing year.

	Rs.

Liabilities.

6. The liabilities of the estates under management at the end of the year aggregated Rs. 6,10,072-8-2 as below :—

The Government jama and cesses due for the current year by the several estates except Pranhera and Rajosi were paid as also the dami and takavi instalments, except the dami instalments due by the Pranhera and Kanai Kalan estates. The estates of Pranhera and Rajosi were particularly hard hit by the adverse agricultural conditions which prevailed.

Cost of management.—7. The cost of management amounted to Rs. 40,140 or 13·87 per cent. of the year's ordinary receipts against 9·37 per cent. in the last year. The increase in the percentage of cost was chiefly due to the decrease in the receipts owing to the bad year.

Education of the Wards.—8. The wards named in the margin continued their studies throughout the year at the Mayo College. Raja Raj Singh of Rajgarh left the College in July 1919 on passing his Diploma examination and will be associated with the kamdar in the management of his estate until it is made over in June 1921, when he will attain his majority Kunwar Ganpat Singh of Kharwa completed his course of training at Sitapur, and was appointed Manager of the Kharwa estate in April 1919.

1. Thakur Rameshwar Singh of Bandanwara.
2. Thakur Madho Singh of Sadara.

Mutation cases.

9. In the Ajmer Tahsil 4,767 cases were instituted during the year and 1,319 were pending of the previous year. Thus the total number of cases was 6,086 of which 5,604 were disposed of, leaving 482 pending at the close of the year.

In Merwara 4,231 cases were instituted all of which were disposed of.

Land Alienation Regulation.

10. During the year 152 applications for permission to sell land under the provisions of the Ajmer Alienation of Land Regulation (III of 1914) were received, of these 105 were granted and 47 rejected. The majority of the former involved transfers of land from one mahajan to another or from one cultivator to another ; while of the remaining cases ten related to land within Municipal limits and one to land acquired for public purposes. Two decrees were transferred to the Collector under section 16 of the Regulation, in one of which the decree-holder was put in possession of the land for 20 years and in another for six years. Out of the cases referred to him under section 8 (3), the Collector ordered the rejection of one for default and in another the decree-holder was declared to be considered as an usufructuary mortgagee. The villagers have commenced to realize the advantage of this enactment and it is believed that in the course of time the number of permanent transfers of land will be considerably reduced, although there is still reason to believe that the provisions of the Regulation are being evaded, especially in Merwara, and that cases occur of land being transferred by one mortgagee or sold and possession delivered, the transaction being recorded in the purchaser's bahi only.

SECTION III.

PROTECTION.

(1) AJMER-MERWARA POLICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1918.) Vide statements Nos. 4 to 10.

[Compiled by H. G. Richardson, Esq., Inspector General of Police, Ajmer-Merwara.]

Crime statistics.

11. The total volume of reported crime excluding false cases and including true cases reported to magistrates was 3011, an increase of 365 or 12 per cent on the figures for 1917. The increase falls largely under the head of Public Nuisances. Incidence of crime, per 10,000 of population, amounted to nearly 60, compared with 51 last year. These figures are excluding cases under local laws.

Investigations.

12. Investigation was made in 92 per cent of cases reported, compared with 94 per cent in 1917. 56 Police cases were struck off as being false or as due to mistakes of fact, etc., compared with 71 the year before.

Ten cases were investigated by the Deputy Superintendent of Police and inquiries in all the more important cases were supervised by the Superintendent of Police.

14. One case of poisoning was reported during 1918 which remained untraced.

Dakaiti.

15. Six cases of dakaiti occurred compared with 3 in 1917. Five of these cases occurred on roads leading from Kekri and were believed to be the work of wandering Sansis. In the 6th case members of the notorious Bhur Singh's gang were concerned. The latter case will probably form part of the evidence against the gang in a criminal conspiracy case which is being instituted in Jodhpur. The remaining cases were untraced.

Robbery.

16. 16 true cases of robbery were for disposal, compared with 6 in 1917. Three cases ended in conviction and 2 were pending at the close of the year. The rest remained untraced.

Burglary.

17. The number of true cases for disposal was 475 as compared with 437 in 1917. Of the former 65 were convicted and 34 acquitted while 14 remained pending at the close of the year. The percentage of cases convicted to reported was 14 as compared with 20 in 1917.

Theft.

18. The total number of true cases for disposal in 1918 was 373 compared with 361 in the previous year. Out of 149 cases sent up for trial 140 cases involving 163 persons resulted in conviction as compared with 112 cases and 139 persons in 1917.

Cattle theft.

19. Eighteen true cases were disposed of resulting in 3 convictions. In 4 cases also persons were convicted of receiving stolen cattle.

In 1917 the number of true cases amounted to 53 with 14 convictions under original sections and 2 for receiving stolen cattle.

Criminal Tribes.

20. The year opened with 267 persons registered under the Act, and closed with 253.

The names of 50 persons were added and 64 were expunged. There were three prosecutions under section 22 of the Criminal Tribes Act.

Surveillance.

21. Thirty-three persons were prosecuted under the preventive sections of the Criminal Procedure Code as compared with 30 in 1917.

The six cases registered under section 110 were all successful. Out of 27 cases under section 109, 23 were successful the remaining four being withdrawn for various reasons.

There were 318 history sheets in existence at the close of 1917. 33 were opened in 1918 and 138 closed while 36 emigrated or died. Thus the total number of history sheets maintained at the close of 1918 was 177.

These men are all kept under surveillance and accordingly fall within classes I and II of the new rules for surveillance. Seventeen of these persons were reconvicted during the year.

Thirty-one persons were lost sight of and are shown as untraced.

The new rules for surveillance of bad characters have now been introduced throughout the district and should result in more real and effective surveillance of bad characters.

Strength and cost.

22. The total allocation including private guards is 40 officers and 908 men while the actual strength at the close of 1918 was 40 officers and 727 men. Vacancies have thus increased as compared with last year's figures which were 110 at close of the year. Resignations have been more frequent.

23. One officer and 5 men were punished judicially during the year as compared with 4 men in 1917. One officer and eleven men were departmentally punished in 1918 compared with 13 men in 1917.

437 officers and men received a total amount of Rs. 4,217-14-2 in rewards as against 367 men who earned Rs. 2,561-4-4 in 1917.

Armed and Mounted Police Branches.

23. The armed and civil police have been amalgamated and a new scheme of training has been introduced. The sanctioned strength of the mounted police is 2 head constables and 29 constables. The actual strength at the close of the year was 2 head constables and 25 constables. Seven camels were purchased during the year to replace 4 horses and 3 camels which were either cast or died.

(3) CIVIL JUSTICE (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1918).

Vide Statements Nos. 17 to 25.

28. The total number of courts during the year was 30.

The total number of suits (including miscellaneous) was 9,905, against 9,096 in the year 1917, showing an increase of 809.

29-A. The total number of appeals and miscellaneous Civil applications dealt with by the Chief Commissioner was 152. Details are given in statement No. 10-A (Civil).

(4)—REGISTRATION (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST DECEMBER 1918). Vide Statement No. 26.

30. There was an increase in the number of documents registered during the year and a consequent increase in the income. This was chiefly due to scarcity and the prevalence of high prices owing to the war. The increase in the area of agricultural land transferred by mortgage was considerable and is attributable to the same causes. The work of the Registration offices throughout the district was generally satisfactory.

(5) MUNICIPALITIES (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST MARCH 1919). Vide Statements Nos. 27 to 30. Ajmer Municipality Population 86,273.

31. During the year under report, the constitution of the Ajmer municipal committee remained unchanged. The committee was composed of 23 members—6 nominated and 17 elected—and contained 8 Europeans and 15 Indians.

During the year 6 special and 17 ordinary meetings were held, the average attendance at each meeting being 15·83 and 15·58 respectively.

32. The total income of the year was Rs. 3,80,997 as against Rs. 2,86,693 in 1917-18. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 3,18,301 as against Rs. 2,66,798 in the previous year. The closing balance was Rs. 1,05,525.

Exclusive of refunds the income and expenditure show an increase of Rs. 72,787 and Rs. 29,986 respectively when compared with the figures of the preceding year.

The increase in receipts is attributable to abnormal collection of octroi owing to high prices prevailing in consequence of the war.

33. The gross and net receipts from octroi in the two years are shown below:—

	Gross. Rs.	Net. Rs.
1917-18	1,79,153	1,41,806
1918-19	2,62,344	2,03,480
Difference	+83,191	+61,674

The increase of Rs. 83,191 in gross receipts has occurred chiefly under the items "Sugar", "Other articles of food" and "Piece-goods, viz., Cloth, etc."

34. The increase in expenditure amounting to Rs. 51,503 occurs chiefly under the heads "Refunds," "Conservancy" and "Other items." The increased exports of cloth, sugar and other articles of food account for an increase under the head "Refunds." The increase under the other two heads is due to high rates prevailing for articles required for the conservancy department, Victory celebrations and to the grant of war allowances. No other item of expenditure calls for any special remark.

35. A sum of Rs. 19,008 was paid during the year towards the liquidation of Government loans, the balance of which due by the municipality at the end of the year amounted to Rs. 5,09,586.

36. The incidence of taxation was Rs. 2-5-9 per head of the population against Rs. 1-10-3 in the preceding year.

37. The management of the Ajmer water works remained in the hands of the Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Ajmer Division.

38. The total rainfall recorded at the different registering stations during the year was as follows :—

(1)	Foy Sagar	6·75
(2)	Municipal Water Works godown	3·66
(3)	Catchment area of the Foy Sagar	6·08
and (4)	Bhaonta Water Works	8·96

At the Foy Sagar and Budha Pushkar lakes the water levels were respectively 22·12 and 2·62 (overfloor) at the commencement and 10·46 and 0·01 (below floor) at the close of the year. The water level of the Bhaonta well No. 5 on the 1st April 1918 was 100·34 while on the 31st March 1919 it was 97·25.

Water was pumped from the Foy Sagar throughout the year except the first 10 days of April 1918.

39. In October 1918 influenza broke out in an epidemic form and continued for some weeks. The daily death rate from this disease was greater than that from plague which visited Ajmer in 1917. Arrangements were made for the supply of medicines at the houses of sufferers by means of a travelling dispensary. Milk was also supplied free to those who could not afford to purchase the same.

40. A cheap grain shop for the poorer classes was opened in October 1918 and continued till the close of the year.

41 The number of births recorded was 1,719 and of deaths 6,840 as against 2,002 and 8,979 in the previous year.

The birth and death rates per mille of population were 19·94 and 79·33 against 23·22 and 104·14 respectively in the preceding year.

The mortality among children under five years of age was 2,082 (30 per cent. of the total mortality) against 2,609 in the previous year.

42. The total number of vaccinations performed was 3,949 against 3,821 in the previous year.

43. The sanitary condition of the city is most unsatisfactory and it is noted with regret that no effective measures have yet been taken by the committee to improve matters. The Civil Surgeon, Ajmer, points out that the brit system is very defective and that until it is abolished and the sweepers are brought directly under municipal control and their work organized and supervised, no improvement can be expected. This question has already been duly considered and it was found impracticable to abolish the brit system. In the new Ajmer-Merwara Municipalities Regulation, a revised draft of which has recently been submitted to the Local Government and which is expected to be passed and brought into effect shortly, a provision has been made so as to give to municipal committees some controlling power over brit sweepers. It is hoped that an improvement will then be effected.

44. No action appears to have yet been taken by the committee towards the introduction of a surface drainage scheme and the imposition of a conservancy tax—which are matters to which their attention has been invited.

45. Much improvement could be effected if the sweepers' staff were strengthened, the conservancy carts properly repaired and renewed, their number increased and regular and efficient supervision exercised over their working.

46. The Committee held 7 special and 10 ordinary meetings.

47. The total income and expenditure for the year amounted respectively to Rs. 1,31,996 and Rs. 1,16,883 as against Rs. 86,703 and Rs. 85,148 in the preceding year. The closing balance was Rs. 33,059 exclusive of Rs. 25,999 invested in Government securities.

The income shows an increase of Rs. 45,293 as compared with the last year. This is largely due to the increased "Octroi" receipts and which in themselves were due to the abnormal rise in prices caused by the war.

The increase in expenditure amounting to Rs. 31,735 is mainly under the head "Refunds" and is due partly to larger gross receipts from octroi and partly to the payment of the arrears of last year's refunds which could not be paid punctually for want of funds. The other heads under which there has been an appreciable increase in expenditure are "Water supply," "Conservancy," "Public Works" and "Pensions and Gratuities."

48. The incidence of octroi taxation per head of population was Rs. 3-7-1 as against Rs. 2-10-1 in the year 1917-18.

49. The management of the Beawar water works remained in the hands of the Edward Mills Company, Limited, Beawar. Despite the failure of monsoon, there was ample supply of water in the Jalia wells. In the course of the year water was supplied to the town to the extent of 1·96 gallons per head of population per day at a cost of Rs. 9,411.

50. The numbers of births and deaths registered during the year were respectively 637 and 2,103 as against 726 and 3,152 in 1917-18. The high figure of mortality is due to influenza, which visited the district in an epidemic form.

51. The accounts for the year 1917-18 were audited by the Local Fund Audit Department of the United Provinces during the year.

52. Mr. W. T. Robinson, Secretary and Engineer of the Municipal Committee, Beawar, died during the year. In recognition of his long and valuable services, a compassionate gratuity of Rs. 1,500 was granted to his widow by the committee.

53. The only change in the constitution of the committee was by the appointment of Sah Ram Baksh in place of Kamdar Kishen Singh deceased.

Kekri Municipality. Population 5,926.

54. The committee held 3 ordinary and 3 special meetings during the year.

55. The total income and expenditure amounted to Rs. 15,410 and Rs. 16,060 against Rs. 18,412 and Rs. 16,927 respectively in the preceding year. The decrease in income was due to a falling off in the octroi receipts owing partly to the decreased import of Ghi and Gur which was due to large stocks of these articles remaining in hand from the previous year and partly to the restricted produce and consequently restricted import of Zira, and Kappas. The decrease in expenditure is due to decreased expenditure on buildings and to no arrears of pension and gratuities remaining to be paid; also to small expenditure on lighting charges which was due to the difficulty in getting the requisite supply of kerosine oil.

56. The incidence of octroi taxation per head of population was Re. 1-12-8 as against Rs. 2-4-1 in the year 1917-18.

57. The number of births and deaths recorded during the year was 104 and 374 against 79 and 876, respectively, in the preceding year. The decrease in the rate of mortality is accounted for by the diminishing severity of plague.

58. The balance at the credit of the municipality at the close of the year was Rs. 26,242* against Rs. 26,893 in the preceding year.

*Including Promissory Notes to the value of Rs. 2,000, Rs. 9,000 in War Loan and Rs. 5,000 in deposit with the Kekri Central Bank.

(6)—Medical (year ending the 31st December 1918).

59. The number of dispensaries in Ajmer-Merwara district rose from 6 to 7 during the year under report the new one being opened at Masuda; The total number of indoor and outdoor patients treated at these dispensaries was 72,208 against 80,363 in the preceding year. There were 3,751 surgical operations of all kinds performed in these dispensaries of which 1,196 were performed at the Victoria Hospital, Ajmer. The total income of these dispensaries in the Ajmer-Merwara district amounted to Rs. 30,160 as against Rs. 24,156 last year. The increase is mainly due to a contribution of Rs. 1,040 by the District Board for the Todgarh dispensary building and to the interest on the investment of Rs. 20,000 contributed by the Masuda estate towards maintenance of the new dispensary opened there. The total expenditure amounted to Rs. 28,247 as against Rs. 22,377 in the previous year, the increase being due to enhanced prices of medicines and other articles. The invested capital of the dispensaries rose from Rs. 8,500 to 28,500 owing to the investment on behalf of the Masuda dispensary.

Mines.

64. The mica mining industry which was stimulated by the war continued to flourish. Seven new applicants were approved as candidates to prospect and mine for minerals in addition to eight whose certificates of approval were renewed. The old 'Mica and Mineral Company' which was the one principally concerned with this industry and which went into voluntary liquidation on account of the death of its director, the late Mr. G. F. Guy, was replaced by the Rajputana Minerals Syndicate, Limited, Bombay.' This syndicate obtained by transfer the important concessions which formerly belonged to the old company. Another mining syndicate, a local concern, was also formed towards the end of the year.

65. Thirteen new prospecting licenses were granted and eleven from the previous year were renewed. Out of these 18 are for mica, two for graphite, one for haemetite, one for soapstone, one for tale and one for garnet. Eight new mining leases, five for mica, two for graphite and one for ilmenite extending over periods of from three to fifteen years were issued in khalsa villages and two new mining leases for mica were issued in Baghera and Basundni estates. In all about 85 tons of mica were exported by rail and a sum of Rs. 3,956-13-0 was realised as Government dues in the shape of rent, royalty or fees.

66. The copper and iron pyrites license granted last year to Mr. T. R. Kantharia was not worked. The concessions for graphite, haemetite and soapstone brought in little return.

Trade

67. The returns of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Metre Gauge show an increase in the number of passengers booked from stations in Ajmer-Merwara from 1,058,008 in the year 1917-18 to 1,295,508 in the year 1918-19.

68. The grain traffic of the two most important local trade centres for the year under report and the previous year is given below :—

Ajmer—

Exports	4,169	567
Balance in favour of imports	2,426	8,183

69. Imports of cotton at Beawar were 4,320 tons during the year under report as compared with 4,570 tons in 1917-18 and exports of raw cotton were 2,754 tons as against 5,529 tons in 1917-18.

Public works.

70. During the year under review the total expenditure incurred on public works exclusive of irrigation works (canals and railways) amounted to Rs. 2,65,932, of which Rs. 2,52,818 were spent on works within the jurisdiction of the Commissioner, as against Rs. 2,65,853 in 1917-18.

71. The principal projects on which expenditure was incurred during the year were :—

1. Construction of a boarding house at the Normal School, Ajmer.
2. Construction of a new Government High School at Ajmer.
3. The addition of two rooms to the Normal School at Ajmer.
4. Construction of a boarding house for the Secondary Vernacular School at Bhim.
5. Provision of wing walls to bridges and culverts of Nasirabad Mangaliawas road.

72. The revenue credited to Imperial civil works during 1918-19 on account of Ajmer-Merwara was Rs. 10,697 including Rs. 1,005, Rs. 90 and Rs. 676 on account of rent realized from the Agency House, Deoli, the Agency Surgeon's bungalow, Deoli, and the Cantonment Magistrate's bungalow, Nasirabad, respectively.

Arboriculture
Roadside tree plantation.

73. During the year 6 miles, 5 furlongs of avenues were planted. Of these 2 miles were on the District Fund and the remainder on Imperial roads. The total length of roads planted or under plantation on the 1st April 1919 was 104 miles 6¾ furlongs.

74. 1,824 trees were planted during the year and 1,263 died. The high percentage of failures was due mainly to failure of rains and consequent drought and difficulty in procuring water. The total cost of maintenance both on Imperial and District Fund roads amounted to Rs. 5,660 * as against Rs. 4,771 in the previous year.

	Rs.
* District Fund roads	2,431
Imperial ,, ,,	3,229
Total	5,660

75. 1,230 cattle were impounded for illicit grazing on the Imperial and District Fund roads against 1,007 in the year 1917-18. The increase is due to more energetic action on the part of the Forest department and to the scarcity of fodder in the district.

76. The income derived from the sale of dry wood and babul pods, etc, amounted to Rs. 997 as against Rs. 845 in the previous year.

Inspection of rain gauges.

77. The number of rain gauges maintained in Ajmer-Merwara remained unchanged, i.e., 83 as in the previous year. Of these 80 were inspected by the Civil and Public Works departments or Police officers and were found in good order.

Co-operative Societies (year ending the 30th June 1919).

78. The office of the Registrar was held by M. Jai Gopal throughout the year. The charges on account of the Registrar's administrative staff amounted to Rs. 11,947 against Rs. 11,922 in the preceding year.

79. From an agricultural point of view, the year was a bad one. Owing to deficient rainfall both the kharif and rabi crops failed and sowings were restricted to irrigated areas. The influenza epidemic in the months of October and November 1918 was severe and caused much distress to the cultivators. There was great scarcity of fodder, especially in Merwara. The timely help extended by Government by providing grass to cultivators at cheap rates on the taccavi system was of the greatest value. Very many head of cattle were thus saved and agriculturists kept in a position to benefit by the good rains of 1919.

80. The number of central banks remained the same as last year, viz., 4, and a Union Bank of Sale and Supply Societies was started at Beawar. The banks of Beawar, Nasirabad and Kekri adopted the new bye-laws prepared on the Punjab lines and their character has become more co-operative. The Ajmer central bank will, it is hoped, take similar measures shortly. The members of these 5 central societies consisted of 792 individuals and 328 societies against 749 and 316 respectively in the preceding year. The number of agricultural societies rose from 362 to 383 but that of their members fell from 12,595 to 12,080 owing to the removal of undesirable characters from the societies. Nine new non-agricultural societies with 3,453 members were started.

81. The working capital of the central and agricultural societies amounted to Rs. 14,95,806 and Rs. 17,16,555 respectively against Rs. 12,57,908 and Rs. 14,36,424 last year. The working capital of the non-agricultural societies amounted to Rs. 2,12,023. Thus the total working capital of all the societies amounted to Rs. 34,24,384 as compared with Rs. 26,94,332, showing an increase of Rs. 7,30,052. These figures include Rs. 11,85,978 received by primary societies from central banks against Rs. 10,20,792 last year. After deducting this amount the net working capital of all kinds of societies is Rs. 22,38,406 against Rs. 16,73,540. To the capital of the central banks, viz., Rs. 14,92,216, the Ajmer central bank contributed Rs. 9,08,508 against Rs. 7,85,692 in the preceding year; the Beawar central bank Rs. 4,63,481 against Rs. 3,77,840; the Nasirabad central bank Rs. 73,782 against Rs. 63,727; and the Kekri central bank Rs. 46,445 against Rs. 30,649. The working capital of the Beawar Union Bank of Sale and Supply Societies amounted to Rs. 3,590.

Ajmer Central Bank, Limited.

82. The number of members of the bank was 417 individuals against 415, while that of the rural societies was the same as last year, viz., 172. The share capital remained the same, viz., Rs. 1,00,000. Loans, deposits and reserve fund amounted to Rs. 8,08,508 including Rs. 10,535 for building fund. Thus the total working capital amounted to Rs. 9,08,508. The bank advanced Rs. 30,127 to individuals and Rs. 3,41,979 to societies.

Including the balance of the last year's loans amounting to Rs. 16,76,310 the total of loans issued come to Rs. 10,48,416; of this a sum of Rs. 3,03,441 was recovered during the year, leaving a balance of Rs. 7,44,975 as recoverable on the 30th June 1919.

The bank started during the year a Provident Deposit Fund, which 211 persons have joined. The monthly deposits aggregate Rs. 760.

Beawar Central Bank, Limited.

83. The number of individual members rose from 221 to 240, while that of the societies remained the same, viz., 129. The share capital remained at Rs. 1,00,000 while loans, deposits and reserve fund amounted to Rs. 3,63,481. The total working capital thus amounted to Rs. 4,63,481.

The last year's outstanding balance of loans amounted to Rs. 3,53,859 while the amount advanced during the year under report was Rs. 1,39,406, thus making a total demand of Rs. 4,93,265. The amount realized was Rs. 63,607 leaving an outstanding balance of Rs 4,29,658 at the close of the year. The Government loan has been reduced by Rs. 2,500.

Nasirabad Central Bank, Limited.

84. The working capital rose from Rs. 63,727 to Rs. 73,782 consisting of a share capital of Rs. 25,000 and of loans, deposits and reserve fund to the value of Rs. 48,782. The last year's balance of loans was Rs. 57,921 and a sum of Rs. 35,400 was advanced during the current year. Thus the total amount recoverable was Rs. 93,321, of which a sum of Rs. 30,146 was realized, leaving an outstanding balance of Rs. 63,175 at the close of the year.

Kekri Central Bank, Limited.

85. The working capital was Rs. 46,445 consisting of a share capital of Rs. 12,350 and of loans, deposits and reserve fund aggregating Rs. 34,095. The total amount of loans recoverable was Rs. 55,194, i.e., Rs. 27,379 on account of the preceding year's balance and Rs. 27,815 advanced during the year. The amount collected was Rs. 9,037 leaving an outstanding balance of Rs. 46,157 on the 30th June 1919.

86. The net profits of all the central societies amounted to Rs. 51,757 against Rs. 44,852 last year. The amount of the reserve fund was Rs. 59,681 against Rs. 36,606.

87. Mr. Calvert, I.C.S., Registrar, Co-operative Societies in the Punjab, visited Ajmer and Beawar in March 1919. His assistance and criticisms were of the greatest benefit and it is hoped that he will come again this cold weather and that he will see substantial improvements carried out on the lines indicated by him. Though hostility is shown to the co-operative movement by village money lenders, it is making good headway and will, I am certain, continue to do so under the sound management of Mr. Jai Gopal. The non-official public are showing increasing interest and many are assisting in every way in their power.

Scarcity of fodder and famine relief measures.

88. Owing to the failure of the monsoon there was great scarcity of fodder throughout the district and especially in Merwara. Government forests were thrown open to grazing and steps were taken to import grass on Government account from the military depôts near Khandwa for distribution to cultivators on takavi system. Concessions in Railway freight were also sanctioned to private importers.

89. The total quantity of grass imported by Government amounted to 84,154 maunds at a cost of Rs. 1,66,425. It was distributed to cultivators from the four depôts established for the purpose at Beawar, Mangliawas, Madar and Nasirabad under the supervision of the Extra Assistant Conservator of Forests. The price charged to cultivators was at 35 seers per rupee. The importation and concession rates were greatly appreciated by the cultivators and saved the lives of many heads of cattle.

90. Famine conditions were carefully watched and gratuitous relief was sanctioned in Merwara and Ajmer sub-divisions in January 1919. In the Kekri sub-division the conditions were better and such relief was not considered necessary. The district remained under observation and the existence of scarcity in the Merwara sub-division was formally declared with effect from the 1st March 1919 and a test work was started on the Rupnagar tank in the Todgarh Tahsil early in March 1919. This work and other similar work opened on the Lotiana tank in the Beawar Tahsil in May 1919 continued till the first week of August 1919. A test work of metal collection on the Nasirabad Deoli road in the Kekri sub-division was opened on the 1st April 1919 but attracted no labourers and had to be closed. No relief works were opened in the Ajmer sub-division. It will be seen that though the failure of the monsoon had been complete and the prices were far higher than in the great famine of 1899-1900 when many thousands were on relief works, the situation was met by the distribution of a small amount of gratuitous relief, the opening of two test works and the distribution of grass on the takavi system. This is greatly due, in Merwara especially, to the fact that large remittances had come and were coming into the district from men in the army, very many having enlisted during the war. A number of demobilised soldiers too returned after the armistice. These appeared to have plenty of money and were in a position to help their families and keep them off relief works. There was no death from starvation and no begging.

Camels and Bullocks	1,26,823	1,62,854	1,22,425
Buffaloes	28,786	38,699	41,614
Sheep and goats	2,59,416	2,55,565	2,04,674

There was no outbreak of disease among cattle.

SECTION V.

REVENUE AND FINANCE.

A.—IMPERIAL.

(1) Land and water revenue.

Character of the season (vide statement No. 31).

92. The year under report includes the accounts for the rabi harvest of 1325 and kharif 1326 Fasli. The average rainfall was 3 inches 62 cents, the normal being 21 inches. Owing to the complete failure of rains the kharif outturn was very poor. The outturn of rabi was fair mainly from well cultivation.

Variable assessment.

93. The system of fluctuating assessment in the 46 villages worked satisfactorily. The following table compares the assessment made in 1918-19 with the standard revenue fixed for those villages :—

Name of Tahsil.	Standard.			Assessment for 1918-19.
	Land Revenue.	Water Revenue.	Total.	Land Revenue.	Water Revenue.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Ajmer	14,473	1,523	15,996	12,381*	578	12,959
Beawar	2,800	1,547	4,347	1,752	128	1,880
Total	17,273	3,070	20,343	14,133	706	14,839

* Includes Rs. 380 on account of balance of previous year.

As compared with the standard there was a decrease of Rs. 5,884 in the amount assessed which was due to the fact that owing to the failure of rains, the tanks and wells did not receive sufficient water to irrigate the talabi and chahi area, and the dry area yielded no outturn.

Out of the demand of Rs. 14,839 a sum of Rs. 14,572 was recovered during the year leaving a recoverable balance of Rs. 267.

Demand and collections, etc, of land and water revenue (vide statement No. 32).

94. The current demand on account of land and water revenue for the year amounted to Rs. 3,71,193 as against Rs. 3,63,825 for 1917-18 as detailed below :—

	1917-18. Rs.	1918-19. Rs.
Khalsa villages	2,33,481	2,41,620
Variable villages	15,610	14,839
Istimrari area	1,14,734	1,14,734
Total	3,63,825	3,71,193

The current demand includes Rs. 269 on account of fixed rent recovered under rule 14 of the remission rules. Including the arrears of the previous years the total demand aggregated Rs. 4,16,248 against Rs. 4,24,147 for the year 1917-18.

Including the arrears of the previous years the total collection amounted to Rs. 3,14,135 against Rs. 3,78,991 in the year 1917-18 as detailed below :—

	1918-19. Rs.	1917-18. Rs.
Khalsa villages	1,96,499	2,42,289
Variable villages	14,572	16,119
Istimrari area	1,03,064	1,20,583
Total	3,14,135	3,78,991

The balance of land and water revenue which remained outstanding on 31st March 1919 was Rs. 1,02,151 of which Rs. 51,264 relate to istimrari area and the balance to khalsa and variable villages.

95. The miscellaneous income during the year amounted to Rs. 12,999 against Rs. 26,859. Land Revenue miscellaneous receipts (vide statement No. 32).

96. The retail prices of the principal food grains, barley and maize, were as follows :— Prices.

	Barley.				Maize.
	June 1918.		January 1919.		June 1918.		January 1919.

(2) Excise opium and drugs.

99. The total receipts during the year from excise opium and drugs amounted to Rs. 5,53,903 as compared with Rs. 4,23,100 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs. 1,30,803 is mainly under the head "Country spirit." The expenditure amounted to Rs. 18,236 against Rs. 19,137 in the year 1917-18 leaving a net revenue of Rs. 5,35,667 as against Rs. 4,03,963 in the preceding year. The incidence of excise revenue per head of population rose from Re. 0-13-6 in 1917-18 to Re. 1-1-8 in the year under report. Excise (Vide Statements Nos. 36 to 40-C.).

The total issue of country liquor from the distillery, Ajmer, amounted to 77,365·4 proof gallons against 65,710·5 in 1917-18.

The increase in the receipts under the head still head duty is due partly to the increase in the rate of still head duty and partly to an increase in the consumption of liquor which is attributable to the following causes : —

(1) The influenza epidemic during which faith in the prophylactic properties of liquor led to more general consumption.

(2) The closure of the bordering Kishengarh state shops for some period owing to their still having broken down which resulted in the people resorting to our shops.

(3) Inability of the adjoining Native states to manufacture liquor in sufficient quantities owing to the high prices of Gur and Mhowa and to the belief that the liquor distilled in Ajmer, is of superior quality. The Chemical Examiner for Customs and Excise, Calcutta, has reported that the liquor distilled in Ajmer is of excellent quality.

(4) Recruits and men on leave from their regiments had an abundance of spare cash, much of which found its way to the liquor shops.

6. The contract for the supply of country liquor which ended on the 31st March 1918 was renewed in favour of Mr. Cooverji Nowroji Kalyanwala, the old contractor, for a further period of three years. Subsequently, however, as the management of the distillery was unsatisfactory and Mr. Cooverji altogether failed to carry out the terms of his contract and provide an adequate supply of liquor, it was found necessary to transfer the contract to another contractor. With effect from 1st February 1919 the contract was accordingly transferred to Khan Bahadur Hormusji Manackji Bhiwandiwala and Dossabhoy Hormusji (his son) of Bombay, who undertook to carry on the contract on the same conditions.

The number of country liquor shops was the same as in the preceding year, viz., 114. No liquor shop was opened for the first time in any village during 1918-19.

Tari. 101. 375 trees were tapped and yielded 7,159 gallons of tari. The revenue realized from tari was Rs. 550 under a two years' contract which expired in March 1919.

Foreign liquor. 102. The fees for the vend of foreign liquor for which seventeen licenses were issued during the year amounted to Rs. 2,213 against Rs. 2,529 in the preceding year. Statistics showing wholesale and retail vend and consumption of foreign liquor are given in appendices.

Opium. 103. The total opium receipts amounted to Rs. 33,451 against Rs. 31,351 in the preceding year. The quantity of opium imported into Ajmer-Merwara was 77 maunds 28 seers 4 chattaks 2 tolas 6 mashas and that produced locally was 29 maunds 30 seers 12 chattaks 3 tolas 10 5/8 mashas. The sum total 107 maunds 19 seers 1 chattak 1 tola 4 5/8 mashas fetched a duty of Rs. 17,196-5-6 against Rs. 13,427-9-4 in the preceding year on 83 maunds 36 seers 14 chattaks 0 tola 10 mashas.

The total number of licenses issued for the wholesale vend of opium was the same as in the last year, viz. 5. The number of shops for retail vend was 40 * against 39 in the preceding year. In place of the Barar opium shop which remained closed in 1917-18, a new shop was opened at Jalia during the year.

One maund and 27 seers of opium were exported to Mount Abu.

Under the Opium Act 16 persons were prosecuted, of whom 14 were convicted.

74 persons were convicted under the Police Act for drunkenness.

There were no cocaine cases during the year.

106. There is practically no illicit export of excisable articles from Ajmer-Merwara. General remarks.

The smuggling of liquor and opium in the district has considerably decreased.

The Excise Intelligence Bureau which was established in 1913 has continued to work well.

The work of the excise staff has been satisfactory. The Excise Superintendent, Rai Sahib Munshi Pyare Lal, has displayed the same indefatigable energy and whole-hearted devotion to duty and interests of Government that have characterised his work throughout the period of his connection with the Ajmer Excise department.

(3) Stamps.

107. The gross income from stamps amounted to Rs. 2,36,035 as against Rs. 1,71,585 in the year, 1717-18, as detailed below :— Vide statement No. 41.

	1917-18.	1918-19.	Difference.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1. Judicial Stamps . .	1,39,322	1,92,406	+53,084
2. Non-judicial Stamps . .	32,263	42,638	+10,375
3. Recoveries in pauper suits .	...	991	+991
TOTAL Rs.	1,71,585	2,36,035	+64,450

The increase in income from the sale of judicial stamps is mainly due to the institution of a number of Civil suits arising out of the decision given in the Gur Sauda case at Beawar. This case was the result of the practice of gambling in Gur transactions prevalent at Beawar. The increase of revenue in the sale of non-judicial stamps, as compared with that of previous year, is accounted for by the numerous transactions of transfer of property, as explained in para. 30 of this report, larger collection of deficit duty and collection of stamp duty in pauper suits.

108. There was one prosecution for breach of Stamp law during 1918-19.

109. The discount paid to stamp vendors in the district was Rs. 2,879 as against Rs. 2,374 in the previous year.

110. The total charges in connection with the working of the Stamp department amounts to Rs. 19,023 as compared with Rs. 18,389 in 1917-18.

Super Tax.

112. The number of assessees assessed to super tax during the year was 3 and the amount of assessment Rs. 17,617-9-0 but this amount was not actually collected during the year.

B. Revenue and Finance other than Imperial.

District fund excluding Dispensary fund (vide statements Nos. 43 to 45).

113. The year opened with a cash balance of Rs. 35,111. The receipts amounted to Rs. 90,165 as against Rs. 64,070 in 1917-18.

The corresponding figures of expenditure are Rs. 90,121 and Rs. 75,004, respectively.

The receipts increased by Rs. 26,095 and the expenditure by Rs. 15,117.

The increase in receipts was mainly due (i) to the recovery of amounts advanced for the purchase of salt for sale to poorer classes in the rural area and (ii) to the credit on the 29th March 1919 of Rs. 10,753-11-3 as Government contribution to primary and secondary schools being the unspent balance of the imperial grant of Rs. 12,000 for education in Ajmer-Merwara.

The increase in expenditure was chiefly due to larger expenditure during 1918-19 on roads; to advances for purchase of salt for sale to poorer classes in rural area and to high prices in consequence of the war.

The closing balance of the District fund on the 31st March 1919 stood at Rs. 35,155 as compared with Rs. 35,111 on the same date in 1917-18.

The board held three meetings during the year.

Local Funds.

Dispensary Fund.

114. The cash balance at the credit of the Dispensary Fund at the beginning of the year was Rs. 3,234. The receipts during the year amounted to Rs. 15,880 against Rs. 11,119 in 1917-18 shewing an increase of Rs. 4,761, which is due partly to a rise in the special contributions towards the Victoria Hospital at Ajmer and partly to the grant by the District Board of a contribution of Rs. 1,040 being the unspent balance of the Bull Fund at Todgarh for additions and alterations to the Sub-Assistant Surgeon's quarters at Todgarh.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 14,174 compared with Rs. 9,366 in the previous year shewing an increase of Rs. 4,808 which is distributed over all the heads of expenditure.

The increase under the heads of establishment is due to the appointment of a staff for the new Dispensary opened at Masuda, grant of a personal allowance of Rs. 15 per mensem to Lala Ajodhia Nath, Dispensary Clerk, with effect from 1st August 1918 and increment from 1st June 1918 in the pay of certain menial servants in consequence of high prices. That under heads medicines, dieting and miscellaneous contingencies is due to the purchase of additional medicines during the severe epidemic of Influenza and to the highly enhanced prices of all necessary articles due to War. The increase in charges under head "Buildings and repairs" is chiefly due to the payment of a sum of Rs. 1,040 received from the District Board to the Public Works Department for additions and alterations to the Sub-Assistant Surgeon's quarters at Todgarh.

The year closed with a cash balance of Rs. 4,947.

The invested capital remained the same as last year, viz. Rs. 44,000.

Chowkidari fund.

115. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 12,827 in 1918-19 as against Rs. 13,684 in the preceding year. The decrease in receipts is due to the non-recovery of contribution towards the uniform of chowkidars from the Istimrardars.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 12,765 in the year 1918-19 as against Rs. 17,262 in the year 1917-18. The decrease in expenditure is due to the fact that in the year 1917-18 a sum of Rs. 5,000 was invested in the purchase of war bonds.

The closing balance on 31st March 1919 at the credit of the fund was Rs. 5,953-5-0. The condition of the fund is sound.

Police Chanda Fund.

116. The receipts amounted to Rs. 4,171-6-6 as against Rs. 2,272-13-0 in 1917-18 showing an increase of Rs. 1,898-9-6. This was due to the fact that a sum of Rs. 2,000 was borrowed from the taccavi allotment at the disposal of the Extra Assistant Conservator of Forests, Ajmer-Merwara, in February 1919, for the payment of railway freight, etc., of grass purchased for remounts.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 3,856-13-1 as against Rs. 2,426-4-4 in the year 1917-18. The increase of Rs. 1,430-8-9 was due to the fact that a sum of Rs. 2,029-2-4 was advanced from this fund for paying excess feeding charges of remounts as well as railway freight on grass.

Nasirabad Cantonment fund.

117. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 88,262 as compared with Rs. 87,459 in 1917-18, the increase of Rs. 803 being due to larger income from Octroi. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 1,07,892 as against Rs. 79,670 in the preceding year. The increase of Rs. 28,222 in expenditure is accounted for by the refund of cultivation and grazing fees and by money spent on improvements. The closing balance at the end of the year was Rs. 9,518.

SECTION VII.

GENERAL MISCELLANEOUS.

Pushkar Fair.

126. The annual religious fair at Pushkar was held between the 14th and 19th November 1918.

In consequence of serious scarcity of fodder in Ajmer city and district the annual horse show and cattle fair had to be abandoned. As a severe influenza epidemic was raging it was necessary to discourage pilgrims from coming in numbers and with this object railway restrictions, similar to those in force on account of plague in 1917, were imposed.

About 8,000 attended the fair on the last bathing day against 5,000 in 1917 and 70,000 in 1916.

Some 3,080 head of cattle were brought to the fair for sale of which 1,175 were sold for Rs. 53,538 and a sum of Rs. 778 was realized as capitation fees.

No serious crime occurred.

The police, sanitary and other arrangements were satisfactory.

Urs Fair.

127. The annual Urs fair in connection with the shrine of the Dargah Khwaja Moinuddin Chishti at Ajmer was held from the 12th to the 18th April 1918. The number of pilgrims who attended the fair was about 40,000 as against 2,000 in the previous year. The usual police arrangements were made. No serious crime occurred nor did any disturbance take place.

Beawar and Kekri Tejaji Fairs.

128. The annual Tejaji fair was not held either at Beawar or Kekri during the year 1918 owing to the scarcity prevailing in the district.

Printing Presses (vide Statement No. 57).

129. The number of printing presses was the same as in the last year, viz., 15.

In addition to the 8 periodicals and 3 newspapers which were being published at the beginning of 1918 two more periodicals, viz., " Kayasth Kul Sewak " and " Sumru " were started during the year.

Seven books in English, thirty-seven in Hindi, two in Sanskrit and four in more than one language were printed during the year.

Bhomias' Darbar.

130. The District Magistrate, Ajmer-Merwara, collected the usual nazrana from bhomias on the 3rd June 1918, the day fixed for the observance of the birthday of His Majesty the King-Emperor.

No official ceremony was observed.

The total demand amounting to Rs. 3,961 was recovered in full.

War Activities.

131. With a view to co-ordinating and developing all work in the district directly arising out of and connected with the war, a War Purposes Committee was constituted in Ajmer in July 1918. This was subsequently expanded to form a larger Board on which the various communities and interests in Ajmer-Merwara were represented. Sub-Committees to deal with special subjects, viz., War Loan, Publicity, Priority and Supplies, Entertainment of Soldiers, and Finance were also formed, and there were local sub-committees at Beawar, Nasirabad and Kekri. A District War League was started at the same time, its objects being to organise local effort in aid of War Charities and stimulate personal interest in the war. The League, for which Mr. S. F. Madden, O. B. E., acted as Honorary Secretary, did much useful work and considerable sums were allocated to various funds from the subscriptions received, which amounted to Rs. 24,581-8-0 excluding special donations of Rs. 2,500 for the Victory Celebrations. In connexion with the League a Gazette was published under the editorship of Mr. F. A. Leslie Jones who was also President of the Publicity Board. This Gazette had a large circulation in the district and by means of it much useful information with regard to the war was disseminated. It was published fortnightly in English, Hindi and Urdu and distributed free of cost. In addition to this the Publicity Committee organised public lectures in schools and other centres and issued suitable posters for the diffusion of correct information. The total expenditure incurred on the Publicity campaign up to the end of March 1919 was Rs. 7,009-8-1.

Much useful work was also done by the War Loan Committee, and, largely as a result of their efforts, the subscriptions to the 2nd War Loan up to the 31st March 1919 amounted to Rs. 8,81,667-4-0.

The Supplies and Priority Committee performed a useful function in assisting merchants to obtain imports of grain and grass at a time of great scarcity. 1,287 applications for priority certificates were dealt with from June 1918 to the end of March 1919.

In the matter of recruitment Ajmer-Merwara has done very well throughout the war. Out of a total male population of fighting age estimated at 88,732, no less than 6,598 men have been enlisted since August 1914, giving a percentage of 7·4 which, it is believed, compares favourably with the figure for any similar tract with the same area and population. The majority of the recruits were Mers and Merats. Major B. L. Cole, 13th Rajputs, Divisional Recruiting Officer, to whom great credit is due, estimates that out of 12,000 Mers and Merats of military age in Ajmer-Merwara, 5,029 recruits were enrolled, i.e., a percentage of 41, which constitutes a class record for all India. These figures are the more remarkable when it is considered that plague, malaria and influenza took a heavy toll from all classes in the district.

Column 20.—Represents compensation awarded to complainants under section 545, Act X of 1882. These awards should also be shown under the head "fines" "Imposed" and "Realized" in columns 18 and 19, for they form part of such fines.
General.—(1) The total of columns 5, 6 and 11 should correspond with the total of columns 21 to 25 (both inclusive), and the total of column 8 should correspond with the totals of columns 12 to 17 inclusive.
(2) This statement is meant to exhibit every sentence passed, and, where two penalties are inflicted on the same offender, to exhibit them both. Further, to reconcile the number of persons entered in this statement as punished, with the number entered as convicted in statement 4, it is necessary to note cases such as those in which fulfilment of contract is ordered under Act XIII of 1859 in a footnote. As regards persons whose cases were referred for higher punishment, or for confirmation of sentence, the punishment, if any, sanctioned by the higher Court should be entered against such higher Court, and not against the Court making the reference.

Notes.—Column 2.—Total of columns 3 to 12. Cases transferred from one Court to another in the same Province will appear only against the Court by which decided, or in which pending at the end of the year, if not decided. The words "Applicants for revision" in the heading of this column should be held to include only accused persons on whose behalf an application for revision is made, or in whose interest the Magistrate or Judge may take steps to obtain revision on his own motion. Where such application is made, or such steps are taken, on behalf of a complainant, the fact should be noted, with the number of complainants concerned, in the column of Remarks. In the latter case, the accused persons against whom the application is made, though not appearing in this column, will fall into their proper places in columns 3 to 13, according to the result of such application. This note is held to apply also to cases dealt with by the High Court, on review of returns.

Column 5.—Appeals dismissed under Section 423, C. P. C., should be entered in this column.

Column 9.—Orders of discharge set aside by a Superior Court under Section 436, of C. P. C., should be entered in this column.

Column 10.—When a sentence is reversed or proceedings are quashed on appeal, and a new trial or further enquiry is at the same time ordered, the Appellate Court should not fill in column 8 as well as column 10, or column 9 as well as column 10, in each case respectively, but should make the entry in column 10 only.

Column 12.—Duration of appeals, applications for revision, or reference should be calculated thus —

(1) Appeals from date of receipt in office of the petition of appeal;
(2) Applications for revision—from the date of application;
(3) Cases dealt with by the Court otherwise than on application—from date of the order calling for the records; and
(4) Cases sent to the High Court by Lower Courts for revision—from the date of the letter from the Court making the reference.

General.—Persons whose appeals were rejected under Section 421, Criminal Procedure Code, should be entered in column 4, in which should also be included applicants for revision whose cases the Courts have refused to submit to the High Court. In columns 5 to 10, should be shown, opposite the sub-heads for Magistrates of District and Courts of Sessions persons whose cases were disposed of by those Courts without reference to the High Court, and in column 11 all persons whose cases these Courts referred to the High Court.

The number of cases pending from the preceding year should be noted in the column of remarks, and when deducted from the total of column 2 should leave a balance corresponding with the total of column 38 of Statement VII. If after deducting the arrears shown at the end of the previous year, the balance does not agree with the figures in column 38 of Statement VII, the difference should be explained.

Column 6.—When under section 102, C. P. C., a decree is wholly or partially made in favour of an absent plaintiff on the admission of the defendant, the case should be entered in this column.

With regard to applications to execute decrees, the date of their presentation should alone be considered. In calculating average duration, the time that the suit has been actually pending in the particular Court should alone be calculated. The interval should be omitted during which an application for review which has been granted, or an appeal in which an order of remand has been passed, been pending in the superior Court. Revived suits are to be treated as if newly instituted on revival.

FROM

THE HON'BLE MR. R. E. HOLLAND, C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S.,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara,

To

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA IN THE FOREIGN AND POLITICAL DEPARTMENT.

Dated Camp Ajmer, the 13th January 1922.

SIR,

I have the honour to submit the Annual Administration Report of Ajmer-Merwara for the year 1920-21, compiled by Lieutenant-Colonel S. B. A. Patterson, C.I.E., I.A., who held the post of the Commissioner from the 6th December 1920 to the 31st March 1921, with my remarks thereon, embodied in Part I of the Report.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

R. E. HOLLAND,
Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara.

SGPI—S3—87 CAM Ajmer—2-3-22.

PART I.

GENERAL SUMMARY.

1. Although the rainfall was below the average, the year was on the whole a favourable one from the Agricultural point of view, the crops and outturn in the Merwara Tahsils being good. The results in Ajmer however were disappointing.

2. Imperial Revenue showed an increase of nearly Rs. 1,50,000 over the previous year out of which over half a lakh of rupees was derived from Land Revenue proper. The increase of revenue from land irrigated from new wells is a satisfactory feature, since it indicates an effort on the part of the peasantry to improve and stabilise their cultivation. The increases under Excise, Customs and Assessed Taxes are further indications of industrial and economic progress. Expenditure has, however, risen very considerably. This, however, is inevitable as the high cost of living has necessitated the grant of higher rates of pay in every department. The heavy item is accounted for by the increased rate of interest payable on loans.

3. There has been a distinct increase in crime during the year under report which is attributable to high prices and the disturbed conditions which have arisen out of the war. The increase in the number of murders is specially significant. There was a slight decrease in civil litigation.

4. The sanitation of the city of Ajmer still leaves much to be desired. The problem presents great difficulties but it is hoped that when the new regulations come into force the Committee will take more active steps to carry out the recommendations of the Civil Surgeon.

5. The Co-operative movement has shown considerable progress and under expert supervision is now working on proper lines.

The appointment of Superintendent of Police, Ajmer-Merwara, was held by Mr. G. R. Higginson from 1st April to 1st December 1920 and by Mr. J. C. Weymouth from 3rd December 1920 to 31st March 1921.

Revenue and expenditure (vide statement No. 42.)

2. The total revenue (Imperial and Local) of Ajmer-Merwara for the year amounted to Rs. 24,72,695 as compared with Rs. 23,11,085 last year.

The total expenditure was Rs. 24,87,114 as against Rs. 21,61,412 last year.

The Imperial revenue rose from Rs. 15,84,370 in the year 1919-20 to Rs. 17,32,720 in the year under report and the expenditure from Rs. 14,64,749 to Rs. 17,29,371.

There was a surplus of only Rs. 3,349 in the Imperial revenue this year as compared with Rs. 1,29,257 in the preceding year.

The principal variations in revenue and expenditure occurred under the following heads:—

	Rs.
Receipts.
Land Revenue	+53,463
Excise	+10,014
Customs	+14,567
Assessed Taxes	+45,455
Interests	+14,017
Expenditure.
Land Revenue	+32,759
Interest	+95,265
Courts of Law	+35,037
Police	+52,330
Education	+13,194
Miscelleneous	+50,341
Refund and Draw back	−10,246
Scientific and Minor Departments	+13,208
Famine Relief	−19,863
Forest	−19,749

Variations in receipts are explained as below:—

The increase in receipts under head "Land Revenue" is due to recovery of arears of Nazrana from certain Istimrari estates and to assessment of revenue on land irrigated by new wells. The increase under the head Excise is mainly due to Rs. 12,274 recovered from the Liquor contract—supplier on account of higher price realised from the retail vendors.

The increase in the receipts under head "Customs" is due to increase in the outturn of cotton goods from the local mills.

The increase in the receipts under head "Assessed Taxes" is due to the fact that certain deductions allowed under the old Act are not permissible under the amended Act of 1920. The increase in the receipts under head "Interest" is due to larger recoveries.

Variations in expenditure are explained as below:—

The increase of expenditure under heads (1) Land Revenue, (2) Courts of Law, (3) Police, (4) Education and (5) Scientific and Minor Departments is due to revision of the scale of pay of the establishments. The increased expenditure under head "Interest" is due to payment of larger interest on War and other Government Loans.

The increase under head "Miscellaneous" is due to large and heavy remittances made from the Ajmer Treasury.

The decreased expenditure under heads (1) Refund and Draw back and (2) Famine is due to fewer refunds and to the fact that there was no scarcity.

The decrease in expenditure under head "Forest" is due to the fact that the Forest year was made to correspond with financial year and the figures given in this report are only for 9 months while those in the report for 1919-20 were for the full 12 months.

It was also due to the low rate of cotton owing to which many of the cultivators could not pay their dues in full.

Murder.

14. The number of murder cases reported increased from 5 in 1919 to 14 in 1920. The increase of 9 cases may be ascribed to adverse economic conditions and a growing sense of lawlessness. The police did distinctly well in dealing with this class of crime. None of the murders calls for special notice.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 2,386 against Rs. 1,722 last year. The increase is due to revision of scale of pay of the establishment. The area of agricultural land transferred by sale and mortgage was 5,140 Bighas against 4,239 Bighas last year. This is due to prevailing high prices. Vide Statement No. 26.

The work of the Registration offices throughout the year was generally satisfactory.

(5) MUNICIPALITIES (YEAR ENDING THE 31ST MARCH 1921).

Vide Statements Nos. 27 to 30. Ajmer Municipality. Population 99,541.

34. During the year under report, the constitution of the Ajmer Municipal Committee remained unchanged. The Committee was composed of 24 members, 6 nominated and 18 elected, of whom 7 were Europeans and 17 Indians. For the first time in the history of the Municipality an Indian was elected as Chairman.

During the year 18 special and 32 ordinary meetings were held, the average attendance at each meeting being 15·21 and 14·18 respectively.

35. The total income of the year was Rs. 4,16,835, as against Rs. 4,22,641 in 1919-20. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 4,35,095 as against Rs. 4,17,947 in the previous year. The closing balance was Rs. 91,959.

Exclusive of refunds, the income and expenditure show an increase of Rs. 6,548 and Rs. 29,502 respectively when compared with the figures of the preceding year.

The gross income shows a decrease of Rs. 5,806, which is due to a fall in octroi receipts.

36. The gross and net receipts from Octroi in the two years are shown below :—

	Gross.	Net.
	Rs.	Rs.
1919-20	3,01,794	2,24,665
1920-21	2,78,566	2,13,811
Difference	—23,228	—10,854

The decrease of Rs. 23,228 in gross octroi receipts has occurred chiefly under the items "Sugar" and "Piece-goods."

37. The increase in expenditure amounting to Rs. 17,148 occurs chiefly under the head "Water Supply" and is due largely to the fact that pumping had to be resorted to from the Bhaonta wells throughout the year.

38. A sum of Rs. 20,808 was paid during the year towards the liquidation of Government loans, the balance of which due by the Municipality at the end of the year amounted to Rs. 4,68,890.

39. The incidence of taxation was Rs. 2-2-4 per head of the population against Rs. 2-9-8 in the preceding year.

40. The management of the Ajmer Water Works remained in the hands of the Executive Engineer, Public Works Department, Ajmer Division.

41. The total rainfall recorded at the different registering stations during the year was as follows :—

	(1) Foy Sagar	25·51
	(2) Municipal storage cisterns	19·88
	(3) Catchment area of the Foy Sagar . . .	22·34
and	(4) Bhaonta Water Works	23·05

At the Foy Sagar and Budha Pushkar lakes, the water levels were respectively 6·66 and 1·6⅞ at the commencement and 5·66 and 3·6⅜ at the close of the year. The water level of the Bhaonta well No. 5 varied from 91·59 to 96·67.

Water was pumped from the Foy Sagar lake and the Bhaonta wells at intervals during the year. Water was also pumped from the Budha Pushkar lake by the Railway for their own use for about a month in June and July 1920.

42. The number of births recorded was 2,001 and of deaths 4,284 as against 2,157 and 3,761 respectively in the previous year.

The birth and death rates per mille of population were 20·10 and 43·00 against 25·02 and 43·62 respectively in the preceding year.

The mortality among children under 5 years of age was 2,200 (51·58 per cent. of the total mortality) against 1,749 in the previous year.

43. The total number of vaccinations performed was 4,368 against 3,399 in the previous year.

44. The sanitary condition of the city is very bad due largely to the Sweepers' Brit System. As already mentioned in the previous year's report it is impracticable to get rid of this system. A good deal of improvement in this respect is expected after the revised draft of the Ajmer-Merwara Municipalities Regulation which provides for some control over Brit Sweepers being exercised by the Municipal Committee has been passed into law and brought into effect. The draft Regulation referred to is still under the consideration of the Committee who will, it is hoped, push it on with as little delay as possible.

The Civil Surgeon, Ajmer-Merwara, remarks that the present system of removing night soil, dirty water and refuse is tedious and offensive.

A motor van for removing rubbish is being tried and a scheme for augmenting the supply of water and drainage of the city is under consideration.

45. The points suggested by the Civil Surgeon which require immediate attention of the Committee, are (1) exercise of proper control and supervision over sweepers, (2) repairs to conservancy rolling stock and supply of stout bullocks or rather buffaloes, (3) increase in the number of public latrines by erecting ventilated brick latrines on the lines of those lately erected in some of the United Provinces Municipalities, (4) exercise of due scrutiny in granting permission for constructions in the suburbs so as to avoid overcrowding and building of unsystematic, unventilated and irregular houses, (5) paving of lanes and streets, (6) improvement of slaughter houses and butchers' shops and (7) appointment of a good Assistant Health Officer.

Beawar Municipality. Population 22,362.

46. The committee held 8 special and 11 ordinary meetings.

47. The total income and expenditure for the year amounted respectively to Rs. 1,29,003 and Rs. 1,35,492 as against Rs. 1,29,766 and Rs. 1,13,950 in the preceding year. The closing balance was Rs. 42,340 exclusive of Rs. 14,999 invested in Government securities.

The income for the year includes Rs. 11,000 on account of proceeds of the war bonds of 1920. If this item be excluded, the net income amounted to Rs. 1,18,003 showing a decrease of Rs. 11,763 as compared with the last year. This decrease mainly occurred under the head "Octroi" owing to less import of dutiable articles.

The expenditure, however, shows a large increase of Rs. 21,542 which is chiefly visible under the heads "Water Supply," "Conservancy," "Public Works" and "Public Instruction." The last named head alone contributes a major portion of this increase (Rs. 13,480) due especially to the construction of the Municipal Boys' School building.

48. The incidence of octroi taxation per head of population was Rs. 3-5-6 as against Rs. 3-7-11 in the year 1919-1920.

49. The management of the Beawar Water Works remained in the hands of the Edward Mills Co., Ld., Beawar. There was sufficient water both in Jalia tank and wells. In the course of the year water was supplied to the town to the extent of 2·42 gallons per head of population per day at a cost of Rs. 11,681.

50. The numbers of births and deaths registered during the year were respectively 744 and 915 as against 911 and 891 in 1919-1920.

51. The accounts for the year 1919-1920 were audited by the Local Fund Audit Department of the United Provinces.

52. There was no change in the constitution of the Committee.

Kekri Municipality. Population 5,698.

53. The Committee held 6 ordinary and 10 special meetings during the year.

54. The total income and expenditure amounted to Rs. 17,729 and Rs. 18,759 against Rs. 16,395 and Rs. 19,813, respectively in the preceding year. The increase of Rs. 1,334 in income is mainly due to (1) the Government grant-in-aid towards the maintenance of the Municipal Anglo-Vernacular School at Kekri, (2) larger collections of octroi owing partly to the revision of the octroi schedule and the raising of the refundable limit and partly to the larger imports.

The decrease of Rs. 1,054 in expenditure is explained by the fact that during the preceding year certain extraordinary expenses had to be incurred, e.g., payment of arrears of war allowance to the staff, purchase of furniture for the School, contribution towards the Peace celebrations, etc., while no such charges were required during the year under report.

55. The incidence of octroi taxation per head of population was Rs. 2-2-8¾ as against Rs. 1-15-3 in the year 1919-20.

56. The numbers of births and deaths recorded during the year were 158 and 182 against 120 and 126, respectively in the preceding year.

57. The balance at the credit of the Municipality at the close of the year was Rs. 21,794 against Rs. 22,824 in the preceding year.

58. The expenditure for the year under report exceeds the income by Rs. 1,030. This is due to the fact that the measures to improve finances, viz., the revised octroi schedule and the increased minimum refundable limit of octroi, sanctioned by the Hon'ble the Chief Commissioner were only brought into effect about a month and a half before the close of the year.

(6)—Medical (year ending 31st December 1920).

59. The number of dispensaries in Ajmer-Merwara during the year ending 31st December 1920 remained the same as last year, viz., 7.

The number of indoor and outdoor patients treated at these dispensaries was 72,662 as compared with 66,703 in the last year.

The decrease is due to the fact that owing to the high prices of cloth, there was a considerable decrease in the sales. The cost of establishment, etc., for carrying on business also increased.

The total collection of income-tax through the Collectors of the district amounted to Rs. 1,24,665† during the year against Rs. 1,13,283 in the previous year. In addition to this a sum of Rs. 21,286‡ was collected under the marginally noted § heads for which no details are available in the Collector's office.

Super tax.

98. A sum of Rs. 59,340 was collected under the Super tax Act, VIII of 1917, from a company and two Hindu undivided families during the year under report.

B. Revenue and Finance other than Imperial.

District Fund. Excluding Dispenssry fund (vide Statements Nos. 43 to 45).

99. The year opened with a cash balance of Rs. 15,402.

The receipts amounted to Rs. 73,191 as against Rs. 51,034 in 1919-20.

The corresponding figures of expenditure are Rs. 62,562 and Rs. 70,787 respectively.

The increase in receipts was mainly due (i) to the fact that the Government contribution of Rs. 15,000 for the year 1919-20 was recovered in June 1920 and (ii) to large receipts from the sale proceeds of unclaimed cattle.

The difference in expenditure is due to the fact (i) that in the year 1919-20 a sum of about Rs. 10,000 had to be spent for constructing additional rooms for the Primary Schools at Bhim, Jalia, Kadera and Karel while there was no such expenditure during the year under report, (ii) to the revision of the scale of pay of establishment with effect from the 1st March 1920.

The closing balance of the District Fund on the 31st March 1921 stood at Rs. 26,031 as compared with Rs. 15,402 on the same date in 1919-20.

The Board held four meetings during the year.

Local Funds.

Dispensary Fund.

100. The cash balance at the credit of the Ajmer-Merwara Dispensary Fund at the beginning of the year amounted to Rs. 3,951.

The receipts during the year under report were Rs. 12,376 against Rs. 12,766 in 1919-20 shewing a decrease of Rs. 390 which was due to the fact that there was a decrease of Rs. 1,528 in the contributions from private persons and the District Fund against an increase of Rs. 1,138 in the Municipal and miscellaneous contributions.

The expenditure during the year amounted to Rs. 15,442 against Rs. 13,750 in the preceding year shewing an increase of Rs. 1,692 which is accounted for by a decrease of Rs. 883 under heads "Allowance to clerk, compounders and dressers" and "Cost of Medicines" and an increase of Rs. 2,575 under all the other heads of expenditure.

The decrease in allowance is due to the discontinuance of the grant of war allowance with effect from the 1st March 1920. The increase under "Buildings" and "Repairs" and other heads of expenditure is due to the provision of wire gauze to the doors and windows of the operating theatre in the Victoria Hospital at Ajmer and high prices of all the necessary articles.

The year closed with a cash balance of Rs. 885. The invested capital of Rs. 44,000 remained the same as last year.

Chowkidari Fund.

101. The receipts amounted to Rs. 15,750 as against Rs. 15,564 in the preceding year. The increase is due to the arrears of Chowkidari cess for previous years having been recovered in the year 1920-21.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 12,733 as against Rs. 14,424 in the year 1919-20. The decrease is due to the fact that no uniforms were supplied to the village chowkidars during the year.

The closing balance at the credit of the Fund on 31st March 1921 was Rs. 10,110-6-3. The condition of the fund is sound.

Police Chanda Fund.

102. The receipts amounted to Rs. 1,461 as against Rs. 4,668 in 1919-1920 showing a decrease of Rs. 3,207.

The following are the reasons for decrease :—

(1) No advances for purchase of grass were recovered during the year.

(2) Owing to the abolition of the Silehdari system no subscription was realized from the Sawars from 1st January 1921.

The expenditure amounted to Rs. 5,875 as against Rs. 1,934 in the year 1919-1920.

The increase of Rs. 3,941 is due to the fact that on the abolition of chanda fund the liabilities of the mounted police were paid during the year.

Nasirabad Cantonment Fund.

103. The total receipts amounted to Rs. 89,952, as compared with Rs. 88,751 in 1919-20 showing an increase of Rs. 1,201 which is attributable to a larger income under octroi. The expenditure amounted to Rs. 90,221 as against Rs. 88,537 in the preceding year; the increase of Rs. 1,684 being due to (1) the grant of increments to the staff and (2) payment of Rs. 1,200 as grant-in-aid to the Women's Mission Hospital. The closing balance at the end of the year was Rs. 9,462.

In consequence of an outbreak of epidemic diseases among horses and cattle in Ajmer-Merwara and adjoining States in Rajputana the annual Horse Show and Cattle Fair in connection with the religious festival had to be abandoned ; but as there was no epidemic disease among people no restriction was imposed on the issue of Railway tickets.

There was a large gathering of people estimated at 60,000 on the last bathing day against 90,000 in the preceding year and 8,000 in 1918, when restrictions were imposed on account of plague and influenza.

Although the cattle fair was abandoned the number of cattle brought for sale was 9,985 of which 7,935 were sold for Rs. 6,01,533 and a sum of Rs. 8,729 was realized on account of capitation tax.

The Police, Sanitary and other arrangements were satisfactory.

Urs fair.

113. The annual Urs fair in connection with the shrine of the Durgah Khwaja Moinuddin Chisti at Ajmer was held from 11th to 17th March 1921. Owing to shortage of coal the Railway authorities were not able to arrange for special extra trains with the result that the number of pilgrims who attended fell to about half a lakh against 1,50,000 who attended the fair held last year.

The usual police arrangements were made. No serious crime occurred nor did any disturbance take place.

This statement is meant to exhibit every sentence passed, and, where two penalties are inflicted on the same offender, to exhibit them both. Further, to reconcile the number of persons entered in this statement as punished, with the number entered as convicted in statement 4, it is necessary to note cases such as those in which fulfilment of contract is ordered under Act XIII of 1859 in a footnote. As regards persons whose cases were referred for higher punishment, or for confirmation of sentence, the punishment, if any, sanctioned by the higher Court should be entered against such higher Court, and not against the Court making the reference.

Commissioner and Sessions Judge, Ajmer-Merwara.

Notes.—Column 2.—Total of columns 3 to 12. Cases transferred from one Court to another in the same Province will appear only against the Court by which decided, or in which pending at the end of the year, if not decided. The words "Applicants for revision" in the heading of this column should be held to include only accused persons on whose behalf an application for revision is made, or in whose interest the Magistrate or Judge may take steps to obtain revision on his own motion. Where such application is made, or such steps are taken, on behalf of a complainant, the fact should be noted, with the number of complainants concerned, in the column of Remarks. In the latter case, the accused persons against whom the application is made, though not appearing in this column, will fall into their proper places in columns 3 to 13, according to the result of such application. This note is held to apply also to cases dealt with by the High Court, on review of returns.

Column 5.—Appeals dismissed under Section 423, C. P. C., should be entered in this column.

Column 9.—Orders of discharge set aside by a Superior Court under Section 436, of C. P. C., should be entered in this column.

Column 13.—Duration of appeals, applications for revision, or reference should be calculated thus—

(1) Appeals from date of receipt in office of the petition of appeal;
(2) Applications for revision—from the date of application;
(3) Cases dealt with by the Court otherwise than on application—from the date of the order calling for the records; and
(4) Cases sent to the High Court by Lower Courts for revision—from the date of the letter from the Court making the reference.

General.—Persons whose appeals were rejected under Section 421, Criminal Procedure Code, should be entered in column 4, in which should also be included applicants for revision whose cases the Courts have refused to submit to the High Court. In columns 5 to 10, should be shown, opposite the sub-heads for Magistrates of District and Courts of Sessions, persons whose cases were disposed of by those Courts without reference to the High Court, and in column 11 all persons whose cases these Courts referred to the High Court.

Cases transferred from one Court to another in the same Province will appear only against the Court by which decided, or in which pending at the close of the year, if not decided. The number of cases pending from the preceding year should be noted in the column of remarks, and when deducted from the total of column 2 should leave a balance corresponding with the total of column 38 of Statement VII. If after deducting the arrears shown at the end of the previous year, the balance does not agree with the figures in column 38 of Statement VII, the difference should be explained.

Column 6.—When under section 102, C. P. C., a decree is wholly or partially made in favour of an absent plaintiff on the admission of the defendant, the case should be entered in this column.

Column 8.—A case in which defendant appears, but a plaintiff does not, and defendant does not confess judgment and the case is thereupon dismissed, the case should be entered in this column.

Columns 15 and 16.—As regards the average duration of suits, the date of their presentation of the plaint shall be considered as the date of institution, unless some defect or omission requires to be amended before the plaint can be admitted, in which case the date of admission after amendment shall be regarded as the date of institution. With regard to applications to execute decrees, the date of their presentation should alone be considered. In calculating average duration, the time that the suit has been actually pending in the particular Court should alone be calculated. The interval should be omitted during which an application for review which has been granted, or an appeal in which an order of remand has been passed, been pending in the superior Court. Revived suits are to be treated as if newly instituted on revival.
